Sermons From The Black Pulpit:

Power in the Pulpit Cleophus James LaRue, 2002-01-01 In this book scholar and preacher Cleophus J LaRue brings together the voices of twelve of America's most influential African American preachers Each of these renowned preachers describes his or her method of sermon preparation and includes a sample sermon for illustration An excellent how to manual for pastors and students Power in the Pulpit is both sage wisdom on the art of preaching and an inspiring look at some of the most prominent figures in the black church

More Power in the Pulpit Cleophus J. LaRue, 2009-04-20 In this companion and sequel to the best selling Power in the Pulpit 2002 which has sold over 11 000 copies more of America's best known and most influential African American preachers describe how they go about preparing their sermons Each preacher also presents a sermon that highlights his or her particular method of sermon preparation This book is an excellent how to manual for pastors and students presenting sage advice and wisdom on the art of preaching and an inspirational look at the work of some of the most prominent figures in the life of the black church

The Heart of Black Preaching Cleophus J. LaRue, 1999-11-01 Cleophus LaRue argues that the extraordinary character of black preaching derives from a distinctive biblical hermeneutic that views God as involved in practical ways in the lives of African Americans This hermeneutic he believes has remained constant since the days of slavery LaRue analyzes the distinct characteristics of African American preaching and brings the insights of both theory and practice to bear on this important subject matter

Voices from the Dexter Pulpit Michael Thurman, 2007-01-01 From its founding in 1877 a series of remarkable preachers have filled the pulpit at the Dexter Avenue King Memorial Baptist Church in Montgomery Alabama Most famous among them of course was Martin Luther King Jr whose leadership of the civil rights movement began in a meeting in the basement of the Dexter Church at the outset of the Montgomery Bus Boycott in 1955 Yet King's was only one of the powerful voices which thundered the social gospel from what has become one of the most significant religious edifices in the world In this book editor Michael Thurman the current pastor of the church presents sermons from each of the ministers who have led the church since 1947 These pastors are Vernon Johns Martin Luther King Jr Herbert Eaton G Murray Branch Robert Dickerson Boykin Sanders Richard Wills and Michael Thurman Their collective sermons reveal the rhetorical and literary talents which are a hallmark of great preaching the profound faith which has sustained the African American tradition and the power and persuasiveness which have come to be identified with the Dexter Church pulpit as a force for both spiritual and social change

Sermons from the Black Pulpit Samuel D. Proctor, William D. Watley, 1984 We're celebrating the 30th anniversary of this Judson Press best seller The best of biblical scholarship and theological reflection is combined in these sermons that speak eloquently about a question of vital importance to all Christians what does it mean to be a person under God

The Negro Baptist Pulpit Edward M. Brawley, 1971

King Came Preaching Mervyn A. Warren, 2001 Mervyn Warren offers you a journey into the preaching of Martin Luther King Jr a homiletical biography exploring King's sermons use of language delivery and more      This is My Story Cleophus James LaRue,2005-01-01 African American women continue to confess their call to ministry even when they know such a confession may cause them to face criticism and even ostracism from many of the same men and women who nurtured them in the faith In This Is My Story thirteen successful African American women clergy tell the powerful inspirational and sometimes heartbreaking stories of their calls and ministerial journeys which they experienced in the midst of anguish uncertainty and in many cases unfriendly leadership environments Each of the women includes a sermon of particular importance to her      The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Vol. 7 Hughes Oliphant Old,2010 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen      Black Preaching ,1979 Transcripts of representative sermons are used to illustrate an appraisal of the language and style of the Black preaching tradition      Black Preaching Henry H. Mitchell,1990 Henry H Mitchell has completely revised and integrated his popular books The Recovery of Preaching and Black Preaching for seminarians and pastors both Black and White who are seeking to add power and vision to their sermons Mitchell persuasively demonstrates that Black culture and preaching style are vital for the empowerment of Black congregations and have much to offer the preaching method of all preachers By focusing on the use of storytelling imagination and style of preaching rooted in African American culture Mitchell spotlights effective techniques for lively preaching      The Gospel for the Ghetto Manuel Lee Scott,1973-01-01      The Four Pages of the Sermon Paul Scott Wilson,2010-09-01 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two      Say It! Eric C Redmond,2020-02-04 Say It A Celebration of Expository Preaching in the African American Tradition argues that Biblical Exposition is most dynamic when coupled with the African American preaching tradition Charlie Dates Romell Williams George Parks Jr Terry D Streeter and a cast of pastors and preaching professors collaborate to demonstrate the power of exposition in the cradle of the Black pulpit The contributors in this volume give examples of African American Biblical exposition in every section of the Old Testament and New Testament They also explain how to preach from narrative poetical prophetic epistolary and apocalyptic genres throughout the Scriptures This important and powerful resource celebrates the faithful biblical preaching of African Americans that is so often overlooked because it s stylistically different than the style of most white preachers Appropriate for training associate ministers or use as a textbook in homiletics Say It will give the preacher what is needed to speak to real life from every page of the Book

I Believe I'll Testify Cleophus J. LaRue,2011-04-04 Cleo LaRue is one of the best loved preachers and writers about preaching In past volumes he has brought together great collections of African American preaching to showcase the best preaching from across the country Here he offers his own insights into what makes for great preaching Filled with telling anecdotes LaRue s book recognizes that while great preaching comes from somewhere it also must go somewhere so preachers need to use the most artful language to send the Word on its journey

What's the Matter with Preaching Today? Mike Graves,2004-01-01 Seventy five years ago renowned preacher Harry Emerson Fosdick asked in Harper s Magazine what s the matter with preaching Fosdick s question is even more relevant today as both pastors and laity acknowledge the need for improvement in Sunday morning s sermons And who better for pastors and students to learn from than those who already do it well The contributors to this book are a some of the best and most thoughtful preachers in the church and classroom today In their essays they assess the state of preaching today identify a variety of issues that challenge effective preaching and offer helpful suggestions for what can be done to improve preaching In the process they help to define what effective preaching is

Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas,2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life      Unmasking White Preaching Lis Valle-Ruiz, Andrew Wymer, 2022-04-06 This book examines the impact of white racialization in homiletics The first section Racial Hegemony interrogates the white colonial bias of Euro American homiletical practice pedagogy and theory with particular attention to the intersection of preaching and racialization The second section Resistance and Possibilities contributes diverse critical homiletical approaches emerging in conversation with racially minoritized scholarship and racially subjugated knowledge and practice By reading this book preachers and professors of preaching will encounter alternative non dominant homiletical pathways toward a more just future for the church and the world      The Four Pages of the Sermon, Revised and Updated Paul Scott Wilson, 2018-09-18 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it author Paul Scott Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two This approach is about preaching the gospel in nearly any sermonic form Wilson teaches the what why and how of sermon construction all rooted in a theology of the Word This completely revised edition guides readers through the sermon process step by step with the aim of composing sermons that challenge and provide hope by focusing on God more closely than on humans It has been largely rewritten to include an assessment of where preaching is today in light of propositional preaching the New Homiletic African American preaching the effect of the internet and use of technology A chapter on exegesis has been added plus new focus on the importance of preaching to a felt need the need for proclamation in addition to teaching and developing tools to ensure sermon excellence New sermon examples have been added along with a section that responds to critics and looks to the future      Contemporary African American preaching P3040 , L Susan Bond reveals the full range and diversity of African American preaching in this exploration of African American homiletical theories Portraying the many approaches that are empowering preaching in African American churches today Bond shows how different theological perspectives produce different methods of sermon preparation and delivery different strategies for selecting illustrative material and even different ways of beginning and ending sermons Her goal is not to lift up the right way to preach in the African American tradition but to show the richness and nuance contained within this powerful cultural expression
