Medieval Regions Their Cities:

Medieval Regions and Their Cities Josiah Cox Russell, 1972 Medieval Regions and Their Cities Josiah Cox Russell, 1972 Cambridge and Its Economic Region, 1450-1560 John S. Lee, 2005 Lee studies the population wealth trade and markets of Cambridge and its region and the changes that took place over a century of economic and social transition are detailed Cities and Their Vital Systems Advisory Committee on Technology and Society, 1988-02-01 Cities and Their Vital Systems asks basic questions about the longevity utility and nature of urban infrastructures analyzes how they grow interact and change and asks how when and at what cost they should be replaced Among the topics discussed are problems arising from increasing air travel and airport congestion the adequacy of water supplies and waste treatment the impact of new technologies on construction urban real estate values and the field of telematics the combination of computers and telecommunications that makes money machines and national newspapers possible Regional Identity and Economic Change Tom Scott, 1997 The current debate about the best methods of European organization central or regional is influenced by an awareness of regional identity which offers an alternative to the rigidities of organization by nation state Yet where does the sense of regionalism come from What are the distinctive factors that transform a geographical area into a particular region Tom Scott addresses these questions in this study of one apparently natural region the Upper Rhine between 1450 and 1600 This region has been divided between three countries and so historically marginalized yet Dr Scott is able to trace the existence of a sense of historical regional identity cutting across national frontiers founded on common economic interests But that identity was always contingent and precarious neither natural nor immutable City, Region and Regionalism Robert E. Dickinson, 2013-05-13 This book was first published in 1947 The Hundred Years War L. J. Andrew Villalon, Donald J. Kagay, 2005 This work the first of a two volume set brings together essays of European and American scholars on the wider regional and topical aspects of the Hundred Years War as well as articles that revisit questions posed and supposedly solved by traditional Hundred Years War scholarship German Instrumental Music of the Late Middle Ages Keith Polk, 2004 This book describes instrumental music and its context in German society of the late middle ages from about 1350 to 1520 Players at that time improvised much like jazz musicians of our day but because they did not use notated music only scant remnants of their activity have survived in written sources and much has been left obscure This book attempts to reconstruct an image of their music discussing the instruments ensembles and performance practices of the time What emerges from this study is a fundamental reappraisal of late medieval culture A musical life is reconstructed which was not only extraordinary in its own time but which also laid the foundations of an artistic culture that later produced such giants as Sch tz Bach Mozart and Beethoven The Oxford Handbook of Cities in World History Peter Clark, 2013-02-14 In 2008 for the first time the majority of the planet s inhabitants lived in cities and towns Becoming globally urban has been one of mankind s greatest collective achievements over time and raises many questions How did global city systems evolve and interact in the past How have historic urban patterns impacted on those of the contemporary world And what were the key drivers in the roller coaster of urban change over the millennia market forces such as trade and industry rulers and governments competition and collaboration between cities or the urban environment and demographic forces This pioneering comparative work by leading scholars drawn from a range of disciplines offers the first detailed comparative study of urban development from ancient times to the present day The Oxford Handbook of Cities in World History explores not only the main trends in the growth of cities and towns across the world in Asia and the Middle East Europe Africa and the Americas and the different types of cities from great metropolitan centres to suburbs colonial cities and market towns but also many of the essential themes in the making and remaking of the urban world the role of power economic development migration social inequality environmental challenge and the urban response religion and representation cinema and urban creativity Split into three parts covering Ancient cities the medieval and early modern period and the modern and contemporary era it begins with an introduction by the editor identifying the importance and challenges of research on cities in world history as well as the crucial outlines of urban development since the earliest cities in ancient Mesopotamia to the present

Agriculture and Rural Society After the Black Death Ben Dodds, Richard Britnell, 2009-04 With special emphasis on the period following the Black Death this new collection of essays explores agriculture and rural society during the late Middle Ages Combining a broad perspective on agrarian problems such as depopulation and social conflict with illustrative material from detailed local and regional research this compilation demonstrates how these general problems were solved within specific contexts The contributors supply detailed studies relating to the use of the land the movement of prices the distribution of property the organization of trade and the cohesion of village society among other issues New research on regional development in medieval England and other European countries is also discussed

The Black Death in the Middle East Michael Walters Dols, 2019-01-29 In this book the author uses primarily Arabic sources to discuss the transmission of the Black Death to the Middle East and the devastation the disease caused on the society and economics in Egypt and Syria

A Commercialising Economy R. H. Britnell, B. M. S. Campbell, 1995 This text focuses on a formative period in the development of the English economy

The Cathars Malcolm Barber, 2014-06-17 The Cathars are one of the most famous heretical movements of the late twelfth and early thirteenth centuries They infiltrated the highest ranks of society and posed a major threat not only to the Catholic Church but also to secular authorities as well The movement was finally smashed by the crusade and the inquisitional proceedings that followed This new study is the first comprehensive history of the Cathars It addresses major topics in medieval history including heresy orthodoxy and the Crusades as well as providing a history of the social and political history of Languedoc and the rise of the Capetian dynasty A fascinating study of the development of radical religious belief and its violent suppression

Music and Musicians in Renaissance Cities and Towns Fiona Kisby, 2001-04-19 Examines musical culture in the towns and cities of Renaissance Europe and the New World Regional Analysis Carol A. Smith, 2014-05-10 Regional Analysis Volume II Social Systems consists of studies on the general applications of the regional framework for analyzing socioeconomic systems as they exist and develop in territorial environmental systems This volume is concerned with social systems emphasizing the interrelationships among the institutional components of complex societies Marriage and kinship political organization formation of ethnic and cultural territorial groups and stratification systems that are affected by regional environmental variables are also covered This publication is beneficial to social and regional scientists geographers economists social anthropologists archeologists sociologists and political scientists intending to acquire knowledge of the implications of rural urban relations and regional settlement patterns Conflict in Fourteenth-Century Iberia Donald J. Kagay, L.J. Andrew Villalon, 2021-06-17 In Conflict in Fourteenth Century Iberia Kagay and Villalon trace the complicated economic military political and social background of the relationship of Iberia's two greatest Christian states of the fourteenth century Castile and the Crown of Aragon and their rulers Pedro I r 1350 1366 69 and Pere III r 1336 1387 Besides chapters discussing the War of the Two Pedros 1356 1366 and the Castilian Civil War 1366 1369 the authors provide extended treatments of the strategical and tactical elements of the conflicts the parliamentary diplomatic and governmental developments that occurred because of the conflicts as well as their social and political aftermaths This work along with authors earlier book on the battle of Njera 1367 provides a much needed review of Iberia's violent fourteenth century

Growth and Decline in Colchester, 1300-1525 R. H. Britnell, 1986-02-06 This is a study of one of England's principal cloth towns during the late Middle Ages It draws extensively upon unpublished records in Colchester and elsewhere and is the first history of a medieval English town to analyse in conjunction the relationships between overseas trade urban development and changes in rural society First it describes Colchester in the earlier fourteenth century its trade its agricultural setting and its form of government The book then shows how cloth making grew in Colchester after the Black Death and how the population increased until about 1414 The implications of this for the government of the borough and for the town's role in the local economy are discussed The last section shows that Colchester's growth was not sustained through the fifteenth century and examines some of the causal links between economic contraction institutional change in the borough and agrarian depression in the surrounding countryside Urban Legends Carrie E. Benes, 2011 Explores the role of the classical past in the construction of urban identity in late medieval Italy Focuses on the appropriation of classical symbols ancient materials and Roman myths to legitimate the regimes of various Italian city states Provided by publisher The Contest of Christian and Muslim Spain 1031 - 1157 Bernard F. Reilly, 1996-01-09 This book is the first account of the period to consider both Christian and Muslim Spain The author discusses the various societies cultures and governments of Muslim and Christian Iberia in the centuries of their critical confrontation Beginning with the disintegration of the caliphate at Cordoba in the early eleventh century the book traces the decline of the Muslim taifa states and describes and explains their conquest first by the Murabit and then the Muwahhid fundamentalist Muslim empires of North Africa Bernard Reilly describes the rising Christian kingdoms of Leon Castilla Aragon Barcelona and Portugal and shows how they were engaged in a struggle on several fronts As they vied with one another for control of the old Islamic stronghold of the center and north they were also in continuous conflict with the Murabit and Muwahhid rulers while striving to come to terms with the French the Papacy and the Italian maritime powers
