The Pocket Barbara Burman, Ariane Fennetaux, 2020-04-24 A New York Times Best Art Book of 2019 A riveting book few stones are left unturned Roberta Smith s Top Art Books of 2019 The New York Times This fascinating and enlightening study of the tie on pocket combines materiality and gender to provide new insight into the social history of women s everyday lives from duchesses and country gentry to prostitutes and washerwomen and to explore their consumption practices sociability mobility privacy and identity A wealth of evidence reveals unexpected facets of the past bringing women s stories into intimate focus What particularly interests Burman and Fennetaux is the way in which women of all classes have historically used these tie on pockets as a supplementary body part to help them negotiate their way through a world that was not built to suit them Kathryn Hughes The Guardian A brilliant book Ulinka Rublack Times Literary Supplement

Burning Sky Lori Benton, 2013-08-06 A Christy award winning novel about a woman caught between two worlds and the lengths she goes to find where she belongs Abducted by Mohawk Indians at fourteen and renamed Burning Sky Willa Obenchain is driven to return to her family's New York frontier homestead after many years building a life with the People. At the boundary of her father's property Willa discovers a wounded Scotsman lying in her path. Feeling obliged to nurse his injuries the two quickly find much has changed during her twelve year absence her childhood home is in disrepair her missing parents are rumored to be Tories and the young Richard Waring she once admired is now grown into a man twisted by the horrors of war and claiming ownership of the Obenchain land. When her Mohawk brother arrives and questions her place in the white world the cultural divide blurs Willa's vision. Can she follow Tames His Horse back to the People now that she is no longer Burning Sky? And what about Neil MacGregor the kind and loyal botanist who does not fit into her plan for a solitary life yet is now helping her revive her farm. In the aftermath of the Revolutionary War strong feelings against savages abound in the nearby village of Shiloh leaving Willa's safety unsure. As tensions rise challenging her shielded heart the woman called Burning Sky must find a new courage the courage to again risk embracing the blessings the Almighty wants to bestow. Is she brave enough to love again? Chicken Soup for Every Mom's Soul Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, 2012-09-04. Although motherhood is a timeless calling today's moms have unique challenges and rewards. In this book you'll learn from other mothers and seasoned grandmothers who share the universal worries, the tears and the laughs that come with the job as well as the wisdom to help you be the very best mom you can be.

The poetry in One Life's Journey was penned based on the life and worldly travels of the author. As a young college graduate she decided to travel to France for a year, expanding her education while experiencing European culture at the young age of twenty-three. Upon her return and envisioning such differences between European and United States cultures, these adventures struck a spark in her to begin writing about her experiences. Within a couple of years, though, a major change in her career forced her to reconsider her path in life. A period of time developed in her early 30s in which she went through many troubling times from a career perspective as well as broken relationships. During this period her visions about dreams, love, relationships, and life in general troubled her greatly. Her writings became more advanced and touched on the reality of what the author was experiencing along with other people struggling with the same issues. The author wrote the poems in One Life's Journey because they applied to her personally during portions of her life. The poems are based on what happens as we go through life: real love, sometimes lost, real relationships, sometimes broken, how we dream what could be, and a family most people hope they have. The author created a special section called "What beholds Us." She believed we, as inhabitants of this great planet called Earth, don't take into consideration the beauty that surrounds us, what keeps us, what holds us. Our daily lives cause us to not stop take a moment and smell the roses Her poems in this section ask her readers to just stop a second and look at the beauty that surrounds us all     Holy Habits: Prayer Andrew Roberts, Neil Johnson, Tom Milton, 2018-12-05 Holy Habits is an initiative to nurture Christian discipleship It explores Luke s model of church found in Acts 2 42 47 identifies ten habits and encourages the development of a way of life formed by them These resources which include an introductory guide have been developed to help churches explore the habits in a range of contexts and live them out in whole life missional discipleship     A Quilter's Christmas Marti Michell, 1993 Provides diagrams and instructions for making quilts wall hangings tree skirts place mats ornaments and decorations and includes a variety of quilt patterns
