Jeannie L. Johnson,2018-05-01 The United States Marine Corps has a unique culture that ensures comradery exacting standards and readiness to be the first to every fight Yet even in a group that is known for innovation culture can push leaders to fall back on ingrained preferences Jeannie L Johnson takes a sympathetic but critical look at the Marine Corps's long experience with counterinsurgency warfare Which counterinsurgency lessons have been learned and retained for next time and which have been abandoned to history is a story of battlefield trial and error but also a story of cultural collisions The book begins with a fascinating and penetrating look inside the culture of the Marine Corps through research in primary sources including Marine oral histories and interviews with Marines Johnson explores what makes this branch of the military distinct their identity norms values and perceptual lens She then traces the history of the Marines counterinsurgency experience from the expeditionary missions of the early twentieth century through the Vietnam War and finally to the Iraq War Her findings break new ground in strategic culture by introducing a methodology that was pioneered in the intelligence community to forecast behavior Johnson shows that even a service as self aware and dedicated to innovation as the Marine Corps is constrained in the lessons learned process by its own internal predispositions by the wider US military culture and by national preferences Her findings challenge the conclusions of previous counterinsurgency scholarship that ignores culture This highly readable book reminds us of Sun Tzu's wisdom that to be successful in war it is important to know thyself as well as the enemy This is a must read for anyone interested in the Marines Corps counterinsurgency warfare military innovation or strategic culture     Worldmakers Gardner Dozois,2011-04-01 When mankind moves out to the stars the colonists of the future will remake the worlds they inhabit in their image Included here are twenty stories from the most imaginative writers in the field Poul Anderson Cordwainer Smith Arthur C Clarke Richard McKenna Roger Zelazny John Varley Gregory Benford Ian McDonald Bruce Sterling Charles Sheffield Robert Reed G David Nordley Joe Haldeman Phillip C Jennings Geoffrey A Landis Stephen Baxter William H Keith Jr Kim Stanley Robinson Pamela Sargent Laura J Mixon These are the stories of the explorers and pioneers who transform their destinations in the image of their distant home exciting tales of alien landscapes and the struggle to make them suit human desires     Islandica ,1908     Galactic Corps Ian Douglas,2009-10-06 War is forever The people on Earth no longer remember how the human race was nearly obliterated
