Florrie, 2021-03-23 When three friends decide to throw caution to the wind quit their full time jobs and travel through Europe for six months they visualised an adventure they would never forget And they weren't wrong More than three decades later they were still gas bagging about the absurd situations they found themselves in From Brisbane to London via the Greek Islands and other intoxicating European countries to boot their looming escapade would become the topic of conversation for the rest of their lives Chained to their dreary office desks since school Brooke Claire and Lucy had finally had enough of the corporate world Existing like caged birds Monday to Friday was no longer an option It was time for them to spread their dormant wings and take flight Two Geminis and a Capricorn made an interesting travel combination but when you're friends till the end it doesn't matter what star sign you are unless of course you're a Capricorn with Cancer rising and decide to give it all away in Venice because you fear for your life The road to Utopia was never meant to be easy but when you're filled with hopes and dreams who cares if you meet some oddballs along the way From Greek Gods to Italian models From a repulsive sex crazed Yugoslavian taxi driver to an irresistible Serbian ex con From brushes with the Police in Venice to French thieves on the Metro in Paris not to mention more than a few shady characters in between this would certainly be a trip they would never forget So if you're looking for fun under the European sun not to mention some unabashed sex and romance to spice up your every day life grab your passport book a ticket and join us on our trip of a lifetime [Catalog of Copyright Entries. within a context of transnational migration. In focusing on people with different migration histories and ethnic backgrounds, this book challenges the heteronormativity of Migration Studies and reveals the interrelated issues involved in migration, sexuality, and religion. The research will be valuable for those working on immigration, refugees, LGBT issues, public policy, and contemporary Muslim studies.

At Europe's Edge Cetta Mainwaring, 2019-09-05

The Mediterranean Sea is now the deadliest region in the world for migrants. Although the death toll has been rising for many years, the EU response remains fragmented and short-sighted. Politicians frame these migration flows as an unprecedented crisis and emphasize migration control at the EU's external boundaries. In this context, At Europe's Edge investigates why the EU prioritizes the fortification of its external borders, why migrants nevertheless continue to cross the Mediterranean and to die at sea, and how EU member states on the southern periphery respond to their new role as migration gatekeepers. The book addresses these questions by examining the relationship between the EU and Malta, a small state with an outsized role in migration politics, as EU policies place it at the crosshairs of migration flows and controls. The chapters combine ethnographic methods with macro-level analyses to weave together policymaker, practitioner, and migrant experiences and demonstrate how the Mediterranean is an important space for the contested construction of Europe. This book provides rich insight into the unexpected level of influence Malta exerts on EU migration governance, as well as the critical role migrants and their clandestine journeys play in animating EU and Maltese migration policies, driving international relations, and producing Malta's political power. By centring on the margins, the book pushes the boundaries of our knowledge of the global politics of migration, asylum, and border security.
