Race An Anthology In The First Person:

Race Bart Schneider, 1996 Reclaiming Community in Contemporary African American Fiction Philip Page, 2011-08-19 As a reaction against persistent black exclusion from white American society the novels of recent African American writers boldly celebrate the heritage of black culture They acclaim a people once dispersed by racism and humiliation but now restoring its legacy of rich community life For close examination of this theme Philip Page brings together five novelists who are in the forefront of contemporary fiction and shows how their voices combine for an ongoing dialogue on the importance of community to the African American world Gaining its special force through addressing national concerns and through never backing away from the truth in the face of stubborn opposition the fiction of Gaines Naylor Johnson Cade Bambara and Wideman contributes to postmodernist debates on race the repressed past and the contemporary American conscience The Routledge International Handbook of Colorism Ronald E. Hall, Neha Mishra, 2024-08-04 This timely and unique edited book explores the concept of colorism which is discrimination based on the color of a person's skin It takes a global approach that draws on authentic voices from varied contexts and is dedicated to exploring and enriching the diverse intellectual discourse on colorism The book explores colorism across the globe and studies how it has been woven into the cultural fabric of communities of color With 22 chapters organised geographically into parts representing six continents it looks at various facets of colorism offering international insights beyond a Western perspective The handbook examines policy making in the sphere of colorism internationally and across countries and provides thoughtful insights on colorism discrimination in different contexts Chapters are written by leading experts from different disciplinary backgrounds who present cutting edge research on the topic of colorism in different country contexts contributing to a global dialogue on colorism The Routledge International Handbook of Colorism comprehensively highlights colorism and skin color bias which blurs the national and international boundaries It will be fascinating reading for students and academics in psychology social work education criminal justice and other social sciences It will also be of interest to those working in areas relating to marginalization human rights diversity and inclusion Forever Foreigners Or Honorary Whites? Mia Tuan, 1998 What does it mean to be an Asian American in the United States today Are Asian Americans considered honorary whites or forever thought of as foreigners Mia Tuan examines the salience and meaning of ethnicity for later generation Chinese and Japanese Americans and asks how their concepts of ethnicity differ from that of white ethnic Americans She interviewed 95 middle class Chinese and Japanese Californians and analyzes the importance of ethnic identities and the concept of becoming a real American for both Asian and white ethnics She asks her subjects about their early memories and experiences with Chinese Japanese culture current lifestyle and emerging cultural practices experiences with racism and discrimination and attitudes toward current Asian immigration "Strangers" of the Academy Guofang Li, Gulbahar H. Beckett, 2023-07-12 No less than other minorities Asian women scholars are confronted with racial discrimination and stereotyping as well as disrespect for their research teaching and leadership and are underrepresented in academia In the face of such barriers many Asian female scholars have developed strategies to survive and thrive This book is among the first to examine their lived experience in Western academic discourses It addresses the socio cultural political academic and personal issues that Asian female scholars encounter in higher education The contributors to this book include first and second generation immigrants who are teachers and researchers in higher education and who come from a wide range of Asian nations and backgrounds They here combine new research and personal narratives to explore the intersecting layers of relationships that impact their lives language culture academic discourses gender class generation and race The book is replete with the richness and complexity of these scholars struggles and triumphs in their professional and personal realms This powerful and engaging volume Examines and celebrates the struggles and triumphs that Asian female scholars experience as they try to make it in academic environments that may differ sharply from the culture of their countries of origin Highlights the unique contributions the authors have made to research theory and the profession Establishes the authors claim to visibility and a voice for themselves and more generally for Asian women in the academy Opens a dialogue on these critical issues by sharing the academic and personal experiences of senior and junior scholars alike and Contributes to the on going discussion on issues pertinent to the status of minority female scholars in higher education

The Rhetoric of Racism Revisited Mark Lawrence McPhail, 2002 Looks at the rhetorical dynamics of racism how in addition to social and material structures and institutions language can be a cause and facilitator of racism Thoroughly discusses essentialism and racial difference theories of complicity and coherence and the theory of racism as a problem of psychiatry back cover

Reclaiming Difference Carine M. Mardorossian, 2005 In Reclaiming Difference Carine Mardorossian examines the novels of four women writers Jean Rhys Dominica UK Maryse Condé Guadeloupe USA Edwidge Danticat Haiti USA and Julia Alvarez Dominican Republic USA showing how their writing has radically reformulated the meanings of the national geographical sexual and racial concepts through which postcolonial studies has long been configuring difference Coming from the anglophone francophone and hispanophone Caribbean these writers all stage and identify with transcultural experiences that undermine the usual classification of literary texts in terms of national and regional literatures and by doing so they challenge the idea that racial and cultural identities function as stable points of reference in our unstable world Focusing on the transformations that have taken place in postcolonial studies since the field began to focus on theory Mardorossian highlights not only how these writers make use of the styles of creolization and hybridity that have dominated Caribbean and postcolonial studies in recent years but also how they distinguish themselves from the movement's leading figures by offering new articulations of the ties that link race and nation to gender and class She illuminates how these writers extend the notion of hybridity away from racial and cultural differences in isolation from each other to a set of crisscrossing categories that challenge our simpler normative figurations For scholars in postcolonial studies Caribbean studies literary feminist studies and studies in comparative literature Reclaiming Difference represents a new phase in postcolonial studies that calls for a fundamental rethinking of the field's terminology and assumptions

Robin Hood Was Right Chuck Collins,Pam Rogers,Joan P. Garner,2000 Last year Americans donated 150 billion to charity an amount larger than the U S defense budget Giving has never been more popular possible or for many more confusing There are oceans of need mountains of requests and often little time to examine our preconceptions about money earned inherited bequeathed saved spent and make the best decisions on how to give effectively Culturally Engaging Service-Learning With Diverse Communities Delano-Oriaran, Omolade O.,Penick-Parks, Marguerite W.,Fondrie, Suzanne,2017-09-13 Evaluating the experiences of racially marginalized and underrepresented groups is vital to creating equality in society Such actions have the potential to provoke an interest in universities to adopt high impact pedagogical practices that attempt to eliminate institutional injustices Culturally Engaging Service Learning With Diverse Communities is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on service learning models that recognize how systemic social injustices continue to pervade society Featuring extensive coverage on a broad range of topics and perspectives such as cultural humility oral histories and social ecology this book is ideally designed for scholars practitioners and students interested in engaging in thoughtful and authentic partnerships with diverse groups Schools and Society Jeanne H. Ballantine,Joan Z. Spade,2008 Presents the most recent theories research terms concepts ideas and histories on educational leadership and school administration as taught in preparation programs and practiced in schools and colleges today

Privilege Through the Looking-Glass Patricia Leavy,2017-10-10 Privilege Through the Looking Glass is a collection of original essays that explore privilege and status characteristics in daily life This collection seeks to make visible that which is often invisible It seeks to sensitize us to things we have been taught not to see Privilege power oppression and domination operate in complex and insidious ways impacting groups and individuals And yet these forces that affect our lives so deeply seem to at once operate in plain sight and lurk in the shadows making them difficult to discern Like water to a fish environments are nearly impossible to perceive when we are immersed in them This book attempts to expose our environments With engaging and powerful writing the contributors share their personal stories as a means of connecting the personal and the public This volume applies an intersectional perspective to explore how race class gender sexuality education and ableness converge creating the basis for privilege and oppression Privilege Through the Looking Glass encourages readers to engage in self and social reflection and can be used in a range of courses in sociology social work communication education gender studies and African American studies Each chapter includes discussion questions and or activities for further engagement Privilege Through the Looking Glass offers a varied and profound examination of how privilege functions as the underside of power This is a powerful and important book about inequality identity agency and the challenge of addressing difference as part of a democratic ethos in a time of growing authoritarianism all over the world Every educator should read this book Henry A Giroux Professor McMaster University A courageous volume that blends theory personal experiences and reflections on contemporary debates over identity This is a book that is more about the politics of identity than identity politics It is a powerful testament to the urgency of understanding privilege and deserves to be read widely Peter McLaren Distinguished Professor Chapman University Privilege Through the Looking Glass unmasks the casual isms that suppress the best aspects of our humanity by assembling a powerful and honest collection of parables Poignant and unflinching the contributors eschew to the cloak of objectivism to give the hard truth about privilege as a social ill and the collective responsibility of the conscious community to confront all forms of oppression this book has lessons for anyone with the spirit to explore better ways to be themselves and relate to others Ivory A Toldson Professor Howard University and Editor in Chief for The Journal of Negro Education Patricia Leavy Ph D is an award winning independent sociologist and best selling author

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature

Book Review Digest, 1923 The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, Imre Szeman, 2005 Publisher Description

The Fire Now Azeezat Johnson, Remi Joseph-Salisbury, Beth Kamunge, 2018-11-15 Not so long ago many spoke of a post racial era claiming that advances made by people of colour showed that racial divisions were becoming a thing of the past But the hollowness of such claims has been exposed by the rise of Trump and Brexit both of which have revealed deep seated white resentment and have been attended by a resurgence in hate crime and overt racial hatred on both sides of the Atlantic At a time when progress towards equality is not only stalling but being actively reversed how should anti racist scholars respond This collection carries on James Baldwin's legacy of bearing witness to racial violence in its many forms Its authors address how we got to this particular moment arguing that it can only be truly understood by placing it within the wider historical and structural contexts that normalise racism and white supremacy Its chapters engage with a wide range of contemporary issues and debates from the whiteness of the recent women's marches to anti racist education to the question of Black resistance and intersectionality Mapping out the problems we face and the solutions we need the book considers how anti racist scholarship and activism can overcome the setbacks posed by the resurgence of white supremacy To Be a Minority Teacher in a Foreign Culture Mary Gutman,Wurud Jayusi,Michael Beck,Zvi Bekerman,2023-05-27 This open access book offers in depth knowledge on the challenges and opportunities offered by the inclusion of minority teachers in mainstream educational settings from an international perspective It aims to be a unique and important contribution for scholars policy makers and practitioners considering the complexities brought about by global trends into national local educational systems and settings It will also serve to guide future research policy and practice in this important field of inquiry The work will contribute answers to questions such as How do immigrant minority teachers experience their work in mainstream educational settings How do mainstream shareholders experience the inclusion of immigrant minority teachers in mainstream educational settings What is the effect of the successful and or unsuccessful integration of minority teachers and teacher educators into mainstream education settings Interpersonal Encounters Laura K. Guerrero,Bree McEwan,2022-05-12 With a practical and innovative approach to the study of interpersonal communication Interpersonal Encounters Connecting through Communication by Laura K Guerrero and Bree McEwan prepares students to become better communicators in their personal and professional lives Mother Jones Magazine ,1997-02 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues AMA Educators' Proceedings ,1983
