Ritual Medical Lore of Sephardic Women Isaac Jack Lévy, Rosemary Lévy Zumwalt, 2002 Winner of the Elli Kongas Maranda Prize from the Women's Section of the American Folklore Society 2003 Ritual Medical Lore of Sephardic Women preserves the precious remnants of a rich culture on the verge of extinction while affirming women's pivotal role in the health of their communities Centered around extensive interviews with elders of the Sephardic communities of the former Ottoman Empire this volume illuminates a fascinating complex of preventive and curative rituals conducted by women at home rituals that ensured the physical and spiritual well being of the community and functioned as a vital counterpart to the public rites conducted by men in the synagogues Isaac Jack Levy and Rosemary Levy Zumwalt take us into the homes and families of Sephardim in Turkey Israel Greece the former Yugoslavia and the United States to unravel the ancient practices of domestic healing the network of blessings and curses tailored to every occasion of daily life the beliefs and customs surrounding mal ojo evil eye espanto fright and echizo witchcraft and cures involving everything from herbs oil and sugar to the powerful mumia mummy made from dried bones of corpses For the Sephardim curing an illness required discovering its spiritual cause which might be unintentional thought or speech accident or magical incantation The healing rituals of domesticated medicine provided a way of making sense of illness and a way of shaping behavior to fit the narrow constraints of a tightly structured community Tapping a rich and irreplaceable vein of oral testimony Ritual Medical Lore of Sephardic Women offers fascinating insight into a culture where profound spirituality permeated every aspect of daily life The Jews of the Middle East and North Africa in Modern Times Reeva Spector Simon, Michael Menachem Laskier, Sara Reguer, 2003-04-30 Despite considerable research on the Jewish diaspora in the Middle East and North Africa since 1800 there has until now been no comprehensive synthesis that illuminates both the differences and commonalities in Jewish experience across a range of countries and cultures This lacuna in both Jewish and Middle Eastern studies is due partly to the fact that in general histories of the region Jews have been omitted from the standard narrative As part of the religious and ethnic mosaic that was traditional Islamic society Jews were but one among numerous minorities and so have lacked a systematic treatment Addressing this important oversight this volume documents the variety and diversity of Jewish life in the region over the last two hundred years It explains the changes that affected the communities under Islamic rule during its golden age and describes the processes of modernization that enabled the Jews to play a pivotal role in their respective countries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The first half of the book is thematic covering topics ranging from languages to economic life and from religion and music to the world of women The second half is a country by country survey that covers Turkey Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine Iraq Iran Afghanistan Yemen Egypt the Sudan Libya Tunisia Algeria and Morocco Streets of Memory Amy Mills, 2010 Esra Ozyllrek author of Nostalgia for the Modern State Specularism and Everyday Politics in Turkey The Cambridge History of Judaism: Volume 5, Jews in the Medieval Islamic World Phillip I. Lieberman, 2021-09-02 Volume 5 examines the history of Judaism in the Islamic World from the rise of Islam in the early sixth century to the expulsion of Jews from Spain at the end of the fifteenth This period witnessed radical transformations both within the Jewish community itself and in the broader contexts in which the Jews found themselves The rise of Islam had a decisive influence on Jews and Judaism as the conditions of daily life and elite culture shifted throughout the Islamic world Islamic conquest and expansion affected the shape of the Jewish community as the center of gravity shifted west to the North African communities and long distance trading opportunities led to the establishment of trading diasporas and flourishing communities as far east as India By the end of our period many of the communities on the other side of the Mediterranean had come into their own while many of the Jewish communities in the Islamic world had retreated from their high water mark     A Jewish Voice from Ottoman Salonica Aron Rodrigue, Sarah Abrevaya Stein, 2012-01-11 This book presents for the first time the complete text of the earliest known Ladino language memoir transliterated from the original script translated into English and introduced and explicated by the editors The memoirist Saadi Besalel a Levi 1820 1903 wrote about Ottoman Jews daily life at a time when the finely wrought fabric of Ottoman society was just beginning to unravel His vivid portrayal of life in Salonica a major port in the Ottoman Levant with a majority Jewish population thus provides a unique window into a way of life before it disappeared as a result of profound political and social changes and the World Wars Saadi was a prominent journalist and publisher one of the most significant creators of modern Sephardic print culture He was also a rebel who accused the Jewish leadership of Salonica of being corrupt abusive and fanatical that leadership in turn excommunicated him from the Jewish community The experience of excommunication pervades Saadi's memoir which documents a world that its author was himself actively involved in changing     But There Was Love Michal Govrin, Dana Freibach-Heifetz, Etty Ben-Zaken, Raya Morag, 2025-04-21 But There Was Love Shaping the Memory of the Shoah proposes a new paradigm for Shoah remembrance in today's cultural and political reality It derives from the four year workings of a group of researchers and artists at The Van Leer Jerusalem Institute led by Michal Govrin The group positions the extraordinary Jewish and non Jewish human struggle in facing dehumanization and extermination as the essence of the Shoah challenging us with a profound ethical call     *Arab Dress. Boustan, Oren Kosansky, Marina Rustow, 2011-01-24 Over the past several decades the field of Jewish studies has expanded to encompass an unprecedented range of research topics historical periods geographic regions and analytical approaches Yet there have been few systematic efforts to trace these developments to consider their implications and to generate new concepts appropriate to a more inclusive view of Jewish culture and society Jewish Studies at the Crossroads of Anthropology and History brings together scholars in anthropology history religious studies comparative literature and other fields to chart new directions in Jewish studies across the disciplines This groundbreaking volume explores forms of Jewish experience that span the period from antiquity to the present and encompass a wide range of textual ritual spatial and visual materials The essays give full consideration to non written expressions of ritual performance artistic production spoken narrative and social experience through which Jewish life emerges More than simply contributing to an appreciation of Jewish diversity the contributors devote their attention to three key concepts authority diaspora and tradition that have long been central to the study of Jews and Judaism Moving beyond inherited approaches and conventional academic boundaries the volume reconsiders these core concepts reorienting our understanding of the dynamic relationships between text and practice and continuity and change in Jewish contexts More broadly this volume furthers conversation across the disciplines by using Judaic studies to provoke inquiry into theoretical problems in a range of other areas
