Christmas Sermons: Seven Sermon Outlines on the Familiar Passages of the Christmas Season. Edd Breeden, 2015-12-03 After forty years of preaching during the Advent season the story of Christmas never ceases to amaze me God in His great love came to earth to share with His creation the depth of His compassion and care for us But at the same time coming up with a new way to talk about that love year after year has been an ongoing task filled with frustration and joy The sermons in this book revolve around seven passages in the Bible although the amount of material here will give a preacher far more than seven sermons Each sermon outline has a basic three or four points but each of those points have a multitude of ideas under each point The plan is for you to pick and choose the support items you believe will help you make your point for that Sunday and draw the application that you believe God desires the people in your congregation to hear These sermons were originally written for Christmas Eve providing a rotating set of sermons for that annual service They were added to each time I preached them and over the years came to the form and content they have at present They can be used in that manner or used during the advent season A few of the sermons have almost enough content to be used for four Sundays in the month long season of Advent The sermons offer large amounts of content numerous applications and a variety of different ideas about the various aspects of the Christmas Story Other sermons I have used and have stood the test of time will be available shortly in volume two of the Christmas Sermons Have a blessed time as you minister to your congregation at this and future Christmas Seasons Cumulated Index to the Books, 1921-07 Praying for a Whole New World William G. Carter, 2000 A history professor told me that the earliest Protestants in America discouraged the celebration of Christmas It's too much fun the Puritans reasoned and the Gospel of Jesus Christ requires our utmost seriousness from the Introduction At a time of year which is often as stressful and exhausting as it is exhilarating William Carter reminds us that while holiday celebrations will fade into winter gloom Jesus Christ the light that casts no shadow remains at the center of our faith and lives This collection of seventeen sermons based on the Revised Common Lectionary is for readers who wish to take the gospel seriously during a season when commercialism and social activities can be overwhelming Carter's messages provide a wonderful interplay between the biblical text and illustrations drawn from contemporary life He brings the sensibilities of an accomplished jazz musician to the lectionary readings creating new melodies that arise from the established material some in counterpoint to the scripture others elaborating upon the original tune The sermons of this outstanding preacher are inspiring reading for both clergy and laypeople Senior pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Clarks Summit Pennsylvania William G Carter has received national recognition for his preaching and writing with sermons and articles appearing in Journal for Preachers Presbyterian Survey Preaching Lectionary Homiletics The Christian Ministry and Best Sermons 7 In 1999 he was selected to preach on The Protestant Hour an international radio ministry that reaches over two million listeners each week He frequently leads workshops for pastors on homiletical themes and practices A graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary Carter serves on the seminary s board of trustees Reverend Carter is also a highly regarded jazz pianist who has studied and performed with such noted artists as Phil Woods and Bob Brookmeyer He has traveled widely presenting contemporary worship services and frequently weaves his music into his ministry

The Days are Surely Coming Robert A. Hausman, 1994 Here are sermons which I can say proudly are by my pastor which bury into some of the lectionary s Old Testament texts They get at them in the context of the message of the whole gospel They address the issues we face with candor They will stimulate your imagination and your faith just as his preaching stimulates those of us in his congregation week by week Paul Westermeyer Professor of Church Music Luther Seminary St Paul Minnesota In Bethlehem the rules are different We get by giving We win by losing We live by dying These are principles set forth by a God who comes to us not under Herod s golden crown but Jesus thorny crown not with legions of soldiers but legions of angels not in great Jerusalem but in tiny Bethlehem

Let us begin our journey there from the Advent 3 sermon Robert A Hausman writes that once again in Advent we tell Israel's story of hope against hope We believe the promise of a shoot coming forth from a dead stump of a king who executes justice In faith we are ready to be called by the name The Lord is our righteousness We remember not only the promise but also the fulfillment says the author The seventeen sermons in this book are based on the First Lesson texts primarily from Isaiah and Jeremiah The sermons follow the Revised Common Lectionary Robert A Hausman St Paul Minnesota is pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection In addition to his parish ministry he has been a campus pastor a college and seminary professor and a book editor He holds a doctorate from the University of Chicago
