

Look
here?

The text is rendered in a bold, black, cursive script. The word 'Look' is at the top, followed by 'WHO'S' which is contained within a decorative banner that curves across the middle. Below the banner is the word 'here?' with a large question mark. The entire phrase is embellished with various calligraphic flourishes: a small arrow points to the 'L' in 'Look'; a star-like flourish sits above the 'o' in 'Look'; a small heart is placed near the 'e' in 'here?'; and several other decorative swirls and lines are scattered around the text.

Escape or Die Paul Brickhill,2021-08-05 Extraordinary times Extraordinary courage Here from the bestselling author of The Great Escape are eight true and startling escape stories from the Second World War The heroism of the servicemen who dared to defy their captors in this volume is matched only by that of the underground movements and ordinary civilians who helped the escapees in these stories of daring invention and doggedness against the odds From the account of the Spitfire pilot left for dead by an execution squad in Sicily to the story of the air gunner forced to blag his way across the Baltic every one is an unputdownable classic As long as there are prisons men will try to escape from them and as long as there is an RAF it will bring to the problems of escape the qualities of high resource pure cussedness and that indefinable damnably annoying refusal to lie down when dead of which all the stories in this book are such excellent and I think such exciting examples
