September Valentine:

A Bluestocking in Charleston Louise Anderson Allen, 2001 In early 20th century Charleston Laura Bragg was called a woman ahead of her time a fresh drink of water in a cultural desert but never a proper Southern lady This biography tells the story of the woman who changed the cultural face of Charleston and the nation's approach to museum education After the Cult Holger Jebens, 2010 In many parts of the world the white man is perceived to be an instigator of globalization and an embodiment of modernity However so far anthropologists have paid little attention to the actual heterogeneity and complexity of whiteness in specific ethnographic contexts This study examines cultural perceptions of other and self as expressed in cargo cults and masked dances in Papua New Guinea Indigenous terms images and concepts are being contrasted with their western counterparts the latter partly deriving from the publications and field notes of Charles Valentine After having done his first fieldwork more than fifty years ago this anthropological ancestor has now become part of the local tradition and has thus turned into a kind of mythical figure Based on anthropological fieldwork as well as on archival studies this book addresses the relation between western and indigenous perceptions of self and other between tradition and modernity and between anthropological ancestors and descendants In this way the work contributes to the study of whiteness cargo cults and masked dances in Papua New Guinea Valentine Infantry Tank vs Panzer III Bruce Newsome, 2023-11-23 A unique comparison between the two most numerous British and German tank types from 1941 to 1943 Although much has been written about the Panzer III little attention has been given to the equally prominent Valentine tank This work compares the respective strengths and weaknesses of these iconic tanks which frequently went head to head in brutal battles across Europe Libya Egypt and Tunisia It documents the upgrades made to each AFV type over three years as up gunned and up armoured variants ever more lethal ever more survivable arrived in North Africa Dr Bruce Newsome explores the two tanks encounters from the first Valentine vs Panzer III clashes in 1941 to the Axis drive into Egypt and on to the Tunisian fighting of 1942 1943 Colour artworks include profile weaponry and gunsight and battlescene views of both tanks while maps chart the campaigns in which they met Each AFV's performance is also covered along with their technical details design evolution and crew histories Valentine Infantry Tank 1938-45 Bruce Newsome, 2016-04-21 The Valentine was the most produced and most widely used British tank of the Second World War The Valentine first saw combat during Operation Compass in November 1941 and remained one of the main medium tanks in British service into 1943 As the Churchill became more prevalent the Valentine was relegated to specialist and tank destroyer variants which would remain in service in the Far East to the end of the war This book describes the evolution of the Valentine design and weighs up its impact on the battlefield Although widely regarded today as one of the weaker tanks to be fielded during the war it was exceptionally numerous with more Valentines produced than any other British tank *Investigation into the alleged official misconduct of the late Superintendent of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Co.
