New Theory of the Holy Qur'an Translation: A Textbook for Advanced University Students of Linguistics and Translation Ali Alhaj, 2015-06 Translation strategies are the procedures employed by the translator to attempt a solution to the multifarious baffling problems with which translation is indubitably replete Malone 1988 p 78 defines translation The steps selected from a consciously known range of potential procedures taken to solve a translation problem which has been consciously detected and resulting in a consciously applied solution While some strategies are helpful others turn out to be of little avail It follows then that the translator has to sort out the wheat from the chaff in pursuit of a good translation Here the translator may utilize particular strategies in accordance with the method anticipated in the course of translation i e target orientedness or source orientedness Faced with differences in the extralinguistic reality of the two cultures or its lexical mapping the translator tries to reconcile them by relying on the following procedures borrowing definition literal translation substitution lexical creation omission and addition Three comments that need to be made by the researcher in connection with this list First not all of the procedures achieve cultural transfer in the sense of filling the gap but they all serve the purpose of achieving communicative equivalence in translation For instance substitution and omission certainly do not help to make members of the target culture aware of anything that their culture does not already possess and lexical creation is no more enlightening than the use of the source language expression unless accompanied by some other procedure that will make the particular extra linguistic feature part of their experiences Second combinations of procedures rather than single procedures are required for optimum transmission of cultural information e g borrowing and definition borrowing and substitution lexical creation and definition Third in planning his/her translation strategy the translator does not make a one time decision on how he/she will treat unmatched elements of culture rather even if the translator has established an overall order of preferences he/she usually makes a new decision for each element and for its each use in an act of communication rather even if he has established an overall order of preferences he usually makes a new decision for each such element and for each use in an act of communication Cohen 1990 p 78 read Start worrying Details to follow Like the one above there are plenty of stereotypes that exist about Judaism One thing though is for certain This is a really interesting religion that has been around for thousands of years and it has an enthralling history Sometimes that history has been sad but it s an enduring religion that is still followed by plenty of people today Woody Allen Albert Einstein Mel Brooks Leonard Bernstein Natalie Portman and Elizabeth Taylor are all Jewish and who doesn t like the work they do They re not the only Jews they re just some famous ones we found to get you interested There are actually more than 13 1 million Jews around today So with that in mind let s take a look at Judaism and some of the key figures from the religion s history The Plain and Simple English series is part of BookCaps™ growing library of book and history recaps     The Quran Allah (god),2020-12-18 In the Qur an a pious Muslim hears God s voice guiding and encouraging consoling and reproaching promising the righteous mercy and eternal bliss while threatening the wicked with wrath and eternal torment For Muslims the Qur an is the word of God which has entered human time to shape history According to Muslim sources the Angel Gabriel revealed himself to Prophet Muhammad in 610 CE while he was in prayerful retreat in a cave on Mount Hira outside Mecca It is said that in this initial meeting the Angel Gabriel pressed Muhammad so vehemently that he felt he was being choked The Qur an states that the angel then commanded Recite in the name of your Lord who created created man from a blood clot Recite for your Lord is most magnanimous who taught by the pen taught man that which he did not know Qur an 96 1 5 Muslims claim that God warned Prophet Muhammad We shall surely lay upon you weighty speech and enjoined him to rise up through most of the night in prayer and remember fervently what he was told to be the Lord of the east and the west Qur an 73 5 and 73 8 For Muslims this weighty speech marked Prophet Muhammad as the last Messenger of God to humankind this event was to have a great impact on the course of human history The Qur an is said to have been communicated to Prophet Muhammad in two ways Muslims believe that it was communicated through the Angel Gabriel These communications were revealed in small portions single verses groups of verses and entire chapters or suras over a period of twenty to twenty two years The Qur an for Muslims is not only words that can be uttered heard and recorded it is also the heavenly archetype of which the recited and written Qur an is only an earthly copy The Qur an in its heavenly archetypal form is for Muslims the source of divine revelation throughout human history and is eternally preserved by God It is the covenant of God with humankind which He established with the children of Adam when they were but ideas or essences in the divine realm Prophet Muhammad also professed to have experienced this heavenly Qur an in addition to having been the recipient of revelation He would experience a profound spiritual state shivering on a hot summer day or sweating on a cold winter day hearing sounds like the ringing of a bell These sounds transformed themselves in his consciousness into human words which he memorised and had recorded Muslims also believe that the Qur an was also sent down in part to Prophet Muhammad s heart on the night of determination Qur an 44 3 and 97 1 a blessed night for all Muslims This event sanctified his life and made Prophet Muhammad an example for Muslims to follow In the Qur an God asked Am I not your Lord and those who chose to worship God affirmed as Lord responded with the words Yes we bear witness Qur an 7 172 The Qur an is the seal and testimony to this covenant Its message is for Muslims a powerful affirmation of divine lordship and Muslim commitment The Qur an as an earthly text has been inextricably bound to Muslim history It served as an answer to the problems of the Arab society in Prophet Muhammad s time The Qur an was also a response to Prophet Muhammad s questions about the meaning of human life and the mystery of creation and was closely linked to the history of the nascent Muslim community in Mecca and later in Medina Many of the Qur anic verses are said to have been revealed in answer to specific questions or life situations The answers given are seen by Muslims to be general principles moral imperatives or precepts applicable to all times and places The family of the Prophet which the Qur'an directly addressed see Qur'an 33:32 is seen by Muslims to be a model for all families and all societies in the world

The Gospels in Islamic Context Georgina L. Jardim, Ida Glaser, Shirin Shafaie, 2025-09-30 Bringing together scholars from across the world this publication shows Christians and Muslims individually or together reading the canonical Gospels of the New Testament in conversation with Islamic texts and contexts In the discovery of meaning between text context and praxis this volume asks what are the texts doing in contexts as far flung as Indonesia the Hijaz of early Islam in Persian poetry of medieval times or modern Sunni interpretation in north America This second edited volume in the series Reading the Bible in Islamic Context continues the pioneering venture in contextual and intertextual reading It shows the richness of cooperative scholarship that results from reading the New Testament in Islamic context and exploring how the Gospel is understood in various religious traditions The Gospels in Islamic Context will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners encouraging them to explore new methods for taking into account intertextual factors as well as the history of Muslim Christian relations that arises from them It is a venture in which Muslims and Christians travel side by side and in conversation with each other although with significantly different perspectives and often different agendas
