Race Lifes Greatest Lesson:

The Race Dee Groberg, Mac Anderson, 2004-06-01 An illustrated poem this is the heart wrenching story of a boy in a footrace hoping to win but falling again and again Each time he wants to give up knowing pace by pace that he has lost any chance of winning and that his dad watching from a distance will be disappointed But each time he gets back up and runs as hard as he can For in his heart he can hear the voice of his dad You haven't lost at all for winning is no more than this to rise each time you fall As the boy finishes the race the crowd cheers as loudly for him as for the winner and his father's proud look is his true reward
