were children during the Great Depression and young adults during WWII A collection of 70 stories Food and Cooking on Early Television in Europe Ana Tominc,2022-02-14 This collection critically examines the role of food programming on European early television and the impact this might have had on food habits and identities for the European audiences It foregrounds various food programme genres from travelog cooking show and TV cooking competition to more artistic forms For the first time it examines in one place eight European countries from Portugal to Czechoslovakia and Britain to France and Yugoslavia to explore ways in which television contributed to culinary change demonstrating differences and similarities in which early food programme in Europe shaped and promoted progress modernity gender and national identities in both Eastern and Western Europe Featuring a number of archival images that illustrate early food programme visually this collection complements other research into postwar food history adding a perspective of visual medium that is often neglected As such it should be interesting for food and media historians as well as those interested in European postwar history and culture Back In Time For Dinner Mary Gwynn,2015-03-12 Do you remember the arrival of the fish finger the rise and fall of Angel Delight Vesta curries and Wimpy hamburgers Did you own a fondue set or host a Tupperware party or were you starving yourself on the Cabbage Soup Diet Was life always too short to stuff a mushroom And what was the point of Nouvelle Cuisine There has been a revolution in our kitchens In 1950 the average housewife worked a seventy five hour week No one owned a fridge or had seen a teabag let alone an avocado or a Curly Wurly Ten years later sugar consumption had rocketed we ate more biscuits for dinner than vegetables and fruit It was not until the mid 1990s that we started to worry about five a day And now nearly twenty years on from the first vegetable box delivery scheme we are fatter than ever before Has there ever been a golden age of the family meal Full of delicious detail this marvellous companion to the BBC series is rich with nostalgia and provides a feast of extraordinary factual nuggets Who can guess the filling of the first pre packed sandwich in 1984 And who could have foreseen then that a kitchen robot that can write your shopping list is now just around the corner Reflecting all the fads and fashions that have graced our table Back in Time for Dinner is much more than a book about dinner it holds a mirror to our changing family lives Self Reliance John Yeoman,1999
