Marine And Coastal Special Investigation Descriptive Report:

As If for a Thousand Years Danielle Clode, 2006-01-01 When Bill Borthwick Minister for Lands delivered his welcoming speech to the newly formed Land Conservation Council in 1971 he advised them to make their recommendations on public land use for Victoria as if for a thousand years And with that he left them to it The Land Conservation Council was to provide a unique framework free from political intervention where experts could debate public land use issues and recommend fair and balanced public land use enshrining a representative reserve system for Victoria's remaining natural heritage This is the story of the Land Conservation Council and how it developed into a leading model for community consultation surviving dramatic changes to the political and environmental landscape but despite name changes remaining a stable and conciliatory force in the battle over public land in Victoria Beaches of the Victorian Coast and Port Phillip Bay Andrew D. Short, 2006-05-18 This book provides the first description of all Victorian ocean and Port Phillip Bay beaches It is based on the results of the Victorian section of the Australian Beach Safety and Management Program Big, Bold and Blue James Fitzsimons, Geoff Wescott, 2016-07 The world's oceans cover about 70% of our planet To safeguard the delicate ecological and environmental functions of the oceans and their remarkable biodiversity networks of marine protected areas are being created In some of these areas human activity is restricted to non-exploitative activities and in others it is managed in a sustainable way Australia is at the forefront of marine conservation with one of the largest systems of marine protected areas in the world Big Bold and Blue Lessons from Australia's Marine Protected Areas captures Australia's experience sharing important lessons from the Great Barrier Reef and many other extraordinary marine protected areas It presents real world examples leading academic research perspectives on government policy and information from indigenous sea country management non-governmental organisations and commercial and recreational fishing sectors The lessons learnt during the rapid expansion of Australia's marine protected areas both positive and negative will aid and advise other nations in their own marine conservation efforts Marine and Coastal Special Investigation Descriptive Report, 1993 Marine & Freshwater Research, 2001 Under Southern Seas Neil Andrew, 1999 Most Australians live in the southern half of their vast continent and within striking distance of the coast While great recreational and commercial use is made of the reefs that fringe this enormous coastline our understanding of the reefs is only fragmentary In this full colour guide to our reefs leading marine biologists look at our current understanding of the ecology of subtidal reefs and their fisheries The Victorian Naturalist, 1995 Aquatic Protected Areas - What Works Best and How Do We Know? J. P. Beumer, Ann Grant, 2003 These proceedings of the inaugural World Congress on Aquatic Protected Areas are structured around the following 5 themes Who and what are the beneficiaries of aquatic protected areas the design and selection of aquatic protected areas success factors in the implementation and management of aquatic protected areas measuring performance of aquatic protected areas and the role of aquatic protected areas in the aquatic ecosystem Annual Report Victoria.
