Shadowed By Danger Mystiques 59:

Integrating Shadow Ann Casement, 2025-09-04 Since its inception the notion of shadow is recognised as one of Jung's major contributions to the world of psychology. Shadow traits are often unconsciously felt to be threats to our self-image so we use defence mechanisms such as repression and denial to dismiss its existence and place it on to others either in the personal or collective sphere. Although there exists considerable overlap between the strands dividing the shadow into three constituent parts: personal, collective and archetypal, helps to fully explore its impact on the world. The personal shadow is usually viewed as the base inferior part of personality although it can also include positive aspects but it needs to be acknowledged and incorporated to make an individual whole. The collective shadow is found in many dark periods of history: witch hunt trials, religious wars, the Holocaust and Rwandan genocide to name but a few. In today's world it is spread at the speed of light by mass media. The archetypal shadow emanates from the realm of the collective unconscious and may be equated with evil. Alongside shadow is the inextricably linked concept of persona, the outer face that is presented to the world which is also explored in detail as well as the role of the shadow in the act of scapegoating and within the professional sphere and Jung's links to the social sciences in particular anthropology and sociology. Shadow is a theme that Ann Casement returned to many times in her decades-long career, always finding new ways to explore and explain it. Integrating Shadow: Authentic Being in the World brings together these many years of presentations and research to present a multi-layered and rich discourse on the meaning, importance and consequences of the shadow in all our lives.

Consorting with the Shadow: Phantasms and the Dark Side of Female Consciousness Alison Armstrong, 2019-04-02 Incorporating essays, short stories, film and book analyses, Consorting with the Shadow examines the psychological bond between women and the archetypal creatures of imagination: the vampires, shape shifters and other monsters we fear, love and wish to emulate.

Wedding His Takeover Target Emilie Rose, 2010-11-02 Nothing could stop Aspen resort heir Gavin Jarrod's land grab. Not even the ornery owner's insistence that Gavin marry his granddaughter to seal the deal. Gavin was up to the challenge of wedding perfect stranger Sabrina Taylor since this beautiful stranger was perfect. After a whirlwind seduction he had her wed and bedded to their mutual satisfaction. But what was this new groom to do once his bride announced she was pregnant with his child? It was back to the bargaining table because she wanted a real father for her baby or this merger was off.

Shadows of Fatherhood, Jung, and Film Mark Holmwood, 2024-08-23 Every picture tells a story and stories have the power to educate. Looking at two key Jungian archetypes, the father and the shadow, from a challenging perspective, this book investigates the negative shadowy side of fatherhood and its detrimental effect on children by presenting a collection of stories from all over the world. Blurring the line between fiction and fact, art and academic theory, the book travels across a difficult psychosocial landscape discussing family life, mental health and criminality. Mark Holmwood highlights the educational value of these stories whilst exploring the father-child dynamic, adverse childhood experiences, father hunger, asymmetrical power relations.
