exclusion and equality      Working with Diversity in Youth and Community Work Sangeeta Soni,2011-09-09 This book focuses on the nature of cross cultural practice an inevitable aspect of working as a youth and community worker in multicultural Britain today It enables students to understand how cross cultural dynamics can set the tone of their relationships with their clients and helps them to understand how individual action and some processes in society can contribute to the marginalisation of others This book looks at the processes involved in the everyday relationships forged through practice and how these can inadvertently influence the dynamics of oppression through lack of self awareness or lack of awareness of others in society      Racism and Education David Gillborn,2008-03-11 Education policy is not designed to eliminate race inequality but to sustain it at manageable levels This is the inescapable conclusion of the first major study of the English education system using critical race theory David Gillborn has been described as Britain s most influential race theorist in education In this book he dissects the role of racism across the education system from national policies to school level decisions about discipline and academic selection Race inequality is not accidental and things are not getting better Despite occasional good news stories about fluctuations in statistics the reality is that race inequality is so deeply entrenched that it is effectively locked in as a permanent feature of the system Built on a foundation of compelling evidence from national statistics to studies of classroom life this book shows how race inequality is shaped and legitimized across the system The study explores a series of key issues including the impact of the War on Terror and how policy privileges the interests of white people how assessment systems produce race inequality exposes the gifted and talented programme as a form of eugenic thinking based on discredited and racist myths about intelligence and ability documents the Stephen Lawrence case revealing how policy makers have betrayed earlier commitments to race equality shows how model minorities are created and used to counter anti racism how education policy is implicated in the defence of white power Conspiracy Racism Education takes critical antiracist analyses to a new level and represents a fundamental challenge to current assumptions in the field With a preface by Richard Delgado one of the founders of critical race theory      Promoting social cohesion Ines Newman,Peter Ratcliffe,2011-05-11 This book makes a forthright case for a shift in policy focus from community cohesion to the broader notion of social cohesion and is distinctive and innovative in its focus on evaluation It constitutes an extremely valuable source both for practitioners involved in social cohesion interventions and for researchers and students studying theory based evaluation and the policy areas highlighted housing intergenerational issues the recession education communications community development      Linking Integration and Residential Segregation Gideon Bolt,A. Sule Özüekren,Deborah Phillips,2013-09-13 Policy makers tend to view the residential segregation of minority ethnic groups in a negative light as it is seen as an obstacle to their integration In the literature on neighbourhood effects the residential concentration of minorities is seen as a major impediment to their social mobility and acculturation while the literature on residential segregation emphasises the opposite causal direction by focusing on the effect of integration on levels of de segregation This volume however indicates that the link between integration and segregation is much less straightforward than is often depicted in academic literature and policy discourses Based on research in a wide variety of western countries it can be concluded that the process of assimilation into the housing market is highly complex and differs between and within ethnic groups The integration pathway not only depends on the characteristics of migrants themselves but also on the reactions of the institutions and the population of the receiving society Linking Integration and Residential Segregation exposes the link between integration and segregation as a two way relationship involving the minority ethnic groups and the host society highlighting the importance of historical and geographical context for social and spatial outcomes This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies European been observed though much of the work in criminology has been dominated by a somewhat narrow debate This debate has concerned itself with explaining this disproportionality in terms of structural inequalities and socio economic disadvantage or discriminatory criminal justice processing This book offers an accessible and innovative approach including chapters on anti-Semitism social cohesion in London Bradford and Glasgow as well as an exploration of policing Traveller communities Incorporating current empirical research and new departures in methodology and theory this book also draws on a range of contemporary issues such as policing terrorism immigration detention and youth gangs In offering minority perspectives on race crime and justice and white inmate perspectives from the multicultural prison the book emphasises contrasting and distinctive influences on constructing ethnic identities It will be of interest to students studying courses in ethnicity crime and justice
