A.W. Pink's Studies In The Scriptures - 1922-23, Volume 1 of 17 Arthur W Pink, 2001-09 Four Decades in the Study of Nigerian Languages and Linguistics Ndimele, Ozo-mekuri, 2019-03-31 This volume is produced in commemoration of the official retirement of Professor Kay Williamson from the Department of Linguistics and Communication Studies University of Port Harcourt Nigeria The contributing essayists cover five main generations of Nigerian linguists The collection is divided into six sections Language history and Society Applied Linguistics and Orthography Design Gender and Communication Studies Stylistics and Literature Pragmatics Discourse Analysis and Translation and Formal Linguistics Some of the contributors include Ayo Bamgbose Okon Essie Ben Elugbe P A Nwachukwu E N Emenanjo P Anagbogu Chinyere Ohiri Aniche O M Ndimele O G Harry Levi Igwe C U Omego O Ojukwu A U Weje O N Anyanwu and A Idafuro At Millennium's End Kevin Alexander Boon, 2001-03-22 When I look back at my incredibly lucky career as a writer it seems that there was never time to think It was as though I were skiing down a steep and hazardous mountain slope When I look back at the marks my skis made in the snow on the way down I only now realize that I wrote again and again about people who behaved decently in an indecent society From the Foreword by Kurt Vonnegut At Millennium's End looks back over the body of Kurt Vonnegut's writing examining the novels essays and short stories of one of the century's most beloved and widely read authors and social critics It also looks forward projecting Vonnegut's relevance to the next millennium The essays by noted Vonnegut scholars and personal friends are each written from the perspective of someone familiar with Vonnegut's entire canon Reading Revelation After Supersessionism Ralph J. Korner, 2020-11-11 In this volume Ralph Korner argues that John's extensive social identification with Judaism's Jewishness and Jewish institutions does not reflect a literary program of replacing Israel with the ekklisia churches assemblies that is the Jewish and non Jewish followers of Jesus as Israel's Messiah Rather John is emplacing his Christ followers further within Israel without thereby superseding Israel as a national identity for ethnic Jews who do not follow Jesus as the Christos There are three primary roads travelled in this investigative journey First Korner explores ways in which a Jewish heritage is intrinsic to the literary structure genre eschatology symbolism and theological motifs of the Apocalypse Second he challenges the linear chronology of generally supersessionist dispensational readings of Revelation's visionary content by arguing for a reiterative repetitive structure based on certain literary devices that also provide structure for visions within Jewish apocalypses and Hebrew prophecies Third he incorporates the most recent research on ekklisia usage especially in Asia Minor to assess how John's ekklisia associations might have been non supersessionally perceived especially by Jews in Roman Asia Models of Premillennialism Sung Wook Chung, David L. Mathewson, 2018-08-27 The meaning of the millennium the thousand year reign of Christ spoken of in Revelation 20 has been controversial for much of the church's history and even the main perspectives on the matter turn out to be more variegated than is often realized This book takes the oldest of those options

premillennialism and offers an excellent introduction to a variety of models of premillennialism currently available including classical dispensationalism progressive dispensationalism historic premillennialism thematic premillennialism and historic premillennialism in Asian context The product of collaboration between a systematic theologian and a New Testament scholar this book provides a fascinating reference tool for anyone interested in what Scripture teaches about the last things of redemptive history the Parousia and the millennial kingdom Faith in Reading David Paul Nord,2004-08-19 In the twenty first century mass media corporations are often seen as profit hungry money machines It was a different world in the early days of mass communication in America Faith in Reading tells the remarkable story of the noncommercial religious origins of our modern media culture In the early nineteenth century a few visionary entrepreneurs decided the time was right to reach everyone in America through the medium of print Though they were modern businessmen their publishing enterprises were not commercial businesses but nonprofit societies committed to the publication of traditional religious texts Drawing on organizational reports and archival sources David Paul Nord shows how the managers of Bible and religious tract societies made themselves into large scale manufacturers and distributors of print These organizations believed it was possible to place the same printed message into the hands of every man woman and child in America Employing modern printing technologies and business methods they were remarkably successful churning out millions of Bibles tracts religious books and periodicals They mounted massive campaigns to make books cheap and plentiful by turning them into modern mass produced consumer goods Nord demonstrates how religious publishers learned to work against the flow of ordinary commerce They believed that reading was too important to be left to the market revolution so they turned the market on its head seeking to deliver their product to everyone regardless of ability or even desire to buy Wedding modern technology and national organization to a traditional faith in reading these publishing societies imagined and then invented mass media in America Permissive Residents Diana Glazebrook,2008-09-01 This book offers another frame through which to view the event of the outrigger landing of 43 West Papuans in Australia in 2006 West Papuans have crossed boundaries to seek asylum since 1962 usually eastward into Papua New Guinea PNG and occasionally southward to Australia Between 1984 86 around 11 000 people crossed into PNG seeking asylum After the Government of PNG acceded to the United Nations Convention and Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees West Papuans were relocated from informal camps on the international border to a single inland location called East Awin This volume provides an ethnography of that settlement based on the author s fieldwork carried out in 1998 99 Reading Hebrews and 1 Peter from Majority World Perspectives Sofanit T. Abebe,Elizabeth W. Mburu,Abeneazer G. Urga,2024-09-19 The contributors to this volume offer a bold re reading of Hebrews and 1 Peter from the perspective of the Global South The chapters provide enriching new hermeneutical and theological insights revealing facets of the text that may not at first be apparent to readers within a Eurocentric context The volume is thus able to explore topics ranging from the authorship of Hebrews in the Ethiopian

Orthodox tradition and the Batak reading of Christus Victor to a Xhosa perception of the solidarity and sacrifice of Jesus and intercultural readings of Christian identity in the context of persecution With an introduction and final response by scholars from the Global North this volume encourages awareness of how the Global South contributes to world Christianity

Messianic Beliefs and Imperial Politics in Medieval Islam Hayrettin Yücesoy, 2009 An analysis of the dynamic relationship between apocalyptic prophesies and medieval Muslim politics Messianic Beliefs and Imperial Politics in Medieval Islam analyzes the role of Muslim messianic and apocalyptic beliefs in the development of the Abbasid Caliphate to highlight connections between charismatic authority and institutional developments in the early ninth century Hayrettin Yücesoy studies the relationship between rulers and religion to advance understanding of the era's political actions and more specifically to illustrate how messianic beliefs influenced Abbasid imperial politics and contributed to the reshaping of the caliphate under al Ma'mun 809-33 after a decade long civil war Yücesoy challenges traditional sociological views that marginalize messianic beliefs as oppositional ideologies of disfranchised social classes to be used against the political establishment Instead he finds a mode of symbiosis between messianic beliefs political reform and imperial ambitions put in motion by al Ma'mun's acute understanding of the sociopolitical and ideological context of his time Yücesoy demonstrates how the caliphate absorbed influences from the late antique world and Near Eastern cultures to fashion a prophetic vision that served to undergird al Ma'mun's imperial aspirations A comprehensive portrait of the caliph and his reign emerges from this study as a result By drawing on records of Muslim and non Muslim apocalyptic prophecies circulating among the general public and educated elites alike this study demonstrates the pertinence of messianic beliefs to medieval Muslim politics and illustrates the manner in which the caliph responded and shaped societal concerns on three distinct fronts domestic fiscal and administrative reforms an increase in missionary and military activities and religious reform Yücesoy shows that political usefulness contributed to the longevity of charismatic ideologies by addressing how the Abbasid ruling class adopted such beliefs as a medium to initiate governmental reforms and expand their authority This work adds new layers to ongoing interdisciplinary discourse about the importance of religion in Islamic sociopolitical life both historically and in the contemporary Muslim world The Institute for Islamic Studies, 1917
