When Everything Feels like the Movies (Governor General's Literary Award winner, Children's Literature) Raziel Reid, 2014-11-18 Winner Governor General s Literary Award Finalist Lambda Literary Award and Ferro Grumley Award for LGBT Fiction Raziel Reid is a really extraordinary guy He s got a great thing going Anne Rice School is just like a film set there s The Crew who make things happen The Extras who fill the empty desks and The Movie Stars whom everyone wants tagged in their Facebook photos But Jude doesn t fit in He s not part of The Crew because he isn t about to do anything unless it s court appointed he s not an Extra because nothing about him is anonymous and he s not a Movie Star because even though everyone know his name like an A lister he isn t invited to the cool parties As the director calls action Jude is the flamer that lights the set on fire Before everything turns to ashes from the resulting inferno Jude drags his best friend Angela off the casting couch and into enough melodrama to incite the paparazzi all while trying to fend off the haters and win the heart of his favourite co star Luke Morris It s a total train wreck But train wrecks always make the front page Raziel Reid is a graduate of the New York Film Academy He currently lives in Vancouver

Weathering Change Thomas J. Linneman, 2003-09 The Pacific Northwest is known for its diverse unusual politics There are thriving gay and lesbian communities and populations of staunchly conservative Christians Both groups wield political power out of proportion to their numbers and yet both feel beleaguered How do members of these groups both community leaders and everyday citizens perceive the political climates that surround them This book tells a tale of two Northwestern cities Seattle well known nationally for its liberalism and Spokane its conservative cousin to the east Weathering Change characterizes the ways these liberal and conservative environments translate into hostility and hospitality for the Christian conservatives gay men and lesbians who live within them Linneman gives us a firsthand account of how people from both groups think about social change in relation to the media the public the government their communities and their opposition Indeed we gain much needed insight into why Christian conservatives view the progress of the gay and lesbian movement as such a threat
