Racism And Antiracism In Real Schools:

Racism and Antiracism in Real Schools David Gillborn,1995 This text focuses on racism in the policy research theory and practice of education It includes a study of anti racism at the level of whole school management and classroom practice The words of teachers and students are included to bring the issues to life Racism and Education David Gillborn,2008-03-11 This book challenges the dominant assumptions and attitudes that shape education and is the first major study in the UK to adopt Critical Race Theory a radical new perspective on the nature of racism and public policy Race, Racism and the Geography Curriculum John Morgan,David Lambert,2023-03-23 Changes in the nature of knowledge production plus rapid social and cultural change have meant that the curriculum question what is to be taught and by extension whose knowledge has been hotly contested The question of what to teach has become more and more controversial This book asks what is an appropriate curriculum response to the acute renewed interest in issues of race and racism How does a school subject like geography respond The struggle over the school curriculum has frequently been portrayed as being between educational traditionalists and progressives This book suggests a way out of this impasse Drawing upon and extending insights from social realism it explores what a Future 3 geography curriculum might look like one that recognizes the importance of the academic discipline as a source of curriculum making but at the same time avoids geographical knowledge becoming set in stone The book focuses very sharply on issues of race and racism enabling teachers to engage in curriculum making in geography that is racially literate The Foreword is written by Julian Agyeman a former geography teacher in the UK and now Professor of Urban and Environmental Policy and Planning at Tufts University USA New Geographies of Race and Racism Caroline Bressey,2016-04-29 In recent years geographers interested in ethnicity race and racism have extended their focus from examining geographies of segregation and racism to exploring cultural politics social practice and everyday geographies of identity and experience This edited collection illustrates this new work and includes research on youth and new ethnicities the contested politics of race and racism intersections of ethnicity religion and race and the theorisation and interrogation of whiteness Case studies from the UK and Ireland focus on the intersections of race and nation and the specificities of place in discourses of racilisation and identity A key feature of the book is its engagement with a range of methodological approaches to examining the significance of race including ethnography visual methodologies and historical analysis Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World Crash Politics and Antiracism Philip S. S. Howard,George J. Sefa Dei,George Jerry

Sefa Dei, 2008 Counterpoints publishes the most compelling and imaginative books being written in education today Grounded on the theoretical advances in criticalism feminism and postmodernism in the last two decades of the twentieth century Counterpoints engages the meaning of these innovations in various forms of educational expression Committed to the proposition that theoretical literature should be accessible to a variety of audiences the series insists that its authors avoid esoteric and jargonistic languages that transform educational scholarship into an elite discourse for the initiated

Education, Equality and Human Rights Mike Cole, 2002-11-01 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Rationing Education Gillborn, David, Youdell, Deborah, 1999-12-01 This research should make us extremely sceptical that the constant search for higher standards and for ever increasing achievement scores can do much more than put in place seemingly neutral devices for restratification Michael W Apple John Bascom Professor of Curriculum and Instruction and Educational Policy Studies University of Wisconsin Madison Recent educational reforms have raised standards of achievement but have also resulted in growing inequalities based on race and social class School by school league tables play a central role in the reforms These have created an A to C economy where schools and teachers are judged on the proportion of students attaining five or more grades at levels A to C To satisfy these demands schools are embracing new and ever more selective attempts to identify ability Their assumptions and practices embody a new IQism a simple narrow and regressive ideology of intelligence that labels working class and minority students as likely failures and justifies rationing provision to support those often white middle class boys already marked for success This book reports detailed research in two secondary schools showing the real costs of reform in terms of the pressures on teachers and the rationing of educational opportunity It will be important reading for any teacher researcher or policymaker with an interest in equality in education Doing Research About Education Geoffrey Walford, 2003-09-02 This book brings together semi autobiographical accounts from major educationalists about their influential research focusing on the practical and personal aspects of the research process The collection reflects the great changes that have occurred within educational research since the 1980s and deals with the issues and situations of the late 1990s It includes accounts that cover the various stages of the research process a sampling of topics the diversity of methodologies used in educational research and a range of theoretical perspectives There is coverage of qualitative and quantitative methodologies and of large and smaller scale research Also discussed are ESRC programme research contract research and theoretical research Issues in Holocaust Education Geoffrey Short, Carole Ann Reed, 2017-07-05 This original contribution to understanding the nature of Holocaust education in schools tackles an issue that has gained significant interest over the past decade and is of increasing relevance due to a growing intolerance across Europe and elsewhere The authors examine a range of issues including the need for Holocaust education the factors that facilitate or inhibit its evolution and the indifferent response of the antiracist movement to the attempted annihilation of European Jewry The empirical content sheds light on the attitudes and practices of teachers and on the prospects of drawing on the Holocaust to further the goal of participatory democracy The themes and illustrative research are discussed in the context of developments in two locations the United Kingdom and Canada and the findings will be germane to an international audience The volume will prove invaluable to academics and policy makers concerned with social policy sociology education and history as well as to teachers of the Holocaust

Multicultural Education Policies in Canada and the United States Reva Joshee,Lauri Johnson,2011-11-01 Multicultural Education Policies in Canada and the United States uses a dialogical approach to examine responses to increasing cultural and racial diversity in both countries It compares and contrasts foundational myths and highlights the sociopolitical contexts that affect the conditions of citizenship access to education and inclusion of diverse cultural knowledge and languages in educational systems
