If Science is to Save Us Martin Rees,2022-09-07 There has never been a time when following the science has been more important for humanity At no other point in history have we had such advanced knowledge and technology at our fingertips nor had such astonishing capacity to determine the future of our planet But the decisions we must make on how science is applied belong outside the lab and should be the outcome of wide public debate For that to happen science needs to become part of our common culture Science is not just for scientists if it were it could never save us from the multiple crises we face For science can save us if its innovations mesh carefully into society and its applications are channelled for the common good As Martin Rees argues in this expert and personal analysis of the scientific endeavour on which we all depend we need to think globally we need to think rationally and we need to think long term empowered by twenty first century technology but guided by values that science alone cannot provide Also available as an audiobook State To The Rescue: Reducing A Gap And Standardizing For All Johnnie L. Pharms,2013-03-26 Stop You should read this before you read anything else The Author John Pharms has written a splendid and powerful piece of literary indictment to what s wrong with the African American Schools in the U S This article holds no punches in regards to what s needed to change the decades of negative behavior from the Administration on down to the lives of African American Children across this country This is a WARNING to you the reader You may adamantly disagree but hopefully you will come away with what is said here in this article needs to be said
