The Making of Evangelical Spirituality Jason Cherry,2023-01-05 How did it come to be that evangelicals expect individualized extrabiblical revelation from God What has happened culturally historically and theologically to make this the ubiquitous assumption of evangelical spirituality The Making of Evangelical Spirituality is a compound of history and theology applied to the subject of evangelical spirituality specifically the phenomenon of evangelicals thinking God spoke to me in a still quiet voice The story is complex multifaceted and urgently in need of telling Few Christians know the history of the spiritual expectations heaped upon them Few know the individuals who gave shape to evangelical spirituality spiritual chieftains who were often guided by uniquely ephemeral social and cultural forces There is no towering figure like Martin Luther that stands as the lone front man for the esoterica of evangelical spirituality Instead it's the osmosis of many fascinating people struggling through life in the storm of worldly and cultural momentum This book is the story of those hermits monks reformers heretics politicians outcasts and preachers who gave shape Failure to tell the story now risks it becoming just another part of historical compost threatening to make evangelicals forever ignorant of what they are tossing into the garden of their soul is required behind the scenes to build a prevailing church I was both challenged and inspired by this book Bill Hybels author of Just Walk Across the Room The most common question I get from pastors is How do I get the people in my church to be open to change From now on my answer will be Read Deep and Wide by Andy Stanley Thanks Andy Great book Craig Groeschel Pastor LifeChurch TV author It How Churches and Leaders Can Get It and Keep It No one has given me more practical handles for establishing a focused vision than Andy Stanley Deep and Wide is a rich resource to help all of us stay intentional about the main thing building a church that reaches people who are far from God Steven Furtick Lead Pastor Elevation Church
