literary approach to apocalyptic It tackles the problem of the origins of early Jewish apocalyptic by describing the correspondences and differences between some so called protoapocalyptic and apocalyptic texts The bulk of the book consists of exegetical studies of parts of Zechariah Deuterozechariah and the Enochic Book of Watchers Most of these studies offer new interpretations of the examined texts The framework of the book presents fresh perspectives on apocalyptic Some parts are more important to the scholar of post exilic prophecy and other parts to the student of the intertestamental literature Yet the overall approach and the conclusions bearing on the phenomenon of apocalyptic are of interest to scholars of both fields The Weekly Christian Teacher ,1839 How Plutocracy Downfall Satria Novian Lesmana,2024-12-04

Old Russian Possessive Constructions Hanne Martine Eckhoff,2011-10-27 This book is a detailed study of the possessive semantic space within the framework of construction grammar Using corpus data from Old Church Slavonic and Old Russian the book uses semantic maps to document the relationship between form and meaning in a set of semantically closely related syntactic constructions that can all express adnominal possession and all partially overlap The book also traces the development of these constructions from the earliest Slavic attestations towards Modern Russian thus also using the semantic maps as a diachronic tool This approach results in a much improved analysis of the data at hand The competing possessive constructions are treated as partly synonymous constructions in the same semantic space Changes are then seen to follow paths in this space The constructionist perspective also allows discerning the relative contributions of the possessor
