James Trotman, 2002 Multi culturalism Roots and Realities Edited by C James Trotman Examines the place of multiculturalism in our society The most meaningful support for multiculturalism has come from intellectuals such as those represented in this book who have discovered greater meaning about our American past by incorporating the concepts driving multi culturalism These essays engage the word and its meanings as varied as they are in an effort to add and expand on the dialogue for this ever increasingly vital concept However Multiculturalism Roots and Realities is not a book aimed at debates instead each essay generally makes use of multiculturalism as a way of examining history and social themes while providing a broader and perhaps a deeper view of 19th century American life and thought The book's general goal which in fact belongs to all of us is to recognize excellence in the cultures of the historically neglected claim excellence where it is found and position it so that it can contribute to a fuller understanding of the human condition Contributors include Susan Alves Barbara J Ballard Jeannine DeLombard Juniper Ellis Joe B Fulton Henry Louis Gates Richard E Greene Richard Hardack Julie Husband Gillian Johns Verner D Mitchell Christine Palumbo DeSimone Janet Shannon C James Trotman Matthew Wilson and Julie Winch C James Trotman is Professor of English and founding director of the Frederick Douglass Institute at West Chester University of Pennsylvania He is author of Langston Hughes The Man His Art and His Continuing Influence Sales territory is worldwide January 2002 320 pages 6 1/8 x 9 1/4 cloth 0 253 34002 0 49 95 L 35 50 paper 0 253 21487 4 22 95 s 16 50 Southern Local Color Barbara C. Fulton, 2006 I was made in His image Mark Twain once said but have never been mistaken for Him God may have made Mark Twain in His image but Twain frequently remade himself by adopting divine personae as part of his literary burlesque Readers were delighted rather than fooled when Twain adopted the image of religious vocation throughout his writing career Theologian Missionary Priest Preacher Prophet Saint Brother Twain Holy Samuel the Bishop of New Jersey and of course the Reverend Mark Twain Joe B Fulton has not written a study of Samuel Langhorne Clemens's religious beliefs but rather one about Twain's use of theological form and content in a number of his works some well known others not so widely read Twain adopted such religious personae to burlesque the religious literary genres associated with those vocations He wrote catechisms prophecies psalms and creeds all in the theological tradition but with a comic twist Twain even wrote a burlesque life of Christ that has the son of God sporting blue jeans and cowboy boots With his distinctive comic genius Twain entered the religious dialogue of his time employing the genres of belief as his vehicle for criticizing church and society Twain's burlesques of religious form and content reveal a writer fully engaged with the religious ferment of his day Works like The Innocents Abroad Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc Roughing It and What Is Man are the productions of a writer skilled at adopting and adapting established literary and religious forms for his own purposes Twain is sometimes viewed as a haphazard writer but in The Reverend Mark Twain Fulton demonstrates how carefully Twain studied established literary and theological genres to entertain and criticize his society Book jacket
