Rabbis As Mental Health Professionals A Major Metropolitan Study:

Rabbis as Mental Health Professionals Abner Weiss, 2000 Rabbis as Mental Health Professionals is a landmark study of counseling needs and preferences of contemporary American Jews and of the effectiveness of rabbinical counseling training. Located in the context of the Jewish and Christian pastoral counseling traditions, this book will appeal to anyone interested in psychospiritual issues and strategies. Graduate students and professors interested in psychology, pastoral care, theology, and counseling should take special interest in this comprehensive study. Biblical Psychotherapy Kalman J. Kaplan, Paul Cantz, 2017-11-29 In Biblical Psychotherapy, Kalman J. Kaplan and Paul Cantz offer a new approach to suicide prevention based on biblical narratives that is designed to overcome the suicidogenic patterns in Greek and Roman stories implicit in modern mental health. More than sixteen suicides and self-mutilations emerge in the twenty-six surviving tragedies of Sophocles and Euripides, and countless others occurred in Greek and Roman lives. In contrast, only six suicides are found in the Hebrew Scriptures, in addition to a number of suicide prevention narratives. Kaplan and Cantz reclaim life-enhancing biblical narratives as alternatives to matched suicidal stories in Greek and Roman society with regard to seven evidence-based risk factors. These biblical narratives are employed to treat fourteen patients fitting into the outlined Graeco-Roman suicidal syndromes and to provide an in-depth positive psychology aimed at promoting life rather than simply preventing suicide. Index to Jewish Periodicals, 2002 An author and subject index to selected American Anglo-Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests. Training American Orthodox Rabbis to Play a Role in Confronting Assimilation Adam S.
