Sala Kahle District Six An African Womens Perspective:

Sala Kahle, District Six Nomvuyo Ngcelwane, 1998 Nomvuyo Ngcelwane's autobiography is also a description of African family life in the heart of district six a mixed community situated one mile from the heart of the affluent white Cape Town. Under apartheid law it was sadly demolished. Heritage Formation and the Senses in Post-Apartheid South Africa Duane Jethro, 2020-05-11 In this book Duane Jethro creates a framework for understanding the role of the senses in processes of heritage formation. He shows how the senses were important for crafting and successfully deploying new nation building heritage projects in South Africa during the postapartheid period. The book also highlights how heritage dynamics are entangled in evocative changing sensory worlds. Jethro uses five case studies that correlate with the five main Western senses. Examples include touch and the ruination of a series of art memorials how vision was mobilised to assert the authority of the state sponsored Freedom Park project in Pretoria how smell memories of apartheid era social life in Cape Town informed contemporary struggles for belonging after forced removal how taste informed debates about the attempted rebranding of Heritage Day as barbecue day and how the sound of the vuvuzela popularized during the FIFA 2010 Football World Cup helped legitimize its unofficial African and South African heritage status. This book makes a valuable contribution to the field of sensory studies and with its focus on aesthetics and material culture is in sync with the broader material turn in the humanities. District Six Huis Kombuis Tina Smith, 2016-11-01 The District Six Huis Kombuis Food Memory Cookbook commemorates the rich fusion of food and cultural heritage in District Six through personal stories recipes historical images and craft work. The book is a culmination of memories and narrative. It weaves through the days of a typical week in District Six focusing on traditional family recipes that were prepared with love and often limited resources. This is a visual celebration of the vibrancy and warmth of the community who foraged preserved baked and cooked together. Portraits of 23 former District Six residents accompany recollections of lives lived in a significant time. Artifacts food and anecdotes bring the spirit of District Six alive again. Lost Communities, Living Memories Sean Field, 2001 Between 1913 and 1989 some four million South Africans were forcibly removed from their homes to enforce residential segregation along racial lines. This study records and interprets the memories of some of the Capetonians who were relocated as a result of the infamous Group Areas Act. Former residents of Windermere Tramway Road in Sea Point District Six Lower Claremont and Simon's Town narrate their experiences. Oral History and Public Memories Paula Hamilton, Linda Shopes, 2009-08-21 Understanding how individual perspectives on history build collective memory. Language in Cape Town's District Six Kay McCormick, 2002 The book is a sociolinguistic case study of District Six an inner city neighbourhood in Cape Town characterized by language mixing and switching of English and Afrikaans. Its early inhabitants included indigenous people freed slaves of African and Asian origin and immigrants from Europe and elsewhere. The ravages of apartheid affected the residents attitudes towards their languages in various ways which are described. The book examines the norms and practices regarding language choice for various functions and domains in the only surviving sector of District Six It also contains detailed analyses of extended bilingual conversations showing a range of social linguistic and discourse features Of particular interest is the paradoxical polarization and blending of the two languages They are strongly polarized symbolically and functionally yet they are also habitually blended in vernacular speech through lexical borrowing and intrasentential language switching This paradox has interesting implications for the construction of individual community and language identity South Africa and the Dream of Love to Come Brenna M. Munro, 2012 Uncovers the story of how the politics of queer sexuality have played out in the struggle for multiracial democracy in South Africa History after Apartheid Annie E. Coombes, 2003-11-24 How should post apartheid South Africa present its history in museums monuments and parks Burdened by Race Mohamed Adhikari, 2009 Understanding the process and culture of self identification The Routledge Handbook of Memory and Place Sarah De Nardi, Hilary Orange, Steven High, Eerika Koskinen-Koivisto, 2019-08-20 This Handbook explores the latest cross disciplinary research on the inter relationship between memory studies place and identity In the works of dynamic memory there is room for multiple stories versions of the past and place understandings and often resistance to mainstream narratives Places may live on long after their physical destruction This collection provides insights into the significant and diverse role memory plays in our understanding of the world around us in a variety of spaces and temporalities and through a variety of disciplinary and professional lenses Many of the chapters in this Handbook explore place making its significance in everyday lives and its loss Processes of displacement where people's place attachments are violently torn asunder are also considered Ranging from oral history to forensic anthropology from folklore studies to cultural geographies and beyond the chapters in this Handbook reveal multiple and often unexpected facets of the fascinating relationship between place and memory from the individual to the collective This is a multi and intra disciplinary collection of the latest most influential approaches to the interwoven and dynamic issues of place and memory It will be of great use to researchers and academics working across Geography Tourism Heritage Anthropology Memory Studies and Archaeology Kronos, 2000 Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors, 2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources A Passion for Cultural Studies Ben Highmore, 2017-09-16 The culture that infiltrates our lives can provoke a range of feelings and afflictions culture can move you get under your skin and stir up your emotions Ben Highmore uses these feelings or passions to explore the culture that surrounds us and uses it as a basis to introduce and explain the key ideas debates and theories that are central to cultural studies Impressively accessible and packed with absorbing examples from everyday life this compact book is the ideal entry point into cultural studies The chapters examine problematic and complex issues that are core to cultural studies looking at the experience of migration the nature of the media the lure of commodities the world of taste and the culture of love Cleverly written in a way that is easy to follow and enjoyable to read the text gives a sense of the discipline as a way of thinking rather than an amalgamation of theories and whets the appetite of all those interested in cultural studies Whether you're a student who's new to the field or a seasoned scholar seeking a fresh idea about what cultural studies can do this clear and concise text encourages you to become truly passionate about cultural studies Like Family Ena Jansen, 2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Esia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award-winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie Narratives of Nation Media, Memory and Representation in the Making of the New South Africa Charmaine McEachern, 2002 Narratives of Nation Media Memory Representation in the Making of the New South Africa Transnational Memory Chiara De Cesari, Ann Rigney, 2014-10-29 How do memories circulate transnationally and to what effect How to understand the enduring role of national memories and their simultaneous reconfiguration under globalization Challenging the methodological nationalism that has until recently dominated the study of memory and heritage this book charts the rich production of memory across and beyond national borders Arguing for the fruitfulness of a transnational as distinct from a global approach it places the issues of circulation articulation and the scales of remembrance at the centre of its inquiry In the process it sheds new light on the ways in which mediation post-coloniality migration and regional integration affect both the way we remember and the role of memory in contemporary societies In this interdisciplinary collection humanities and social science scholars examine a rich sample of cases from the nineteenth century on stretching across the globe from Vietnam to Europe and the Middle East to the USA and the Pacific and involving a wide range of cultural practices from quilting to films from photography to heritage sites and monuments In the process the volume develops a new theoretical framework while proposing new methodological tools and resources for studying collective remembrance beyond the nation state Tapestry of Memory Nanci Adler, 2017-07-28 In this volume contributors present narratives and explore the way they influence the perception of the past While acknowledging the debate about the validity of qualitative research based on narratives this volume aims to illuminate how truth and evidence form part of a much wider debate on the representation of history The volume includes the work of historians but the interdisciplinary nature of the contributions shows that the validity debate also applies to the broader fields of cultural studies sociology and other social sciences The distinction between memory and testimony is a crucial theme Memory though selective is the basis of testimony Testimony provides an audience with information that becomes evidence of what was seen or experienced Such evidence can form the basis of legal truth Nanci Adler and Selma Leydesdorff divide the volume into three core sections Official Testimony and Other Facts and Evidence The Creation of New History and the Integration of Collective Memory in the Story of One's Self and Claims Based on Narratives vs Official History After a comprehensive introduction by the editors the volume offers twelve essays by leading scholars This work is a new offering in Transaction's acclaimed Memory and Narrative series

The Cambridge History of South African Literature David Attwell, Derek Attridge, 2012-01-12 South Africa's unique history has produced literatures in many languages in both oral and written forms reflecting the diversity in the cultural histories and experiences of its people The Cambridge History offers a comprehensive multi-authored history of South African literature in all eleven official languages and more minor ones of the country produced by a team of over forty international experts including contributors from all of the major regions and language groups of South Africa It will provide a complete portrait of South Africa's literary production organised as a chronological history from the oral traditions existing before colonial settlement to the post-apartheid revision of the past In a field marked by controversy this volume is more fully representative than any existing account of South Africa's literary history It will make a unique contribution to Commonwealth international and postcolonial studies and serve as a definitive reference work for decades to come

A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre-colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka's Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post-colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood's study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world

Place Matters Jonathan Bordo, Blake Fitzpatrick, 2022-12-15 A place comes into existence through the depth of relationships that underwrite a physical location with layers of sedimented names In Place Matters scholars and artists conduct varied forms of place-based inquiry to demonstrate why place matters Lavishly illustrated the volume brings into conversation photographic projects and essays that revitalize the study of landscape Contributors engage the study of place through an approach that Jonathan Bordo and Blake Fitzpatrick call critical topography the way that we understand critical thought to range over a place or how thought and symbolic forms invent place through text and image as if initiated by an X marking the spot Critical topography's tasks are to mediate and to diminish the gap between representation and referent to be both in the world and about the world to ask what place is this what are its names where am I how and with what responsibilities may I be here Chapters map the deep cultural environmental and political histories of singular places interrogating the charged relation between history place and power and identifying the territorial imperatives of place making in such sites as Colonus Mont Sainte Victoire Chomolungma Everest Hiroshima Fort Qu Appelle Donetsk airport and the island of Lesbos With contributions from the renowned artists Hamish Fulton and Edward Burtynsky the Swedish poet Jesper Svenbro and others the collection examines profound shifts in place based thinking as it relates to the history of art the anthropocene and nuclear ruin borders and global migration residential schools the pandemic and sites of refuge In his prologue W J T Mitchell writes Places like feasts are moveable They can be erased and forgotten lost in space or maintained and rebuilt Both their appearance and disappearance their making and unmaking are the work of critical topography Global in scope Canadian in spirit and grounded in singular sites Place Matters presents critical topography as an approach to analyze interpret and reflect on place
