1. Family, schools, religious organizations, peers, and media. These factors have affected my beliefs on how I think because my family's views have shaped me as a person, and school has taught me to accept or ignore particular views.

2. The functions of the media are to provide political information, help consumers interpret events and policies and influence the national policy agenda, to provide a forum for political conversations, and socialize children in the political sphere. Media influences political agenda by framing and priming.

1. Their restriction is ballot access and public funding. It is called winner takes because whoever wins takes over the entire district.

2. Direct lobbying tactics: public relations, access to government officials, and information

Indirect lobbying tactics: grassroots mobilization, coalition building

What makes it indirect is usually in private. Meanwhile, direct is in public.

1. The electoral college's role is to help determine who the next president will be by whoever reaches 270 first. Yes, it should be abolished because it should be based on the popular vote because the people with the most votes are clearly the clear party.

2. People do not vote because they are politically turned off; they can't register, and the failure of parties, rational calculation, and being satisfied with the current political system. I have not encountered any of these problems.
