Environmental Learning for Classroom and Assembly at KS1 & KS2 Mal Leicester, Denise Taylor, 2009-03-06. In Environmental Learning for Classroom and Assembly at KS1 & KS2 the highly successful and popular author Mal Leicester teams up with the conservationist Denise Taylor to teach children about wildlife and environmental conservation through the art of storytelling. Reflecting the child's world, the book works outwards from home to garden to neighbourhood to the countryside and seaside and to the planet as a whole. At each level, appreciating, conserving and enhancing our environment is considered. The authors follow the tried and tested format of Stories for Classroom and Assembly and Stories for Circle Time and Assemblies. Each of the ten chapters includes an original themed story and is packed with lesson plans and cross-curriculum learning activities designed to save teachers valuable time. Leicester and Taylor combine the wonder of storytelling with topical environmental issues covering plants, creatures and the planet. The book covers the full range of conservation, protection and enhancement themes, concepts and values whilst developing the following skills: literacy including oracy, numeracy, knowledge of the natural world, imaginative development, creative expression. Making a highly topical and on-going subject accessible to children, this beautifully illustrated resource offers teachers assembly ideas, lesson plans and art activities all in one book.

Selected Poems Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 2003. This selection recovers the best work of this independent, passionate and intelligent poet, presenting it on its own terms. Browning emerges as an acute observer of the political dramas taking place in Italy and the private dramas of relationships. Brought up to a life of confinement, Browning (1806-1861) matured into a champion of personal and social freedom, a poetic innovator who wrote some of the nineteenth century's most politically engaged and subtly erotic poetry.

Poems from my window Joy Chippindale. Joy has always been a creative spirit. As a child, she filled her world with dance, music and writing, putting on impromptu performances and finding meaning in words far beyond her years. A deep thinker from the start, she carried this love of creativity into adulthood, weaving it into her life as a Mum, both sharing and writing poetry with her two children from the moment they were old enough. A few years ago, she moved to a smallholding in Yorkshire. With sheep grazing in the fields and goats roaming the land, she got a sense of connection and calm she had never experienced before. Walking in the fresh air, witnessing the steady cycle of the seasons and feeling the grounding presence of the animals around her Then came the diagnosis stage 4 osteoporosis and shortly after a terrible fall that forced her into stillness leaving her unable to move as freely as before Confined to her home she found herself spending hours by the window watching the land she had once walked so easily At first the quiet was frustrating But in that stillness something shifted She returned to poetry pouring her emotions onto the page and in writing she found healing Now with her husband and three beloved cats by her side she has rebuilt her life around the things that truly matter family movement and peace Through Yoga and Pilates she has strengthened her body through poetry and mindfulness she has strengthened her spirit and mind Her journey has been one of transformation resilience and deep reconnection with herself with nature and with the quiet beauty of life as it is
