The Quiet Hours Mike Melman, Bill Holm, 2003 In The Quiet Hours Mike Melman records a vanishing era of Minnesota's towns and cities through a series of seventy black and white photographs taken from 1985 to 2002 Working in the half light of predawn hours Melman brings a new perspective to familiar places one shaped by his training as an architect and his particular affinity for old buildings Through his artistic and historic images Melman exposes the speed at which American cities change and presents a gritty yet contemplative portrait of urban Minnesota The Quiet Hours Mike Melman, In The Quiet Hours Mike Melman records a vanishing era of Minnesota's towns and cities through a series of seventy black and white photographs taken from 1985 to 2002 Working in the half light of predawn hours Melman brings a new perspective to familiar places one shaped by his training as an architect and his particular affinity for old buildings Through his artistic and historic images Melman exposes the speed at which American cities change and presents a gritty yet contemplative portrait of urban Minnesota Journal of the Photographic Society of London, 1912 Vols for 1853 include the transactions of the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain Rooted David R. Pichaske, 2009-05 David Pichaske has been writing and teaching about midwestern literature for three decades In Rooted by paying close attention to text landscape and biography he examines the relationship between place and art His focus is on seven midwestern authors who came of age toward the close of the twentieth century their lives and their work grounded in distinct places Dave Etter in small town upstate Illinois Norbert Blei in Door County Wisconsin William Kloefkorn in southern Kansas and Nebraska Bill Holm in Minnesota Linda Hasselstrom in Hermosa South Dakota Jim Heynen in Sioux County Iowa and Jim Harrison in upper Michigan The writers' intimate knowledge of place is reflected in their use of details of geography language environment and behavior Yet each writer reaches toward other geographies and into other dimensions of art or thought jazz music and formalism in the case of Etter gender issues in the case of Hasselstrom time past and present in the case of Kloefkorn ethnicity and the role of the artist in the case of Blei magical realism in the case of Heynen the landscape of literature in the case of Holm and the curious worlds of academia best selling novels and Hollywood films in the case of Harrison The result Pichaske notes is the growing away from roots the explorations and alter egos of these writers of place and the tension between the here and there that gives each writer's art the complexity it needs to transcend provincial boundaries Quoting generously from the writers Pichaske employs a practical jargon free literary analysis fixed in the text making Rooted interesting readable and especially useful in treating the literary categories of memoir and literary essay that have become important in recent decades

Surviving Images Kamran Rastegar, 2015 Surviving Images explores the prominent role of cinema in the development of cultural memory around war and conflict in colonial and postcolonial contexts It does so through a study of three historical eras the colonial period the national independence struggle and the postcolonial Beginning with a study of British colonial cinema on the Sudan then exploring anti colonial cinema in Algeria Egypt and Tunisia followed by case studies of films emerging from postcolonial contexts in Palestine Iran Lebanon and Israel this work aims to fill a gap in the critical literature on both Middle Eastern cinemas and to contribute more broadly to scholarship on social trauma and cultural memory in colonial and postcolonial contexts This work treats the concept of trauma critically however and posits that social trauma must be understood as a framework for producing social and political meaning out of these historical events Social trauma thus sets out a productive process of historical interpretation and cultural texts such as cinematic works both illuminate and contribute to this process Through these discussions Surviving Images illustrates cinema s productive role in contributing to the changing dynamics of cultural memory of war and social conflict in the modern world New York Magazine
