Race Traitor 11:

Race Struggles Theodore Koditschek, Sundiata Keita Cha-Jua, Helen A. Neville, 2009 The essays in this collection start with the premise that although race like class and gender is socially constructed all three categories have been shaped profoundly by their context in a capitalist society Race in other words is a historical category that develops not only in dialectical relation to class and gender but also in relation to the material conditions in which all three are forged In addition to discussing and analyzing various dimensions of the African American experience contributors also consider the ways in which race plays itself out in the experience of Asian Americans and in the very different geopolitical environments of the British Empire and postcolonial Africa Contributors are Pedro Caban Sundiata Keita Cha Jua David Crockett Theodore Koditschek Scott Kurashige Clarence Lang Minkah Makalani Helen A Neville Ibitola O Pearce David Roediger Monica M White and Jeffrey Williams The SAGE Sourcebook of Service-Learning and Civic Engagement Omobolade Delano-Oriaran, Marguerite W. Penick-Parks, Suzanne Fondrie, 2015-03-23 The SAGE Sourcebook of Service Learning and Civic Engagement focuses on historical philosophical social foundations practices and models of service learning and civic engagement The title offers practical jargon free chapters applicable to any educational institution as well as community organizations that might consult the work Key Features Practical jargon free chapters applicable to any educational institution as well as community organizations that might consult the work 58 signed chapters are organized into thematic parts such as Concepts Theoretical Approaches Historical Social Foundations The Role of Service Learning in Higher Education The Role of the Community Lessons Learned Future Directions etc Thematic parts provide a practical sampling of syllabi lesson plans activities and resources and online websites and databases supporting service learning Glossary key terms commonly used in discussions and research on service learning and civic engagement Bibliography of sources consulted in production of the volume This Sourcebook is a scholarly source ideal for any educational institution and academic library as well as public libraries and community organizations that might consult the work on historical philosophical social foundations practices and models of service learning and civic engagement White Ignorance and Complicit Responsibility Eva Boodman, 2022-01-10 White ignorance is a form of collective denial that aggressively resists acknowledging the role of race and racism It dominates our political landscape warps white moral frameworks and affective responses intervenes in white self conceptions and organizes white identities In this way white ignorance poses a problem for conceptions of responsibility that rely on individuals intentions causal contributions or knowledge of the facts As Eva Boodman shows our moral concepts for responding to racism are implicated in the process of racialization when they understand responsibility as the attribution of blame or absolution innocence or guilt White Ignorance and Complicit Responsibility challenges these binary punitive moralities arguing that they reproduce racial harm by encouraging white people to seek innocence and the purification of moral taint instead of addressing the material conditions of racial harm

Instead Boodman claims the space of complicity as a place of anti racist possibility Linking the construction of whiteness to a racist punishment paradigm this book makes the case for a different way of responding to harm as necessary for dismantling the moral racial political and affective constructs that keep racial capitalism in place Multiculturalism, Postcoloniality, and Transnational Media Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2003 Reflecting academic interests in nation race gender sexuality and other axes of identity this text gathers these concerns under the same umbrella contending that these issues must be discussed in relation to each other because communities societies and nations do not exist autonomously Surrealist Subversions Ronald B. Sakolsky, Franklin Rosemont, 2002 From its auspicious beginnings in the summer of 1966 to the present the Chicago Surrealist Group and the Surrealist Movement in the United States which grew out of it have continued to foment an exhilarating whirlwind of revolt while playfully igniting the sparks of Poetry Freedom and Love in the crucible of the Unfettered Imagination In so doing it has brightly illuminated the pathways of absolute divergence that define the intrinsically anarchist trajectory of the surrealist adventure Drawing on the full range of U S surrealist publications from the original journal Arsenal Surrealist Subversion to the very latest millennial communiqué from the front lines of the ongoing battle against miserabilism this volume contains over 200 texts more than two dozen appearing here for the first time by more than fifty participants in the Surrealist Movement making this the most comprehensive diverse and lavishly illustrated compilation of American surrealist writings to have ever been assembled Contributors include Gale Ahrens Jennifer Bean Jen Besemer Daniel C Boyer Paul Buhle Ronnie Burk Leonora Carrington Laura Corsiglia Jayne Cortez Guy Ducornet Rikki Ducornet Schlechter Duvall Alice Farley J Allen Fees Beth Garon Paul Garon Eugenio F Granell Robert Green Miriam Hansen Diedra Harris Kelley Jan Hathaway Corinna Jablonski Joseph Jablonski Ted Joans Gerome Kamrowski Robin D G Kelley Don LaCoss Philip Lamantia Clarence John Laughlin Mary Low Herbert Marcuse Tristan Meinecke Casandra Stark Mele Anne Olson Nancy Joyce Peters Charles Radcliffe Myrna Bell Rochester David Roediger Franklin Rosemont Penelope Rosemont Ody Saban Louise Simons Martha Sonnenberg Christopher Starr Ivan Svitak Cheikh Tidiane Sylla Claude Tarnaud Debra Taub Dale Tomich Patrick Turner Darryl Lorenzo Wellington Jordan West Joel Williams Marie Wilson Haifa Zangana A Nation Divided: The Conflicting Personalities, Visions, and Values of Liberals and Conservatives Anthony Walsh, 2019-10-02 Activists have long claimed that the personal is political but this book posits the converse that the political is personal The United States today is bitterly divided It is less an aspirational melting pot of immigrants and more a salad bowl made up of distinct often clashing flavors The successive elections of two divisive presidents one committed to the perennial leftist dream of fundamental change and the other to a conservative vision of Making America Great Again have exacerbated what is arguably the greatest rift in politics since the election of Abraham Lincoln Taking inspiration from Coleridge's belief that all humans are temperamentally destined to follow the path of Plato the Idealist or Aristotle the Realist this book examines the political divide in terms of these temperamental differences Liberals and conservatives views of human nature have a large bearing on the political policies they espouse but their temperaments and personalities have the most significant impact This book analyses the personality traits of liberals and conservatives in terms of the Big Five model openness to experience conscientiousness extraversion agreeableness and neuroticism Conservatives are found in almost all studies to be more conscientious agreeable and extroverted while liberals are found to be more open to new experience and neurotic The political divisions I explore in this book are all essentially fueled by personality differences There is a deepening divide between liberals and conservatives in the battle for America's soul one side seeks to steer the nation sharply to the left into socialist selfdom whereas the other side desires a wealthy and free America under the watchful eye of God's providence A preponderance of academic texts belongs to the liberal tradition Conservatives have long lacked a comparable intellectual tradition of their own although an incipient one is now beginning to form This book while maintaining a measure of scholarly distance is unashamedly written from a conservative point of view

Whites Confront Racism Eileen O'Brien, 2001 This book asserts the distinctive place that whites can take in the fight for racial justice bringing together interviews with white antiracist activists from across North America Avoiding the typical white options of being nonracist or feeling guilty these whites demonstrate the multitude of ways whites can be proactive in combating modern racism These activists of both genders and all ages have arrived at their antiracist commitments through several different yet typical paths These whites struggle to transform individuals institutions and themselves to varying degrees incurring risks as well as rewards along the way Their affiliations with antiracist organizations or lack thereof play a crucial role in the differences among them and their approaches to antiracist work The whites who are involved with antiracist groups come predominantly from either Anti Racist Action or the People's Institute for Survival and Beyond and the contrast between these two groups woven throughout the analysis leads to the conclusion that there are different types of antiracism Although unity among them may not be possible or even desirable acceptance of a broader concept of racism by all antiracists is one of the ending suggestions for the future of antiracism

Race Traitor, 2000 Casting Gender John T. Warren, Laura B. Lengel, 2005 Casting Gender puts forward a vision of theatre storytelling and the performance of the everyday function within the lived spaces of its performers and audiences asking how women artists scholars embody meaning carry social value and constitute possible identities Drawing on scholarship in intercultural communication performance studies women's studies and cultural studies this collection of new critically informed research advances our understanding of how theater works as intercultural communication and as a vehicle for change Casting Gender offers varied locations and sites of research highlighting the rich diversity of women's cultural identities roles and societal positions This book moves beyond the western centered nature of intercultural performance and intercultural communication theory and practice by creating a forum for nonwestern voices

Racing to Justice John A. Powell, 2024-11-19 In Racing to Justice renowned social justice advocate John A. Powell persuasively argues that we have yet to achieve a truly post racial society and that there is much work to be done to redeem the American promise of inclusive democracy Gathered from a decade of writing about social justice and spirituality these meditations on race identity and social policy provide an outline for laying claim to our shared humanity and a way toward healing ourselves and securing our future With an updated foreword and a new chapter on polarization this new edition continues to challenge us to replace the attitudes and institutions that promote and perpetuate social suffering with those that foster relationships and a way of being that transcends disconnection and separation Racing to Justice is a thought provoking book that offers readers a look into the issues that continue to plague our society It is reminder that we have yet to address and reckon with the challenges we face in providing equal opportunities for all people in this country and the world

Colored White David R. Roediger, 2003-11 In this splendid book David Roediger shows the need for political activism aimed at transforming the social and political meaning of race No other writer on whiteness can match Roediger's historical breadth and depth his grasp of the formative role played by race in the making of the nineteenth century working class in defining the contours of twentieth century U S citizenship and social membership and in shaping the meaning of emerging social identities and cultural practices in the twenty first century George Lipsitz author of The Possessive Investment in Whiteness David Roediger has been showing us all for years how whiteness is a marked and not a neutral color in the history of the United States Colored White with its synthetic sweep and new historical investigations marks yet another advance In the burgeoning literature on whiteness this book stands out for its lucid unjargonridden lively prose its groundedness its analytic clarity and its scope Michael Rogin author of Blackface White Noise Whiteness at the Abyss Derek

Hook, 2025-01-29 Whiteness is an omnipresent term within research on race and racism This book differs from existing conceptualizations by adopting a psychoanalytic line of approach and by directing its attention to a particular socio historical instantiation of whiteness the investments fantasies and fears apparent within post apartheid South African contexts It foregrounds the notion of white anxiety which is conceptualized not only via notions of psychical temporality but with reference to the dystopian visions of the future ideas of inter generational guilt and fantasies of demise To posit an imagined end to whiteness is not of course an uncontroversial gesture the closing section of the book surveys the key themes antisemitism white Nationalism the trope of the race traitor in online attacks the author was subjected to This compelling work will appeal to all those with an interest in psychoanalytic approaches to race and racism and to anyone working in the areas of critical race and whiteness studies Disability, Intersectional Agency, and Latinx Identity Alexis

Padilla, 2021-07-28 This interdisciplinary volume links disability and agency by exploring LatDisCrit's theory and activist emancipatory practice It uses the author's experiential and analytical views as a blind brown Latinx engaged scholar and activist from the global south living and struggling in the highly racialized global north context of the United States LatDisCrit integrates critically LatCrit and DisCrit which look at the interplay of race ethnicity diasporic cultures historical sociopolitics and disability within multiple Latinx identities in mostly global north contexts while incorporating global south

epistemologies Using intersectional analysis of key concepts through critical counterstories following critical race theory methodological traditions and engaging possible decoloniality treatments of material precarity and agency this book emphasizes intersectionality's complex underpinnings within and beyond Latinidades Through a careful interplay of disability identity and disability rights empowerment the volume opens avenues for intersectional solidarity and spaces for radical transformational learning This book will be of interest to all scholars and students working in disability studies intersectional disability justice activists critical Latinx Chicanx studies critical geographies intersectional political philosophy and political and public sociology

Class Struggles Dennis L. Dworkin, 2014-05-22 In the 1960s and 1970s the study of history and sociology was heavily influenced by Marxism and theories of class But the collapse of Communism and significant changes in culture and society threw the study of class into crisis Its most basic premises were called into question More recently accelerating globalisation proliferating multinational corporations and unbridled free market capitalism have given the study of class a new significance and caused historians and sociologists to revisit the debate This book looks at the changes that caused the crisis in the study of class and shows how new vibrant theories have appeared that will drive forward our understanding of history and sociology

Moral and Immoral Whiteness in Immigration Politics Yalidy Matos, 2023 Immigration has been at the heart of US politics for centuries In Moral and Immoral Whiteness in Immigration Politics Yalidy Matos examines the inherent moral value based nature of white Americans immigration attitudes including preferences on local immigration enforcement programs federal immigration policy and levels of legal immigration allowed Does identifying as white always signify a commitment to maintain the racial status quo or can it result in commitments to racial justice How do we understand the passage of state level sanctuary and anti sanctuary immigration legislation through a white identity political lens Thinking about whiteness as a moral choice complicates the idea that immigration policy preferences are mostly about demographic shifts To examine the centrality of morality in white Americans immigration attitudes Matos looks at public opinion survey data as well as the roll call votes of elected officials She examines the conditions under which white Americans choose to reproduce a system structured on white supremacy or repudiate it as well as the role of socialization in their choices and immigration attitudes As immigration continues to be weaponized to divide Matos highlights the importance of understanding the roots of immigration attitudes in the United States and the ways in which whiteness structures these attitudes

Race, Whiteness, and Education Zeus Leonardo, 2009-05-12 In the colorblind era of Post Civil Rights America race is often wrongly thought to be irrelevant or at best a problem of racist individuals rather than a systemic condition to be confronted Race Whiteness and Education interrupts this dangerous assumption by reaffirming a critical appreciation of the central role that race and racism still play in schools and society Author Zeus Leonardo's conceptual engagement of race and whiteness asks questions about its origins its maintenance and envisages its future This book does not simply rehearse exhausted ideas on the relationship among race class and education but instead offers new ways of understanding how multiple social relations interact with one another and of their impact in thinking about a more genuine sense of multiculturalism By asking fundamental questions about whiteness in schools and society Race Whiteness and Education goes to the heart of race relations and the common sense understandings that sustain it thus painting a clearer picture of the changing face of racism

Neo-slave Narratives Ashraf H. A. Rushdy, 1999-11-04

NeoSlave Narratives is a study in the political social and cultural content of a given literary form the novel of slavery cast as a first person slave narrative After discerning the social and historical factors surrounding the first appearance of that literary form in the 1960s NeoSlave Narratives explores the complex relationship between nostalgia and critique while asking how African American intellectuals at different points between 1976 and 1990 remember and use the site of slavery to represent the crucial cultural debates that arose during the sixties

Making #Charlottesville Aniko Bodroghkozy, 2023-05-22

The 2017 Summer of Hate in Charlottesville became a worldwide media event putting at center stage the resurgence of emboldened and empowered white supremacy and alt right extremism as well as the antiracist movement opposing it Aniko Bodroghkozy's trenchant study examines this formative moment in recent U S history by juxtaposing it against two other epochal moments that put American racism and the struggle against it on worldwide display the 1963 Birmingham and 1965 Selma campaigns of the civil rights movement Making Charlottesville investigates the historical rhymes in the mass media's treatment of these events separated by half a century along with the ways that activists on both sides made use of the new media environment of their day to organize and amplify their respective messages Bodroghkozy teases out the connections similarities and resonances among these events from the ways all three places were consciously chosen as stage sets for media campaigns to the similarly iconic and heavily circulated images they produced to the sustained cultural purchase they continue to hold in the United States and around the world

Unlikely Allies in the Academy Karen L. Dace, 2012-05-23

A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2012 Unlikely Allies in the Academy brings the voices of women of Color and White women together for much overdue conversations about race These well known contributors use narrative to expose their stories which are at times messy and always candid However the contributors work through the discomfort confusion and frustration in order to have honest conversations about race and racism The narratives from Chicanas Indigenous Asian American African American and White women academicians explore our past present and future what separates us and how to communicate honestly in an effort to become allies Chapters discuss the need to interrupt and disrupt the norms of interaction and engagement by allowing for the messiness of discomfort in frank discussion The dialogues model how to engage in difficult dialogues about race and begin to illuminate the unspoken misunderstandings about how White women and women of Color engage one another This valuable book offers strategies ideas and the hope for moving toward true alliances in the academy and to improve race relations This important resource is for Higher Education administrators faculty and scholars grappling with the intersectionality of race and gender as they work
