Marguerite Duras Lives On:

The Easy Life Marguerite Duras, 2022-12-06 For the first time in English literary icon Marguerite Duras's foundational masterpiece about a young woman's existential breakdown in the deceptively peaceful French countryside The Easy Life is the story of Francine Veyrenatte, a twenty-five-year-old woman who already feels like life is passing her by. After witnessing a series of tragedies on her family farm, she alternates between intense grief and staggering boredom as she discovers a curious detachment in herself, an inability to navigate the world as others do. Hoping to be cleansed of whatever ails her, she travels to the coast to visit the sea. But there she finds herself unraveling, uncertain of what is inside her. Lying in the sun with her toes in the sand by day while psychologically dissolving in her hotel room by night, she soon reaches the peak of her inner crisis and must grapple with whether and how she can take hold of her own existence. An extraordinary examination of a young woman's estrangement from the world that only Marguerite Duras could have written, The Easy Life is a work of unsettling beauty and insight and a bold, spellbinding journey into the depths of the human heart. Marguerite Duras

Lives On Janine Ricouart, 1998-12-23 Marguerite Duras Lives On is a collection of essays published in English by the Duras Society between the fall of 1989 and spring 1993 and includes various critical schools of Durassian Scholars. Organized by genres, this book includes an essay on Duras's theater, five essays on her films, several essays on her novels, and also an essay on feminist theory dealing with issues of the female voice and identity in Duras's work. The forward is written by Anne Marie Alonzo, who is a poet, fiction writer, playwright, literary critic, and editor/publisher of Trois, a leading review and publishing house in Quebec. Marguerite Duras Lives on Monika Boehringer, 2000 The Lover Marguerite Duras, 2011-07-06

An international best seller with more than one million copies in print and a winner of France's Prix Goncourt, The Lover has been acclaimed by critics all over the world since its first publication in 1984. Set in the prewar Indochina of Marguerite Duras's childhood, this is the haunting tale of a tumultuous affair between an adolescent French girl and her Chinese lover. In spare yet luminous prose, Duras evokes life on the margins of Saigon in the waning days of France's colonial empire and its representation in the passionate relationship between two unforgettable outcasts. Long unavailable in hardcover, this edition of The Lover includes a new introduction by Maxine Hong Kingston that looks back at Duras's world from an intriguing new perspective: that of a visitor to Vietnam today. The Places of Marguerite Duras Jordan Weitzman, 2025-04-15

The first English translation of an important and evocative interview turned book project in Marguerite Duras's illustrious oeuvre, I could talk for hours about this house, this garden. I know it all. I know where every old door is, everything: the walls of the pond, all the plants, the location of every plant, even the wild plants. I know the place of everything. So begins Marguerite Duras's rhapsody on the spaces she has inhabited throughout her life. The Places of Marguerite Duras was filmed and aired as a two-part television documentary in 1976. Her reminiscences are structured around her memories of specific locations: her house in Neauphle-le-Château, her childhood home in French Indochina, which inspired her acclaimed novel The Sea Wall, the Hotel des Roches Noires in Trouville where she wrote The Ravishing of Lol Stein and the vast seascapes of Indochina Bengal and Normandy whose powerful tides compelled her art and life The transcript of the documentary was published in French two years after the documentary aired and is now published in English for the first time just shy of 50 years since the film's creation True to the original French edition Duras's reflections are accompanied by photographs and film stills The complete English translation by Alison Strayer includes a new essay by writer and director Durga Chew Bose Marguerite Duras 1914-96 was a filmmaker and author and a leading figure in French postwar cinema Her novel L'Amant won the Prix Goncourt in 1984 She was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Original Screenplay for the film Hiroshima mon amour 1959

Wartime Notebooks and Other Texts Marguerite Duras, 2008 Marguerite Duras was one of the leading intellectual and novelists of post war France This collection was retrieved from the papers she left at her death and offers a fascinating insight into Duras's life and work Her notebooks retrace the formative experiences in Duras's life chronicling every hope and disappointment
