

Reasons for Nonviolence

2. Nonviolent action is consistent with a belief in the underlying unity of humankind and it is the only method of action, interpersonal or political, that does not block that path to what has often been called 'self-realization'.

Rationale For Nonviolence:

Conflict: Violence and Nonviolence Joan Valerie Bondurant, Hallward, Julie M. Norman, 2015-09-15 The use of nonviolent action is on the rise From the Occupy Movement to the Arab Spring and mass protests on the streets of Brazil activists across the world are increasingly using unarmed tactics to challenge oppressive corrupt and unjust systems But what exactly do we mean by nonviolence How is it deployed and to what effect Do nonviolent campaigns with political motivations differ from those driven by primarily economic concerns What are the limits and opportunities for activists engaging in nonviolent action today Is the growing number of nonviolence protests indicative of a new type of twenty first century struggle or is it simply a passing trend Understanding Nonviolence Contours and Contexts is the first book to offer a comprehensive introduction to nonviolence in theory and practice Combining insightful analysis of key theoretical debates with fresh perspectives on contemporary and historical case studies it explores the varied approaches aims and trajectories of nonviolent campaigns from Gandhi to the present day With cutting edge contributions from leading scholars and practitioners in the field this accessible and lively book will be essential reading for activists students and teachers of contentious politics international security and peace and conflict studies

A Theory of Nonviolent Action Stellan Vinthagen, 2015-11-15 In this ground breaking and much needed book Stellan Vinthagen provides the first major systematic attempt to develop a theory of nonviolent action since Gene Sharp's seminal The Politics of Nonviolent Action in 1973 Employing a rich collection of historical and contemporary social movements from various parts of the world as examples from the civil rights movement in America to anti Apartheid protestors in South Africa to Gandhi and his followers in India and addressing core theoretical issues concerning nonviolent action in an innovative penetrating way Vinthagen argues for a repertoire of nonviolence that combines resistance and construction Contrary to earlier research this repertoire consisting of dialogue facilitation normative regulation power breaking and utopian enactment is shown to be both multidimensional and contradictory creating difficult contradictions within nonviolence while simultaneously providing its creative and transformative force An important contribution in the field A Theory of Nonviolent Action is essential for anyone involved with nonviolent action who wants to think about what they are doing

The Ethics of Nonviolence Robert L. Holmes, 2013-06-20 Robert Holmes is one of the leading proponents of nonviolence in the United States and his influence extends to the rest of the world However he has never presented his views on nonviolence in full length book form The Ethics of Nonviolence brings together his best essays on the topic both classic works and more obscure pieces as well as several important essays that have never been published Holmes started his career by following Dewey and James and then turned toward metaethics The Vietnam War finally led him toward moral problems related to war and violence For the last forty years he has been a great proponent of nonviolence and pacifism in the style of Tolstoy and Gandhi If ethics is meant to be more than a purely academic exercise the theoretical ethics of philosophy must be shown to be relevant to applied morality

the ongoing process of making moral judgments must add value to the world we live in For Robert Holmes no aspect of reality is more in need of ethical thinking and reform than the culture of war and violence that cannot be ignored There are morally viable alternatives to this violence Holmes argues and he scrutinizes the sources and implications of such positions Holmes shows that nonviolence and pacifism can lead us toward a more peaceful and humanely dignified world The Oxford Handbook of Intergroup Conflict Linda Tropp, 2012-07-26 With insightful chapters from key social psychologists and peace scholars this handbook offers an integrative and extensive overview of critical questions issues processes and strategies relevant to understanding and addressing intergroup conflict An Ethical Evaluation of Lethal Functions in Autoregulative Weapons Systems Nicole Kunkel, 2024-12-30 This book connects two of the most pressing ethical topics of our time questions of peace and technology materialized in so called autonomous weapons systems which can operate without human control and intervention in real time The author however criticizes the term autonomy as too anthropomorphic and therefore misleading She consequently proposes using the term autoregulation in its place Taking a contingent pacifist stance this book addresses the question of whether such technological means help or hinder peace processes The argument is tripartite First it is demonstrated that the risk of harm to nonparticipants is very likely to increase Second and with respect to responsibility it is indicated that a human machine system can only be operated responsibly if a human is in control Finally this idea is transferred into theological thought through reference to Bonhoeffer's idea of incurring guilt in acting responsibly In that context autoregulative technology might pose the possibility of shying away from responsibility and therefore becoming guilty This book is among the first ethical considerations of lethal autoregulative weaponry from a contingent pacifist stance and brings together peace ethical thinking and theories from various backgrounds Rationale for Nonviolence Chandler Smith, 1992 RATIONALE FOR NONVIOLENCE deals with the question of whether human survival is possible in the nuclear age Main points are that the different ways of responding to violence are limited that deterrence retaliation is ultimately self defeating that a just war is just nonsense that morality is necessary to a viable society that nonviolence has a legitimate understandable rationale These points are made in six essays one play four conversations five editorials 57 quotations The number of pages is 241 the price which includes shipping handling is 15 00 the book is available from Chandler Smith 5260 S Landings Dr Ft Myers FL 33919 Checks should be made payable to Chandler Smith

Nonviolence Senthil Ram, Ralph Summy, 2008 The so called war on terror has gone badly for the West playing directly into the strategy of al Qa ida and the rest of the terrorist network Why did this happen Were there other approaches that might have been implemented with better prospects of success This edited collection of perspectives on the non violent counter to terrorism opens the topic to serious consideration The development of a non violent paradigm brings into sharp focus the deficiencies of present thinking and paves the way for comprehending how non violence might overcome those deficiencies and introduce viable alternatives Since there is a general ignorance about the history theory and operational dynamics of non violence these aspects are featured throughout the book and related to the special case of terrorism To understand empathetically the background and mind set of the opponent without condoning his actions to study his culture to avoid the strategic trap he has set to examine the different gender reactions of a Muslim Society to differentiate between non violent Islam and Islamic Terrorism to jettison the misinformed baggage we carry about violence to appreciate the positive role education and aesthetics can play and to investigate ways in which a non violent counter to terrorism might be staged including a Gandhian response These are just some of the tasks that the contributors have collectively pursued Their ideas excitingly open up a whole new set of possibilities for a more peaceful world Promoting Nonviolence in Early Adolescence Aleta L. Meyer, Albert Farrell, Wendy Northup, Eva Kung, Laura Plybon, 2012-12-06 In preparation for role play during a RIPP class 6th grade students consider the following conflict situation Sharon and Josie who are good friends tryout for the basketball team Josie makes the team but Sharon does not The week after tryouts Sharon tries to pick a fight with Josie calling her a cheater and some one the coach felt sorry for Josie is in a bind she wants to remain friends with Sharon but she is really angry with Sharon for treating her so badly What can Josie do in this situation What type of self talk will help her work out this problem with Sharon and keep the friendship During the role play Sharon calls Josie a cheater Then before Josie responds two students representing her positive and negative sides take turns whispering into her ear Negative self talk Boy is she a loser What if everyone believes her and thinks that I cheated to get on the team Positive self talk I know I worked hard to get on the team Sharon must really be hurt that she didn't make it I can talk to her later when she's cooled down and maybe we can do something together after practice Josie listens to the two voices and decides that the best approach is to ignore Sharon's comments for now and to call her later that day to see if they can do something together This description of students dealing with everyday conflicts is quite real

Violence and Nonviolence Barry L. Gan, 2013-08-08 Violence and Nonviolence an Introduction critiques five dominant societal views about violence and nonviolence Using evidence from scientific studies as well as anecdotal evidence and news reports esteemed scholar and editor Barry L Gan shows readers that these widely adopted and violent views are largely mistaken and require a fundamental rethinking and adjustment By synthesizing new research with old philosophies Gan introduces readers to an alternative paradigm of nonviolence through which we can begin to build a more peaceful world Nonviolent strategic action a kind of selective nonviolence is the first of the two alternative paradigms that provides a concrete approach to addressing social and political problems arising from violence Nonviolence as a way of life is the second of the paradigms that expands upon and in some respects critiques the first preferring a comprehensive and radical response to the scourges of violence that have plagued human history
