The Child Buyer John Hersey, 2019-09-04 An imaginary utterly absorbing record of the investigations of the Committee on Education Welfare and Public Morality of an unnamed state senate into the activities of Mr Wissey Jones who has come to the town of Pequot on what he says is urgent defense business The hearings develop the suspense of a bizarre trial It soon becomes clear that Mr Jones buys for his corporation children of a certain sort and that he is eager to acquire a ten year old named Barry Rudd who manifests the breathtaking prickly sometimes obnoxious but also deeply moving precocity of a potential genius The dramatic conflicts exposed during the hearing revolve around the questions of exactly why Mr Jones's company buys children and whether he will succeed in buying Barry The Child Buyer is a biting commentary on some aspects of American education on the uses of high intelligence and on the means of defending democracy Mr Hersey makes fine use of the classical weapons of satire humor and high spirits sweet dream and nightmare grotesqueness in the heart of normalcy to attack not any single theory of education but the notions that education can be an exact science that superior minds can be set free by a national crash program that children can be regarded as weapons and that talent can be processed and stored for profit and defense Although these extraordinary hearings end in a kind of horror involving the slide into corruption or rascality or apathy of almost everyone connected with them nevertheless the book leaves in the reader's mind a powerful affirmation a case for individuality freedom of thought integrity faith in the young and above all a better understanding of human needs in a darkling world

Dangerous Billionaire: A Grumpy Protector Age Gap Romance

The BBC's management of risk Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons:

Committee of Public Accounts, 2007-12-06 This Committee of Public Accounts report on The BBC's management of risk sets out a number of recommendations on dealing with risk and what the BBC's Executive Board should implement Risk comes in different forms from the risk of damaging the Corporation's reputation as a public service broadcaster to personal risk staff can experience when reporting from dangerous parts of the world This report follows on from a National Audit Office report of the same title and is available from the NAO website http://www.bbcgovernorsarchive.co.uk/docs/reviews/nao_riskmanagement.pdf Among the recommendations are that BBC guidance needs a clearer delineation of responsibilities for risk management that the main themes of risk management are not aligned with corporate objectives that the BBC should update its assessments of the risks of working in hostile environments as the abduction of journalist Alan Johnson showed by failing to comply with its own Broadcasting Code the BBC was fined by Ofcom over the a live phone in competition on Blue Peter and illustrates that some programme makers are ignoring the BBC's own editorial guidelines exposing the corporation to reputational risk the BBC has not related its risk to corporate objectives or assigned all risks to named owners that BBC managers at all levels are not sufficiently engaged in the management of risk there is still no fully satisfactory regime under which the BBC is accountable to Parliament for the value for money with which it spends licence fee payers' money
