SERVANT OF ALL

Servant of All Ralph E. Enlow, Jr., 2019 2020 ECPA Christian Book Award Finalist for Ministry Resources What did Jesus really mean when he said Anyone who wants to be first must be the very last the servant of all Mark 9 35 Servant leadership is commended by popular leadership writers and scholars However much of the practical theoretical and even theological commentary on servant leadership doesn t do the Bible justice It fails to account for the context and history of interpretation around this often quoted saying of Jesus This context has everything to do with a truly biblical understanding of servant leadership and that s what Servant of All unfolds In a culture where greatness is often confused with fame or competence Servant of All is a much needed correction This useful guide includes personal and group reflection questions ideal for ministry training and discipleship
