Royal United Services Institute for Defence Studies, 1984      Modern Chinese Defence Strategy Rosita Dellios, 1989-06-18 The author argues that the Chinese believe in the strategy of people s war under modern conditions and are confident that middle range technology and unconventional warfare and the combination of the human and weapon factors represent a successful application of the strategy      RUSI and Brasseys Defence Yearbook Royal united services institute for defence studies, 1984      The Third World War Scare in Britain Philip A. G. Sabin, 1986-06-18      The Global Spread Of Arms Frederic S Pearson, 2018-02-19 This book surveys the broad terrain covered by the concept of the security dilemma and points out landmarks along the route proceeding from proliferation to economic interests showing that the arms trade is built into development of both industrial technology and political competition      NATO and Peace Support Operations, 1991-1999 Henning A. Frantzen, 2004-12-17 This new book addresses the key question of how NATO and three of its member states are configuring their policies and military doctrines in order to handle the new strategic environment This environment is increasingly dominated by new wars more precisely civil wars within states and peacekeeping as the strategy devised by outside actors for dealing with them The book seeks to explain how this new strategic environment has been interpreted and how the new conflicts and peacekeeping have been fitted into defence and war key concepts in the field of security studies      Arms Control and Iranian Foreign Policy Bobi Pirseyedi, 2012 This book examines how Iran s arms control operations have been driven by external threat as well as regional power aspirations and have been marked by a sense of grievance      Parameters , 1992      NATO -- the 1990s , 1993      The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold, 2009-09-02 Ever since the end of World War II and even more so since 1960 when 17 African colonies became independent of colonial rule the African continent has been ravaged by a series of wars These wars have ranged from liberation struggles against former colonial powers to power struggles between different factions in the aftermath of independence They have ranged from border wars between newly independent states to civil wars between ethnic groups As with many conflicts outside forces were drawn into these wars and major powers outside the continent intervened on one side or the other for a variety of reasons political ideology Cold War considerations ethnic alignments and stemming the flow of violence Whether referring to Algeria s struggle for independence from French colonial rule Nigeria s internal struggles to achieve a balanced state after the British departure the Rwandan genocide of 1994 or the current ethnic cleansing in Darfur The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa covers all of the wars that have occurred in Africa since independence This is done through a chronology broken down by country an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries covering the wars conflicts major political and military figures child soldiers mercenaries and blood diamonds

The Falklands War Daniel K. Gibran, 2015-08-01 The Falklands War is an ideal showcase for how British policy evolved in the 1970s and 1980s The background of the dispute over the island group in the remote South Atlantic called Las Malvinas by the Argentines is given first then the events that precipitated the 1982 conflict and extensive examination of the military aspects of the war are provided An overview follows of the many hypotheses offered for the British motivation to recapture the Falklands showing that only those theories pertaining to the British perception of their national honor and the defense of democratic principles are significant The Falklands War did not result in a dramatic shift in British defense policy but did show the importance of external developments and political realism in policy formation and these considerations are fully detailed here Europe, Southern ,1992
