The Reportage of Urban Culture Rolf Lindner,1996-07-11

The current fascination with urban life has encouraged a growing interest in the Chicago School of sociology by students of sociological history It is generally accepted that the field research practised by the Chicago sociologists during the 1920s the Golden Age of Chicago sociology used methods borrowed from anthropology However Rolf Lindner also argues convincingly that the orientation of urban research advocated by Robert Park the key figure in the Chicago School and himself a former reporter is ultimately indebted to the tradition of urban reportage The Reportage of Urban Culture goes beyond a thorough reconstruction of the relationship between journalism and sociology It shows how the figure of the city reporter at the turn of the century represents a new way of looking at life and reflects a transformation in American culture from rejecting variety to embracing it
