Navigating Mentoring Relationships Sonja M. Brown Givens, Keisha Edwards Tassie, 2016-07-18 Women of Color Navigating Mentoring Relationships explores and critically examines the opportunities and challenges presented in mentoring relationships involving women of color While all mentoring relationships are unique to the individuals involved in them this book highlights the roles of race class and gender oriented constructions in the establishment maintenance and dissolution of specific mentoring relationships in which women of color are engaged This edited collection argues that traditional notions of mentoring fail to account for intersectionality and power dynamics that can have profound effects on mentoring practices and that institutional best practices for mentoring do little to address the impact of constructions of otherness on the success or failure of mentoring relationships involving women of color Recommended for scholars of communication studies gender studies race studies and for scholars pursuing a career in academia Resources in Education ,2001-04

The Sino-Japanese War and Youth Literature Minjie Chen,2016-01-22 The Sino Japanese War 1937 1945 was fought in the Asia Pacific theatre between Imperial Japan and China with the United States as the latter s major military ally An important line of investigation remains questioning how the history of this war has been passed on to post war generations consciousness and how information sources particularly those exposed to young people in their formative years shape their knowledge and bias of the conflict as well as World War II more generally This book is the first to focus on how the Sino Japanese War has been represented in non English and English sources for children and young adults As a cross cultural study and an interdisciplinary endeavour it not only examines youth orientated publications in China and the United States but also draws upon popular culture novelists memoirs and family oral narratives to make comparisons between fiction and history Chinese and American sources and published materials and private memories of the war Through quantitative narrative analysis literary and visual analysis and socio political critique it shows the dominant pattern of war stories traces chronological changes over the seven decades from 1937 to 2007 and teases out the ways in which the history of the Sino Japanese War has been constructed censored and utilized to serve shifting agendas Providing a much needed examination of public memory literary representation and popular imagination of the Sino Japanese War this book will have huge interdisciplinary appeal particularly for students and scholars of Asian history literature society and education Home and School Reading and Study Guides Donna M.
