policymakers Transnational Aging Vincent Horn,Cornelia Schweppe,2015-09-16 This book focuses on the diverse interrelationships between aging and transnationality It argues that the lives of older people are increasingly entangled in transnational contexts on the social as well as the cultural economic and political levels Within these contexts older people both actively contribute to and are affected by border crossing processes In addition while some may voluntarily opt for adding a transnational dimension to their lives others may have less choice in the matter Transnational aging therefore provides a critical lens on how older people shape organize and cope with life in contexts that are no longer bound to the frame of a single nation state Accordingly the book emphasizes the agency of older people as well as the personal and structural constraints of their situations The chapters in this book reveal these aspects by approaching transnational aging from different methodological angles such as ethnographic research comparative studies quantitative data and policy and discourse analysis Geographically the chapters cover a wide range of countries in Africa Asia Europe North and South America such as Namibia Thailand Russia Germany the United States and Ecuador The Cambridge Handbook of Age and Ageing Malcolm L. Johnson,Vern L. Bengtson,Peter G. Coleman,Thomas B. L. Kirkwood,2005-12-01 The Cambridge Handbook of Age and Ageing first published in 2005 is a guide to the body of knowledge theory policy and practice relevant to age researchers and gerontologists around the world It contains almost 80 original chapters commissioned and written by the world's leading gerontologists from 16 countries and 5 continents The broad focus of the book is on the behavioural and social sciences but it also includes important contributions from the biological and medical sciences It provides comprehensive accessible and authoritative accounts of all the key topics in the field ranging from theories of ageing to demography physical aspects of ageing mental processes and ageing nursing and health care for older people the social context of ageing cross cultural perspectives relationships quality of life gender and financial and policy provision This handbook will be a must have resource for all researchers students and professionals with an interest in age and ageing

Lobbying the European Union David Coen, Jeremy Richardson, 2009-06-04 It is universally accepted that there has been a huge growth in EU lobbying over the past few decades There is now a dense EU interest group system This entirely new volume inspired by Mazey Richardson's 1993 book Lobbying in the European Community seeks to understand the role of interest groups in the policy process from agenda setting to implementation Specifically the book is interested in observing how interest groups organise to influence the EU institutions and how they select different coalitions along the policy process and in different policy domains In looking at 20 years of change the book captures processes of institutional and actor learning professionalisation of lobbying and the possible emergence of a distinct EU public policy style More specifically from the actors perspective the editors are interested in assessing how the rise of direct lobbying and the emergence of fluid issue based coalitions has changed the logic of collective action and what is the potential impact of venue shopping on reputation and influence From an institutional perspective the contributors explore resource and legitimacy demands and the practical impact of consultation processes on the emergence of a distinct EU lobbying relationship It will be essential reading for academics and practitioners alike

Handbook of Migration and Health Felicity Thomas, 2016-12-30 Migration is now firmly embedded as a leading global policy issue of the twenty first century Whilst not a new phenomenon it has altered significantly in recent decades with changing demographics geopolitics conflict climate change and patterns of global development shaping new types of migration Against this evolving backdrop this Handbook offers an authoritative overview of key debates underpinning migration and health in a contemporary global context

The EU Charter of Fundamental Rights Steve Peers, Tamara

Hervey, Jeff Kenner, Angela Ward, 2021-11-18 this most thorough commentary must be regarded as the Bible on the Charter Peter Oliver Common Market Law Review This second edition of the first commentary of the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights in English written by experts from several EU Member States provides an authoritative but succinct statement of how the Charter impacts upon EU domestic and international law Following the conventional article by article approach each commentator offers an expert view of how each article is either already being interpreted in the courts or is likely to be interpreted Each commentary is referenced to the case law and is augmented with extensive references to further reading This is a much welcomed new edition of the authoritative guide to the Charter Ageing, Gender, and Labour Migration Aija Lulle, Russell King, 2016-08-29 This book explores how the real conditions and subjective conceptions of ageing and well being are transformed when people move from one country to another Focusing on ageing female migrants from Latvia in the UK and other European countries this book is based on fifty life history interviews with women aged 40s 60s Empirical chapters concentrate on functional well being in migration which includes access to the economic citizenship of work income pensions and accommodation and on psychosocial well being and explores Latvian women s experiences of intimate citizenship in migration In addition the authors research challenges the trope of vulnerability which generally surrounds the framing of older migrants lives The study s findings offer policy makers insights into the realities of ageing working migrants and advocates for a more inclusive transnational citizenship better working conditions and ongoing care arrangements for older migrants post retirement either abroad or back home Gendering European Integration Theory Gabriele Abels, Heather MacRae, 2016-05-23 The authors engage a dialogue between European integration theories and gender studies The contributions illustrate where and how gender scholarship has made creative use of integration theories and thus contributes to a vivid theoretical debate The chapters are designed to make gender scholarship more visible to integration theory and in this way stimulates the broader theoretical debates Investigating the whole range of integration theory with a gender lens the authors illustrate if and how gender scholarship has made or can make creative use of integration theories Creating European Citizens Willem Maas, 2007-02-03 Exploring a key aspect of European integration this clear and thoughtful book considers the remarkable experiment with common rights and citizenship in the EU Governments around the world traditionally distinguish insiders citizens from outsiders foreigners Yet over the past half century an extensive set of supranational rights has been created in Europe that removes member governments authority to privilege their own citizens a hallmark of sovereignty The culmination of supranational rights European citizenship not only provides individuals with choices about where to live and work but also forces governments to respect those choices Explaining this innovation why states cede their sovereignty and eradicate or redefine the boundaries of the political community by including foreigners Willem Maas analyzes the development of European citizenship within the larger context of the evolution of rights Imagining more than simply a free trade market the goal of building a broader and deeper community among peoples with a destiny henceforward shared creating European citizens has informed European integration since its origins The author argues that its success or failure will not only determine the future of Europe but will also provide lessons for political integration elsewhere
