Literature ,1899

Literature Henry Duff Traill, John Kendrick Bangs, 1899

Rebel Women Jane Eldridge

Miller, 1997-03-15 With the rise of women's suffrage challenges to marriage and divorce laws and expanding opportunities for education and employment for women the early years of the twentieth century were a time of social revolution Examining British novels written in 1890-1914 Jane Eldridge Miller demonstrates how these social legal and economic changes rendered the traditional narratives of romantic desire and marital closure inadequate forcing Edwardian novelists to counter the limitations and ideological implications of those narratives with innovative strategies The original and provocative novels that resulted depict the experiences of modern women with unprecedented variety specificity and frankness Rebel Women is a major re-evaluation of Edwardian fiction and a significant contribution to literary history and criticism Miller's is the best account we have not only of Edwardian women novelists but of early 20th century women novelists the measure of her achievement is that the distinction no longer seems workable David Trotter The London Review of Books

Outspoken Women Lesley A. Hall, 2014-05-01 Studying a broader period than its contemporaries this comprehensive study reveals a neglected tradition of British women's writing from the Victorian era to the sexual revolution of the 1960s Outspoken Women brings together the many and varied non-fictional writings of British women on sexual attitudes and behaviour beginning nearly a hundred years prior to the second wave of feminism Commentators cover a broad range of perspectives and include Darwinists sexologists and campaigners against the spread of VD as well as women writing about their own lives and experiences Covering all aspects of the debate from marriage female desire and pleasure to lesbianism prostitution STDs and sexual ignorance Lesley A Hall studies how the works of this era didn't just criticise male defined mores and the dark side of sex but how they increasingly promoted the possibility of a brighter view and an informed understanding of the sexual life Hall's remarkable anthology is an engaging examination of this fascinating subject and it provides students and scholars with an invaluable source of primary material

Inventing Herself Elaine Showalter, 2001-03-20 Sure to take its place alongside the literary landmarks of modern feminism Elaine Showalter's brilliant provocative work chronicles the roles of feminist intellectuals from the eighteenth century to the present With sources as diverse as A Vindication of the Rights of Woman and Scream 2 Inventing Herself is an expansive and timely exploration of women who possess a boundless determination to alter the world by boldly experiencing love achievement and fame on a grand scale These women tried to work travel think love and even die in ways that were ahead of their time In doing so they forged an epic history that each generation of adventurous women has rediscovered Focusing on paradigmatic figures ranging from Mary Wollstonecraft and Margaret Fuller to Germaine Greer and Susan Sontag preeminent scholar Elaine Showalter uncovers common themes and patterns of these women's lives across the centuries and discovers the feminist intellectual tradition they embodied The author brilliantly illuminates the contributions of Eleanor Marx Zora Neale Hurston Simone de Beauvoir Margaret Mead and many more

Showalter a highly regarded critic known for her provocative and strongly held opinions has here established a compelling new Who's Who of women's thought Certain to spark controversy the omission of such feminist perennials as Susan B Anthony Eleanor Roosevelt and Virginia Woolf will surprise and shock the conventional wisdom This is not a history of perfect women but rather of real women whose mistakes and even tragedies are instructive and inspiring for women today who are still trying to invent themselves

Office of Policy and Research, 1977 Maternal Modernism Elizabeth Podnieks, 2022-12-01 Drawing on the figure and discourses of the Victorian fin de siècle New Woman this book examines women writers who struggled with conservative patriarchal ideologies of motherhood in novels periodicals and life writings of the long modernist period It shows how these writers challenged resisted adapted and negotiated traditional ideas with their own versions of new motherhood with needs for identities and experiences beyond maternity Tracing the period from the end of the nineteenth century through the twentieth this study explores how some of the numerous elements and forces we identify with modernism are manifested in equally diverse and often competing representations of mothers mothering and motherhood It investigates how historical personages and fictional protagonists used and were constructed within textual spaces where they engaged critically with the maternal as institution identity and practice from perspectives informed by gender sexuality nationhood race and class The matrifocal literatures examined in this book exemplify how feminist motherhoods feature as a prominent thematic of the long modernist era and how rebellious New Woman mothers provocatively wrote maternity into text and history

The Michigan Alumnus, 1960 In v 1 8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1914 Nineteenth Century Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1890-1899 Helen Grant Cushing, Adah Vivian Morris, 1944 Catalogue of Books in the Lending Department in Classes "E" Fiction and "F" Juvenile Chiswick (England). Public Library, 1907 Extending Themselves A. Graham Tipple, 2000-01-01 Many countries have large stocks of government built housing which for various reasons are in poor physical conditions and or do not conform to the expectations of occupants The occupants of such housing frequently make unauthorized but quite considerable changes and extensions transformations to their dwellings This book examines user initiated transformations to government built housing in Bangladesh Egypt Ghana and Zimbabwe surveyed in a research program sponsored by the UK Department for International Development The 1600 dwellings surveyed show how relatively low income households are capable of supplying new rooms and services both to improve their own housing conditions and to supply rental rooms or accommodation for family members living rent free The new construction is often of at least as good quality as the original structures and sometime envelopes the original in a new skin It is clear that transformation adds accommodation and services to existing housing upgrades the housing stock and creates variety out of uniformity The study leads to policy suggestions to encourage transformations for the renewal of government housing These include the provision of loan finance the encouragement of co operation between neighbors especially in multi storey housing and the planned colonization of open space next to the dwellings where plots are not provided For new housing it is clear that designs for new areas are only the beginning of an on going development process rather than a blueprint for once for all development The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low,1901 Volumes for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers

Feminism in America William L. O'Neill,2017-07-12 William L O Neill s lively history of American women s struggle for equality is written with style and a keen sense for the variety of possible interpretations of 150 years of the feminist movement from its earliest stirring in the 1830 s to the latest developments in the 1980s O Neill s most controversial thesis is that the feminist movements of the past have largely failed and for reasons that remains of deep concern the movements have never come to grips with the fact that marriage and the family are the chief obstacles to women s emancipation O Neill also holds that the sexual revolution of the 1920s far from liberating women actually undermined their role in American life O Neill treats seriously the ideas of the great feminist leaders and their organizations His was the first book to deal directly with the failure of feminism as a social force in American society to tie together the scattered people and events in the history of American women and to examine seriously feminist experience in the twentieth century Since the women s agenda is hardly complete the women s movement remains active often militantly so In this new revised edition O Neill interprets and illumines not only the history of feminism but aspects of feminism that still trouble us today O Neill s book was widely heralded upon its initial publication Elizabeth Janeway writing for Saturday Review calls it a truly intelligent discussion an extraordinary perceptive analysis Carl Degler in the Magazine of History calls A History of American Feminism the most challenging and exciting book on the subject of women to appear in years And Lionel Tiger writing for the NewRepublic says that O Neill has turned his mastery of a wide range of historical sources into a lively engaging and almost faultlessly sensible book International bibliography of research in marriage and the family Joan Aldous,1967

Migration and Marriage in Asian Contexts Zheng Mu,Wei-Jun Jean Yeung,2021-11-29 This book analyses how Asian migrants adapt and assimilate into their host societies and how this assimilation differs across their sociodemographic backgrounds ethnic profiles and political contexts The diversities in Asian migrants assimilation trajectories challenge the assumption that given time migrants will eventually integrate holistically into their host societies This book captures the diverse patterns and trajectories of assimilation by going beyond marriage migration to look at how family formation processes are shaped by migration driven by reasons other than marriage Using quantitative qualitative and mixed method analyses not only does this book uncover the nuances of the link between marriage and migration but it also widens methodological repertoires in research on marriage and migration It also captures various social outcomes that may have been influenced by migration including migrants economic well being cultural assimilation subjective well being and gender inequality vis vis marriages This book further embeds the studies in the Asian contexts by drawing on individual countries unique policies relevant to cross cultural marriages the persistent impacts of extended families the patriarchal traditions and systems of religion and caste The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies
