Heroines, new edition Kate Zambreno, 2024-03-05 A manifesto reclaiming the wives and mistresses of literary modernism that inspired a generation of writers and scholars reissued after more than a decade I am beginning to realize that taking the self out of our essays is a form of repression Taking the self out feels like obeying a gag order pretending an objectivity where there is nothing objective about the experience of confronting and engaging with and swooning over literature On the last day of December 2009 Kate Zambreno then an unpublished writer began a blog called Frances Farmer Is My Sister arising from her obsession with literary modernism and her recent transplantation to Akron Ohio where her partner held a university job Widely reposted Zambreno's blog became an outlet for her highly informed and passionate rants and melancholy portraits of the fates of the modernist wives and mistresses reclaiming the traditionally pathologized biographies of Vivienne Eliot Jane Bowles Jean Rhys and Zelda Fitzgerald writers and artists themselves who served as male writers' muses only to end their lives silenced erased and institutionalized Over the course of two years Frances Farmer Is My Sister helped create a community of writers and devised a new feminist discourse of writing in the margins and developing an alternative canon In Heroines Zambreno extends the polemic begun on her blog into a dazzling original work of literary scholarship Combing theories that have dictated what literature should be and who is allowed to write it she traces the genesis of a cultural template that consistently exiles feminine experience to the realm of the minor and diagnoses women for transgressing social bounds ANXIETY When she experiences it it's pathological writes Zambreno When he does it's existential With Heroines Zambreno provided a model for a newly subjectivized criticism prefiguring many group biographies and forms of autotheory and hybrid memoirs that were to come in the years to follow A book that has become its own canon Heroines was named one of the 50 Books that define the past 5 Years in Literature by Flavorwire an Essential Feminist Manifesto by Dazed and one of the 50 Greatest Books by Women in Buzzfeed AB Bookman's Weekly, 1996 The Subject of Psychosis: A Lacanian Perspective S. Vanheule, 2011-10-03 This book discusses what Jacques Lacan's oeuvre contributes to our understanding of psychosis Presenting a close reading of original texts Stijn Vanheule proposes that Lacan's work on psychosis can best be framed in terms of four broad periods Incriminations Karen S. McPherson, 2021-09-14 Maintaining that women's storytelling is a telling activity Karen McPherson reads for guilt in novels by five twentieth century writers Simone de Beauvoir L'Invitée Marguerite Duras Le ravisement de Lol V Stein Anne H. Bert Kamouraska Virginia Woolf Mrs Dalloway and Nicole Brossard Le d'sert mauve She finds in the vocabulary and atmosphere of these novels a linking of female protagonists to crime and culpability The guilt however is not clearly imputed or assumed it tends to trouble the conscience of the entire narrative Through critical close readings and an inquiry into the interrelations

among narration transgression and gender McPherson explores how the women in the stories come under suspicion and how they attempt to reverse or rewrite the guilty sentence The author examines the complex process and language of incrimination reflecting on its literary philosophical social and political manifestations in the texts and contexts of the five novels She looks for signs of possible subversion of the incriminating process within the texts Can female protagonists and women writers escape the vicious circling of the story that would incriminate them In the course of this book the stories are made to reveal their strikingly modern and postmodern preoccupations with survival

Lacan and Marx Pierre Bruno, 2019-08-13 Lacan and Marx The Invention of the Symptom provides an incisive commentary on Lacan's reading of Marx mapping the relations between these two vastly influential thinkers Unlike previous books Bruno provides a detailed history of Lacan's reading of Marx and surveys his references to Marx in both his writings and seminars Examining Lacan's key argument that Marx invented the symptom Bruno shows how Lacan went on to criticize Marx and contrasts Marx's concept of surplus value with Lacan's surplus enjoyment Exploring the division between Marxist and psychoanalytic perspectives on social and psychological need and Lacan's formalisation of the capitalist discourse the book compares the positions of Althusser Deleuze and Guattari and links on the relations between Lacan Marx and capitalism using a wide range of cultural examples from Stevenson's Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde to Brecht's Joan Dark and Pierpont Mauler Through these readings Bruno also elaborates an extended commentary on Lacan's central idea of the division of the subject His focus is not only on showing how we can exit from capitalism but also and just as importantly on showing how we can make capitalism exit from us This book will be of great interest to scholars and readers of Lacan and Marx from across the fields of psychoanalysis philosophy and political economy and will also appeal to Lacanian psychoanalysts in clinical practice

Marguerite Duras Leslie Hill, 2002-09-11 Marguerite Duras is France's best known and most controversial contemporary woman writer Duras influence extends from her early novels of the 1950s to her radically innovative experimental autobiographical text of the 1980s The Lover Leslie Hill's book throws new light on Duras relationship to feminism psychoanalysis sexuality literature film politics and the media Feted by Kristeva and Lacan who claimed her as almost his other self Duras is revealed to be a profoundly transgressive thinker and artist It will be a must for all concerned with contemporary writing writing by women recent European cinema film and literature
