Shadow Baby:

Shadow Baby Alison McGhee, 2009-09-22 A young girl forms an unforgettable friendship with an elderly neighbor while searching for answers about her family's past in this national bestseller and Pulitzer Prize nominee Eleven year old Clara is struggling to find the truth about her missing father and grandfather and her twin sister dead at birth but her mother steadfastly refuses to talk about these people who are lost to her daughter When Clara begins interviewing Georg Kominsky a lone old man for a school biography assignment she finds that he is equally reticent about his own concealed history Precocious and imaginative the girl invents version upon version of Mr Kominsky's past just as she invents lives for the people missing from her own shadowy past The journey of discovery that these two oddly matched people embark upon is at the heart of this beautiful story about friendship and communion about discovering what matters most in life and about the search to find the missing pieces of ourselves McGhee's prose glistens with shrewd truth and wild imaginings creating a novel that will reverberate in the hearts and minds of readers long after the book is finished Shadow Baby Margaret FORSTER, 1997 Shadow Baby Alison McGhee, 2003-08-13 An eleven year old girl being raised by a single mother in the Adirondack region of New York begins asking questions about her biological father and her maternal grandmother

Walking Shadows Ib Johansen, 2015-08-25 Walking Shadows focuses on the American fantastic and the American grotesque attempting in this manner for the first time to establish an overview of and a theoretical approach to two literary modes that have often been regarded as essential to an understanding of the American cultural canon The central importance of these two literary forms has been pointed out earlier by important theorists such as Stanley Cavell David Reynolds and William Van O Connor A number of literary works from the beginning of the nineteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries are taken up in order to illustrate the inherent links or family resemblances between the two modes with special reference to the way in which a Bakhtinian reading may facilitate our appreciation of their status within the canon These excursions into the House of Fantastic and Grotesque Fiction may be of interest not only to hardcore aficionados but also to philosophically minded readers in general in particular perhaps to those who have paid acute attention to debates on late twentieth and early twenty first century post structuralism and deconstruction where the classic positions of Foucault Derrida et al still appear to be relevant
