Marketing Apocalypse Eschatology Escapology And The Illusion Of The End:

Marketing Apocalypse Jim Bell, Stephen Brown, David Carson, 2003-09-02 The present volume of essays examines the extent to which the end of marketing is nigh The authors explore the present state of marketing scholarship and put forward a variety of visions of marketing in the twenty first century Ranging from narratology to feminism these suggestions are always enlightening often provocative and occasionally outrageous Marketing Apocalypse is required reading for anyone interested in the future of marketing

Marketing and Social Construction Chris Hackley, 2003-08-29 Marketing is at the centre of the business education boom a million or more people worldwide are studying the subject at any one time Yet despite widespread discontent with the intellectual standards in marketing very little has changed over the past thirty years In this ground breaking new work Chris Hackley presents a social constructionist critique of popular approaches to teaching theorising and writing about marketing Drawing on a wide range of up to date European and North American studies Dr Hackley presents his argument on two levels First he argues that mainstream marketing s ideologically driven curriculum and research programmes dominated by North American tradition reproduce business school myths about the nature of practically relevant theory and the role of professional education in management fields Second he suggests a broadened theoretical scope and renewed critical agenda for research theory and teaching in marketing Intellectually rigorous yet comprehensible this work will be of vital importance to all those interested in the future of teaching and research in business and management

Interactive Marketing Christopher Miles, 2010-05-18 This book critically examines the rhetoric surrounding current trends in the adoption of tropes of interactivity in marketing communication Concepts such as viral advertising customer generated content brand communities and the whole panoply of Web 2 0 mediated marketing technologies all have their foundations in an overt positioning of interactivity as the savior of effective marketing communication Yet what exactly is meant by interactivity in these contexts and how far does it represent a revolution in the methodologies of marketing Anchoring his analysis in a critique of the assumptions of control embedded in current marketing communication models and the rhetorical analysis of exemplar texts from the Marketing Management Customer Relationship Management Viral Marketing and Buzz Marketing paradigms Chris Miles investigates the constructions and reconstructions of discourse that surround the uses of interactivity in contemporary marketing discourses In doing so he offers a radical new model of marketing based upon a recursive constructivist understanding of communication that uses metaphors of invitation and exploration to rebuild interactivity at the center of marketing The work culminates in a reading of the theory of Relationship Marketing that uses autism as an allegory to interrogate the communicative paradox at the heart of this contemporary marketing panacea

Imagining Marketing Stephen Brown, Anthony Patterson, 2001-02-01 Imagination is a word that is widely used by marketing practitioners but rarely examined by marketing academics This neglect is largely due to the imagination s artistic connotations which run counter to the scientific mindset that dominates marketing scholarship

Of late however an artistic turn has taken place in marketing research and Romancing the Market Stephen Brown,Bill Clarke,Anne Marie Doherty,2003-09-02 Romancing the Market is a radical rethinking of marketing understanding Marketing and consumer research are dominated by the neo classical ideals of the Enlightenment such as rigour dispassion and the search for scientific truth In a series of provocative essays the contributors challenge these assumptions with reference to the individuality innovation and imagination of the Romantic movement The book contains essays by an international selection of the most creative contemporary marketing scholars including Elizabeth Hirschman Russell Belk Craig Thompson and Robin Wensley Illuminating controversial and cutting edge this is an essential work for all those interested in new directions in marketing and consumer research Flagship Marketing Tony Kent,Reva Brown,2009-03-14 This book is focused on the increasing diversity of flagships and the ways in which they can create showcases in people s lives This unique volume will be of interest across many disciplines including marketing visual culture design and urban studies

Navigating the Shifting Landscape of Consumer Behavior Sahin, Fatih,Soylemez, Cevat,2024-02-07 The marketing world is transforming in this era of unprecedented technological advancement changing consumer tastes and evolving social norms As information flows freely and brand loyalty becomes a coveted prize understanding what motivates consumers to choose one brand over another is paramount Navigating the Shifting Landscape of Consumer Behavior is an authoritative exploration of the dynamic interplay between consumers brands and the evolving digital environment This book dives into the contemporary consumer behavior The narrative reveals the phenomenon of brand activism as a significant force reshaping the marketing battlefield No longer content to remain apolitical brands are increasingly taking stances on pressing social and environmental issues The book critically examines the dynamics of successful brand activism and explores customer reactions to companies championing social causes The book incorporates real world examples and practical tactics making it an invaluable resource for marketing scholars researchers professionals educators and graduate students

Political Marketing Darren G. Lilleker,Jennifer Lees-Marshment,2005-08-06 Political marketing has become a global phenomenon as parties try to copy the market oriented approach employed by Tony Blair to win power for New Labour in 1997 It raises fresh perspectives on the more established political marketing practices in the UK and US such as how to incorporate political leadership within the market oriented framework and the democratic implications when faced with the actual business of governing This book also highlights how the market oriented party approach has spread around the world including Europe and the new democracies of Brazil and Peru The collection also introduces the debate on whether such practices enhance or undermine democracy raising important questions on the future of political marketing Marketing, Morality and the Natural Environment Andrew Crane,2002-01-04 This volume provides a new look at marketing and in particular the move to establish ostensibly green marketing Presenting evidence from extensive case studies these concerns are addressed through an examination of managers and employees understanding of the green marketing activities and processes that take part in their organisations
