Reading Emptiness:

Reading Emptiness Jeff Humphries, 1999-08-12 Concludes that the closest thing in Western culture to the Middle Way of Buddhism is not any sort of theory or philosophy but the practice of literature Body Fascism Brian Pronger, 2002-01-01 Brian Pronger argues that a technological approach to fitness transforms more than the body's functions and contours it diminishes its transcendent power compelling it conform to a profoundly limited imagination of what the body can do

The Heart Sutra Explained Donald S. Lopez, 1988-01-01 Renowned for its terse declaration of the perfection of wisdom the Heart Sutra is the most famous of Buddhist scriptures The author draws on previously unexamined commentaries preserved only in Tibetan to investigate the meanings derived from and invested into the sutra during the later period of Indian Buddhism The Heart Sutra Explained offers new insights on form is emptiness emptiness is form on the mantra gate gate paragate parasamgate bodhi svaha and on the synthesis of Madhyamika Yogacara and tantric thought that characterized the final period of Buddhism in India It also includes complete translations of two nineteenth century Tibetan commentaries demonstrating the selective appropriation of Indian sources The Rhythm of Space and the Sound of Time Cynthia Ashperger, 2008 The Rhythm of Space and the Sound of Time examines the place of Chekhov's Technique in contemporary acting pedagogy and practice Cynthia Ashperger answers the questions What are the reasons behind the technique's current resurgence How has this cohesive and holistic training been brought into today's mainstream acting training What separates this technique from the other currently popular methods Ashperger offers an analysis of the complex philosophical influences that shaped Chekhov's ideas about this psycho physical approach to acting Chekhov's five guiding principles are introduced to demonstrate how eastern ideas and practices have been integrated into this western technique and how they have continued to develop on both theoretical and practical levels in contemporary pedagogy thereby rendering it intercultural The volume also focuses on the work of several contemporary teachers of the technique associated with Michael Chekhov International Association MICHA Current teacher training is described as well as the different modes of hybridization of Chekhov's technique with other current methods Contemporary practical experiments and some fifty exercises at both beginner and intermediate advanced levels are presented through analysis examples student journals and case studies delineating the sequences in which units are taught and specifying the exercises that differ from those in Chekhov's original writing This book is for practitioners as well as students of the theatre Locating and Losing the Self in the World Masato Ishida, Laura Specker Sullivan, 2014-10-16 Comparative philosophy brings into focus relationships found across philosophies of disparate cultures In the contemporary globalizing world this perspective is vital it ensures that diverse voices have the opportunity to be heard and refines the understanding of the many varieties of philosophical thought Philosophy departments around the world are beginning to see the import of this broader perspective Recent years have seen tremendous growth in the areas of Chinese Japanese Indian Islamic African Latin American and indigenous philosophies

Every year graduate students from around the world gather at the University of Hawai i at M noa the defining center of this comparative movement in order to attend the Uehiro Graduate Student Philosophy Conference These students bring a range of philosophical interests that converge to a definite theme over the course of the conference At the 2012 meeting this theme revolved around human beings recognition of themselves as selves the discovery of the nature of these selves and their relation to the world at large These issues are comparative in the best sense of the word drawing on the interests of canonical Western philosophy as well as reflecting the fundamental concerns of non Western philosophies The three sections of this volume capture the stages of thought moving from self awareness to self transcendence and leading to the general theme of the volume locating and losing the self in the world The papers in this volume represent diverse philosophical viewpoints from canonical Western figures such as Immanuel Kant and Simone de Beauvoir to those of non Western philosophers who have been gaining interest in the English speaking world such as N g rjuna and Nishida Kitar By gaining familiarity with these figures perspectives readers will become better able to distinguish and think through issues including linguistic and phenomenological understanding of the self the self s full engagement with the world and the world s reciprocal determination of the self

Spiritual Reading Harvey Angela Lou, 2016-11-24 Spiritual Reading explores how God the Bible and the practices of reading are all connected Angela Lou Harvey investigates how the spiritual reading of the Bible takes place in our modern literate Western culture In this context a spiritual reading of the Bible is one that aims to know and love God through individual Bible reading Spiritual Reading discusses what it means to read the Bible well and looks at the role of the church as giving us guidance for reading it in this way Harvey considers these ideas vis a vis historically orientated biblical scholarship as well as reading the Bible as a classic work of Western literature With reference to the use of literature through a Christian framework in the works of C S Lewis and Alan Jacobs Harvey analyses the significance the Bible has had in shaping other literary works Drawing upon insights of theologians such as Karl Barth Henri de Lubac and Ellen F Davis Spiritual Reading suggests that a renewed understanding of faith is needed for the spiritual reading of Scripture Spiritual Reading is for the reader who wishes to gain a deeper understanding on how Scripture can better connect an individual to God

The Middle Way Dalai Lama, 2009-08-10 The Dalai Lama opens The Middle Way with an elegant argument for the power of compassion in cultivating a happy life From there he connects core ideas of Buddhist philosophy to the truths of our shared condition His Holiness delivers a sparkingly clear teaching on how the Buddhist ideas of emptiness and interdependency relate to personal experience and bring a deeper understanding of the world around us In down to earth style this book sets forth a comprehensive explanation of the foundational teachings of the Mahayana tradition based on the works of two of Buddhism s most revered figures Using Nagarjuna s Middle Way the Dalai Lama explores Buddhist understandings of selflessness dependent origination and the causal processes that lock us in cycles of suffering He grounds these heady philosophical discussions using Tsongkhapa s Three Principal Aspects of the Path presenting a brief explanation of how to put ethical discipline wisdom and compassion into practice Through these beautifully complementary teachings His Holiness urges us to strive with an objective mind endowed with a curious skepticism to engage in careful analysis and seek the reasons behind our beliefs
