David Wills, 2021-11-07 The late David Wills spent a lifetime in the service of the so called delinquent the misfit the maladjusted He was the first Englishman to train as a psychiatric social worker and was well known for his books The Hawksspur Experiment The Barns Experiment etc Originally published in 1970 this book describes another experiment with a hostel for boys leaving schools for maladjusted children and lacking any settled home from which to enter the community It demonstrates once again David Wills's conviction that the offender wants to be good and will be helped by affection rather than by punishment Yet it is obvious that the work was full of stress and that only people with some of the attributes of archangels could respond to the boys needs and remain in control of the situation The book demonstrates the extent of deprivation suffered by such young people and that no ordinary hostels or lodgings will do if they are to be set upon a less turbulent course of life leading to truly adult independence It added greatly to our understanding of the personalities experience of life and needs of maladjusted boys in their teens at the time although the lessons drawn from it were disturbing in relation both to prevention and treatment The penetration of David Wills s assessment is beyond doubt and as Dame Eileen Younghusband concludes in her Foreword his book will give a great deal to those trying in various capacities to help boys and girls who otherwise would grow into adulthood permanently handicapped emotionally and socially This book is a re issue originally published in 1970 The language used is a reflection of its era and no offence is meant by the Publishers to any reader by this re publication

BEHIND THE LOCKED DOOR Gregg M. Schultz RN, 2023-03-30 One man not sure where his next job would come from is employed by God where he will compassionately care for society's least fortunate the mentally or emotionally ill when they transition into the psychiatric hospital system I am that man This is my story of working in the psychiatric system usually in a hospital setting This volume is a telling of twenty nine years of caring for and about people who but for the grace of God could be me or my family It is a telling of surviving and thriving in often difficult circumstances Starting as a mental health worker in 1988 I received my registered nurse license in 1993 and continued as a psychiatric nurse until I ended compensated employment in 2017 This is a telling of covering the naked and treating the self inflicted wounds of the bloody The whys and logics of many of the disorders encountered are addressed in caring and often wry commentary The actual workings of the psychiatric hospital and my observations of that environment are presented Life as it is actually lived often at its most visceral level is on display here I frequently make reference to a person's WIIFM what's in it for me as a dominant factor motivating the behavior of people both the patients and the hospital staff I do not spare myself when addressing WIIFM as a behavior motivator There is caring for wounded hearts and how to manage those whose hearts are beyond either wounding or caring The legalities as well as the realities of how the mental health system works and the protections for those who are a danger to themselves or others or unable to care for themselves are presented here and I deal with the realities of psychiatric hospitalization and dispel the nonsense of a seventy two hour psychiatric hold There is triumph and tragedy presented here in a uniquely engaging style by a true storyteller
