WEEKLY SUMMARY

REPORT ON REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATIONS AND AGITATION IN CANADA

Report

Tim Buck, Communist candidate for Board of Control in the recent Toronto Civic election, received a total of 20,975 votes, or approximately one out of every six votes cast. Only four of the 763 polling sub-divisions showed no vote at all for Buck, while 56 showed him leading the polls. His vote was more than double the number polled for the Communist candidate (Mrs. T. Buck) last year.

The vote for straight Communist candidates for Alderman rose from 6,281 in 1935 to 9,213 this year; for Board of Education it rose from 3,397 to 11,109. These figures exclude the two United Front candidates in Ward 8 — P. A. Hughes for Alderman and Robert Thompson for School Board — who polled 681 and 1,969 votes, respectively.

Latest advice from Regina indicates that things are quiet in Dundurn Relief Camp with only approximately 80 men remaining on strike.

R.C.M.P. Security Bulletins, 1995 R.C.M.P. Security Bulletins, 1997 R.C.M.P. Security Bulletins Committee on Canadian Labour History, 1994 R.C.M.P. Security Bulletins Gregory S. Kealey, Reginald Whitaker, 1993 Whose National Security? Gary Kinsman, Dieter K. Buse, Mercedes Steedman, 2000-10-01 Would you believe that RCMP operatives used to spy on Tupperware parties In the 1950s and 60s they did They also monitored high school students gays and lesbians trade unionists left wing political groups feminists consumer s associations Black activists First Nations people and Quebec sovereigntists The establishment of a tenacious Canadian security state came as no accident On the contrary the highest levels of government and the police along with non governmental interests and institutions were involved in a concerted campaign The security state grouped ordinary Canadians into dozens of political stereotypes and labelled them as threats Whose National Security probes the security state s ideologies and hidden agendas and sheds light on threats to democracy that persist to the present day The contributors varied approaches open up avenues for reconceptualizing the nature of spying R.C.M.P. Security Bulletins Gregory S. Kealey, Reginald Whitaker, 1993 Comrades and Critics Candida Rifkind, 2009-01-17 While Canadian historians have studied socialism in the 1930s and although there have been many studies of American and British literary leftists from this period Comrades and Critics is the first full length study of Canada s 1930s literary left Challenging dominant perceptions that this decade was a lull between the more celebrated modernist enterprises of the 1920s and 1940s Candida Rifkind argues that the events of the 1930s from mass unemployment to the dustbowl to the Spanish Civil War galvanized a generation of writers leading them to unite artistic practice and political action in provocative and influential ways Analyzing and recovering much neglected poems plays manifestoes and documentaries Rifkind demonstrates how leftist cultural production came to dominate English Canadian literature by the end of the decade She pays particular attention to the significant role that women writers played in this period and examines a diverse group of writers that included Dorothy Livesay Anne Marriott Irene Baird and Toby Gordon Ryan These writers negotiated the struggle to revolutionize both literature and politics while being subject to the gender hierarchies of socialism and literary modernism that continued long after the thirties came to an end A groundbreaking study in Canadian history and literature Comrades and Critics is a much needed examination of an important and still influential literary period A Communist for the RCMP Dennis Gruending, In 1941 the RCMP recruited Frank Hadesbeck a Spanish Civil War veteran as a paid informant to infiltrate the Communist Party For decades he informed not only upon communists but also upon hundreds of other people who held progressive views Hadesbeck s Watch Out lists on behalf of the Security Service included labour activists medical doctors lawyers university professors and students journalists Indigenous and progressive farm leaders members of the clergy and anyone involved in the peace and human rights movements Defying every warning given to him by his handlers Hadesbeck kept secret notes Using these notes author Dennis Gruending recounts how the RCMP spied upon

thousands of Canadians Hadesbeck's life and career are in the past but RCMP surveillance continues in new guises As Canada's petroleum industry doubles down on its extraction plans in the oil sands and elsewhere the RCMP and other state agencies provide support routinely branding Indigenous land defenders and their allies in the environmental movement as potential terrorists They share information and tactics with petroleum industry stakeholders in what has been described as a surveillance web intended to suppress dissent A Communist for the RCMP provides an inside account of Hadesbeck's career and illustrates how the RCMP uses surveillance of activists to enforce the status quo

Hurrah Revolutionaries Patryk Polec, 2015-04-01 Polish Canadians typically identify themselves as stringent anti Communists a label solidified by the legacies of the 1980s Solidarity movement its founder Lech Walesa and the widespread anti Communist riots that helped topple the Communist regime in 1989 Hurrah Revolutionaries challenges this common perception by examining the Polish immigrant community in Canada and the development of radical and traditionally deviant ideologies during the interwar period until the end of the Second World War Patryk Polec unveils a versatile well funded and influential Polish pro Communist movement with a talented leadership that worked tirelessly to persuade traditionally conservative and religious immigrants to adopt an ideology that was anti nationalist and atheist He traces the roots of socialist support in Poland its transplantation to Canada where the movement enjoyed its greatest support the challenges the movement faced within an ethnic community influenced by Catholicism and the complications caused by its links to the Communist International Polec offers a deeper understanding of the ways in which the Communist Party was able to appeal to certain ethnic groups through cultural outreach as well as its complicated and often counter productive relationship with the Soviet Union Grounded in recently declassified Polish consular documents and RCMP surveillance reports Hurrah Revolutionaries is the first full length study of Polish Communists in Canada a group that constituted a substantial portion of the country's socialist left in the twentieth century

Jerusalem on the Amur Henry Felix Srebrnik, 2008-10-03 In 1928 the Soviet Union proposed the establishment of an autonomous socialist Jewish republic in the far eastern reaches of Russian territory In Birobidzhan the eternal search for a Jewish homeland would be realized and Jews would possess their own institutions which would function in Yiddish A new Jew would be created emancipated and rejuvenated Although the project was eventually revealed to be a fraud thousands of left wing Jews in Canada and the United States passionately supported it and campaigned on its behalf some even emigrated to Birobidzhan

A Vanished Ideology Matthew B. Hoffman, Henry F. Srebrnik, 2016-06-16 While a number of books and articles have been written about Jewish Communist organizations and their supporters in particular countries an academic treatment of the overall movement per se has yet to be published A Vanished Ideology examines the politics of the Jewish Communist movement in Australia Canada Great Britain South Africa and the United States Though officially part of the larger world Communist movement it developed its own specific ideology which was infused as much by Jewish sources as it was inspired by the Bolshevik revolution The Yiddish language groups especially were interconnected through international movements such as the World Jewish Cultural Union Jewish Communists were able to communicate disseminate information and debate issues such as Jewish nationality and statehood independently of other Communists and Jewish Communism remained a significant force in Jewish life until the mid 1950s Making Canada New Dean Irvine, Vanessa Lent, Bart A. Vautour, 2017-03-17 An examination of the connections between modernist writers and editorial activities Making Canada New draws links among new and old media collaborative labour emergent scholars and scholarships and digital modernisms In doing so the collection reveals that renovating modernisms does not need to depend on the fabrication of completely new modes of scholarship Rather it is the repurposing of already existing practices and combining them with others whether old or new print or digital that instigates a process of continuous renewal Critical to this process of renewal is the intermingling of print and digital research methods and the coordination of more popular modes of literary scholarship with less frequented ones such as bibliography textual studies and editing Making Canada New tracks the editorial renovation of modernism as a digital phenomenon while speaking to the continued production of print editions Radical Housewives Julie Guard, 2019-03-14 Radical Housewives is a history of Canada's Housewives Consumers Association This association was a community based women's organization with ties to the communist and social democratic left that from 1937 until the early 1950s led a broadly based popular movement for state control of prices and made other far reaching demands on the state As radical consumer activists the Housewives engaged in gender transgressive political activism that challenged the government to protect consumers interests rather than just those of business while popularizing socialist solutions to the economic crises of the Great Depression and the immediate postwar years Julie Guard's exhaustive research including archival research and interviews with twelve former Housewives recovers a history of women's social justice activism in an era often considered dormant and adds a Canadian dimension to the history of politicized consumerism and of politicized materialism Radical Housewives reinterprets the view of postwar Canada as economically prosperous and reveals the left's role in the origins of the food security movement Managing the Canadian Mosaic in Wartime Ivana Caccia, 2010 With the outbreak of the Second World War in Europe The Canadian government realised that it was necessary not only to invoke national consciousness but also to involve the twenty percent of the country's population who were not of British or French origins in the war effort Managing the Canadian Mosaic in Wartime explores the anxieties that characterised public debate and policy making of the time as well as the pragmatic view that the wartime project depended upon the successful integration of marginalised immigrant communities This history provides a key to understanding the development of multiculturalism in Canada At the time Canadian policies regarding ethnic communities were preoccupied with the involvement and loyalty these communities had with their homeland's politics And The fear of infiltration from either the left or right of the political spectrum Focusing on the creation and operation of under examined government institutions and committees devised to exercise subtle control of minority groups Ivana Caccia explores the shaping of Canadian identity The introduction of government inspired citizenship education And The management of ethnic relations mid century An engaging work that offers an important account of nation building in Canada And The treatment of ethnic minorities in times of heightened international tensions Managing the Mosaic in Wartime provides crucial insights into multicultural policy And The possibility of parallels with the preoccupations with security and surveillance in the aftermath of 9 11

Not for King or Country Tyler Wentzell, 2020-01-31 Not for King or Country tells the story of Edward Cecil Smith a dynamic propagandist for the Communist Party of Canada during the Great Depression He is most well known for commanding the Mackenzie Papineau Battalion during the Spanish Civil War RCMP security bulletins Canada. Mounted Police, 1993

According to Baba Stacey Zembrzycki, 2014-04-08 Dreams of steady employment in the mining sector led thousands of Ukrainian immigrants to northern Ontario in the early 1900s As a child Stacey Zembrzycki listened to her baba's stories about Sudbury's small but polarized Ukrainian community and what it was like growing up ethnic during the Depression According to Baba grew out of those stories out of a fledgling historian's desire to capture the experiences of her grandparents generation on paper Eighty two interviews conducted by Stacey and her grandmother laid the groundwork for this insightful and personal social history of Sudbury's Ukrainian community The interviews also brought to light the challenges of doing oral history particularly as Stacey lost authority to her Baba wrestled it back and eventually came to share it By disclosing the hard work that goes into making communities partners in research Zembrzycki offers a new paradigm for writing oral history and for studying the politics of memory Civilian Internment in Canada Rhonda L. Hinder, Jim Mochoruk, 2020-02-28 Civilian Internment in Canada initiates a conversation about not only internment but also about the laws and procedures past and present which allow the state to disregard the basic civil liberties of some of its most vulnerable citizens Exploring the connections contrasts and continuities across the broad range of civilian internments in Canada this collection seeks to begin a conversation about the laws and procedures that allow the state to criminalize and deny the basic civil liberties of some of its most vulnerable citizens It brings together multiple perspectives on the varied internment experiences of Canadians and others from the days of World War One to the present This volume offers a unique blend of personal memoirs of survivors and their descendants alongside the work of community activists public historians and scholars all of whom raise questions about how and why in Canada basic civil liberties have been and in some cases continue to be denied to certain groups in times of perceived national crises

Spying 101 Steve Hewitt, 2002-01-01 Since the end of the First World War members of the RCMP have infiltrated the campuses of Canada's universities and colleges to spy meet informants gather information and on occasion to attend classes
