Race To Save The Tropics Ecology And Economics For A Sustainable Future:

Race to Save the Tropics Robert Goodland, 2013-04-10 Race to Save the Tropics documents the conflict between economic development and protection of biological diversity in tropical countries Sustainable Regional Development Methodologies For Microregional Diagnostics Richard Edwards, Environmental Management in ASEAN Maria Seda, 1993 The problem of environmental degradation in the ASEAN region cannot be underestimated The articles in this book examine some of the common environmental issues faced by countries in the region They provide a brief overview of some major environmental problems such as fisheries management tropical deforestation and pollution in urban areas and highlight some of the research policy and institutional constraints in the region Research Articles, 2004 Aboriginal reconciliation Addictions Allergies Archeology Alternative fuel for cars Atomic bomb Australian animals Australian cultural icons Ballet Beetles Brand power Climbing mountains Computer animation Computer dating Convicts in exile Captain Cook's voyages Dairy production Dangerous predators Dogs Dumbing down of society Ecological footprint Euthanasia Fast food Gambling Gay cowboy Genetic engineering Germs viruses epidemics Global warming Hijab Horses Insomnia cure Internet John Pilger Life savers Love Lunar and social eclipses Monster makers Nanotechnology National treasures Pirates Pope John Paul II Qantas 85th Anniversary Re cycling Science fiction Space travel Sharks Sheep farming Spam Sun Text messaging Tunnels Venomous creatures Water Whaling Wizardry Women at war Seven wonders of the world World War 2 Biosphere 2000 Donald G. Kaufman, Cecilia M. Franz, 2000 The Making of International Environmental Treaties Gerry Nagtzaam, 2009 Gerry Nagtzaam contends that in recent decades neoliberal institutionalist scholarship on global environmental regimes has burgeoned as has constructivist scholarship on the key role played by norms in international politics In this innovative volume the author sets these interest and norm based approaches against each other in order to test their ability to illustrate why and how different environmental norms take hold in some regimes and not others The book explores why some global environmental treaties seek to preserve and protect some parts of nature from human utilization some seek to conserve certain parts of nature for human development whilst others allow the reckless exploitation of nature without accounting for the consequences It tracks the fate of these three underlying environmental norms preservation conservation and exploitation using case studies on whaling mining in Antarctica and tropical timber The book illustrates how international political battles to shape environmental regimes inevitably result in clashes between these competing environmental norms This unique study will prove a fascinating read for both academics and practitioners in the fields of international environmental politics and international environmental law Readings in Planning Theory Susan S. Fainstein, James DeFilippis, 2016-01-19 Featuring updates and revisions to reflect rapid changes in an increasingly globalized world Readings in Planning Theory remains the definitive resource for the latest theoretical and practical debates within the field of planning theory Represents the newest edition of the leading text in planning theory that brings together the essential classic and cutting edge readings Features 20 completely new readings out of 28 total for the fourth edition Introduces and defines key debates in planning theory with editorial materials and readings selected both for their accessibility and importance Systematically captures the breadth and diversity of planning theory and puts issues into wider social and political contexts without assuming prior knowledge of the field Mixed and Pure Tree Plantations with Native Species at La Selva Biological Station, Costa Rica: , Environmental Sustainability Fraser Smith, 2020-02-05 In 1994 representatives from all over the world met in Costa Rica to discuss the impact of ecological economics on developing countries That groundbreaking conference laid the foundation for this new collection of research on environmental sustainability While most discussions on sustainable development focus on the industrialized nations Environmental Sustainability Practical Global Applications takes a different angle it presents the views of the developing countries themselves on issues such as wildlife resources in Namibia timber production in Costa Rica property rights and land reform in South Africa and other steps being taken to implement environmentally sustainable economies around the world This is an ideal text for students of natural and social sciences development professionals and entrepreneurs seeking opportunities for ecologically sustainable businesses Academics will find it useful as a source of current research and for making new contacts in the field For anyone interested in exploring the link between man and his environment specifically the relationship between economics and ecology Environmental Sustainability is a must International Environmental Law Gerry Nagtzaam, Evan van Hook, Douglas Guilfoyle, 2019-10-23 This book seeks to better understand how International Environmental Law regimes evolve The authors address throughout the major environmental economic and political tensions that have both shaped and constrained the evolution of international environmental policy within regimes and its expression in international legal rule and norm development Readers will gain an increased understanding of the growing role played by non state actors in global environmental governance including environmental non government organisations scientists the United Nations and corporations The authors also look ahead to the future of International Environmental Law evaluating key challenges and decisions that the discipline will face The text is clear concise and accessible It is ideally suited to students and professionals interested in International Environmental Law and individuals who are intrigued by this dynamic area of law Changes in Land Use and Land Cover William B. Meyer, Billie Lee Turner, University Corporation for Atmospheric Research. Office for Interdisciplinary Earth Studies, 1994-09-15 This book analyses the impact of human activities on the Earth's surface and environment Rainforests of the World Kathlyn Gay, 2001-08-13 This authoritative volume examines the reasons for rainforest destruction the effects of deforestation on indigenous plant and animal life and the policies and actions that are currently being taken to protect rainforests Rainforests of the World covers everything from the basic biology and chemistry of rainforests and their geographic location to problems controversies and solutions A section highlights people and events like Gifford Pinchot Lester Brown Anita Roddick the Alaska Native Claims Settlement

Act and the Kyoto Protocol The documents provided include the Declaration of Curitiba the Indigenous People's Declaration and the North American Free Trade Agreement The book includes a chronology charts tables and graphs on rainforest destruction a list of groups working to protect rainforests an extensive annotated bibliography and other references
