Sexual Offences in Armed Conflict and International Law Noëlle Quénivet, 2021-10-01 Noëlle Quénivet has constructed a valuable tool for navigating the morass of sexual offences and international law Using Bosnia Herzegovina a jumping off point she proceeds to show how over the last two decades the Western world has been swept up by a wave of feminist scholars writing about international law and more particularly humanitarian and human rights law Although these articles books and statements have covered a broad range of issues the focus has been on sexual offences and more specifically on rape in times of conflict These authors as well as NGOs supporting their ideas have made a series of assumptions concerning sexual offences in times of armed conflict On the basis of these presumptions they have claimed inter alia that international law does not adequately prohibit sexual offences and that prosecution is scarce This timely work examines whether the assumptions made by feminist scholars are solidly grounded in international law and whether their claims are still valid regarding the latest legal developments A thorough examination of the laws and the jurisprudence relating to sexual offences demonstrates that whereas before the creation of the ad hoc international criminal tribunals some of their claims were founded these claims are now partially ill founded Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Routledge Companion to Peace and Conflict Studies Sean Byrne, Thomas Matyók, Imani Michelle Scott, Jessica Senehi, 2019-07-24 This Companion examines contemporary challenges in Peace and Conflict Studies PACS and offers practical solutions to these problems Bringing together chapters from new and established global scholars the volume explores and critiques the foundations of Peace and Conflict Studies in an effort to advance the discipline in light of contemporary local and global actors The book examines the following eight specific components of Peace and Conflict Studies Peace and conflict studies praxis Structure agency tension as it relates to social justice nonviolence and relationship building Gender masculinity and sexuality The role of partnerships and allies in racial ethnic and religious peacebuilding Culture and identity Critical and emancipatory peacebuilding International conflict transformation and peacebuilding Global responses to conflict It argues that new critical and emancipatory peacebuilding and conflict transformation strategies are needed to address the complex cultural economic political and social conflicts of the 21st century This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies peace studies conflict resolution transitional justice reconciliation studies social justice studies and international relations Betty A.
