Sexual Citizenship The Material Construction Of Sexualities:

Sexual Citizenship David Evans, 2013-01-11 This enthralling and provocative book provides a new grounding for the understanding of sexual rights It argues that all varieties of sexuality under capitalism are materially constructed out of the complex interrelationship between the market and the state The examples of different sexual rights and lack of rights that it examines include the experience of male homosexuals bisexuals transvestites transsexualists and children Meticulous focused and challenging it will be required reading for anyone interested in modern human sexualities

Sexual Citizenship David Trevor Evans, 1993 This provocative book provides a new grounding for the understanding of sexual rights It examines the ways in which sexuality is constructed with reference to the rights and lack of rights of homosexuals transvestites children and others

Sexual Politics of Desire and Belonging Nick Rumens, Alejandro Cervantes Carson Cervantes C., 2007 Designed for students academics and the general reader alike Sexual Politics of Desire and Belonging provides theoretical and empirical insights into the linkages between sexualities and forms of desire and ways of belonging and relating to others in specific contexts and moments in time Opening with a substantial introduction by one of the editors this collection of thirteen essays is organised into three parts each section making important contributions to contemporary debates regarding the sexual politics of citizenship marriage friendship pornography intimacies eroticism and desire As such the essays introduce fresh perspectives for thinking about how individuals construct senses of belonging and modes of relating to others in their everyday lives within the disciplinary frameworks of sociology organisational analysis and cultural studies As well the volume analyses representations of desire and eroticism in British Pop Art trauma and feminist fiction polyamory self help literature Hollywood films and sociological and psychoanalytic theory Analytical insights offered within these essays will do much to stimulate debate about aspects of the socially and historically constituted relationship between desire and sexuality Because of the diverse approaches and conclusions it contains the volume will be essential reading for anyone interested in engaging with inter and multidisciplinary perspectives in order to understand the dynamics between constructions of desire and belonging and discourses of gender sex and sexuality

Queering Families of Origin Chiara Bertone, Maria Pallotta-Chiarolli, 2016-04-14 This book provides an original insight into how families of origin of Gay Lesbian Bisexual and Transgender GLBT people are involved in negotiating meanings and experiences of sexuality and intimacy an underexplored dimension of queer family life Delving into the perspectives of families of origin and showing the complexity and heterogeneity of the ways people with their different gender and sexual identities do families across generations it contributes to queering the very distinction between families of origin and families of choice and questions the hetero normative assumptions about forms and boundaries of family this distinction rests upon A focus on marginal contexts such as Southern Europe and on marginal subjects like bisexuals or black lesbians is proposed as a way to challenge the universality of privileged narratives within heteronormativity homonormativity and anglocentrism and to reveal unexpected resources families of origin use to make sense of GLBT identities and lived experiences The book poses a crucial question how can alliances along family ties develop on the basis of shared stories of family diversity and marginalised identities rather than of loving and normative support to GLBT people in need and an advocacy in their name from a position of heterosexual privilege This book was originally published in Journal of GLBT Family Studies Companion to Sexuality Studies Nancy A.

Why Europe Is Lesbian and Gay Friendly (and Why America Never Will Be) Angelia R. Wilson,2013-06-02 Offers an analysis of the political economy of care in order to explain how lesbian and gay citizens in Europe benefit from equality more than those in the United States Why Europe Is Lesbian and Gay Friendly and Why America Never Will Be examines the differences in politics policy and culture in leading Western democracies and offers an explanation as to why lesbian and gay citizens in Europe reap more benefits of equality This analysis of the political economy of care calls attention to the ways in which care is negotiated by various investors the state families individuals and the faith based voluntary sector and the power dynamics of this negotiation Historically Christian churches have been leading primary investors in care providing a direct safety net for children and the elderly Despite European secularization the involvement of the Christian church elites in both the provision of service and the setting of the values frame for welfare cannot be underestimated The historical involvement of Christian churches is unique in each country but one common factor is the normative interpretation of the family The role of Christian values from left leaning social justice Reformed Protestant individualism or social conservatism in relation to the political economy of care gives a distinctive flavor to questions about under what circumstances policymakers are compelled or not to expand policies to include lesbian and gay citizens

Women Filmmakers and the Visual Politics of Transnational China in the #MeToo Era Gina Marchetti, 2025-10-01 Manoeuvring around mainland China's censors and pushing back against threats of lawsuits online harassment and physical violence MeToo activists shed a particularly harsh light on the treatment of women in the cinema and entertainment industries Focusing on films from the People's Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora this book considers how female directors shape Chinese visual politics through the depiction of the look the stare the leer the glare the glimpse the glance the queer and the oppositional gaze in fiction and documentary filmmaking In the years leading up to and following in the wake of MeToo these cosmopolitan women filmmakers offer innovative angles on body image reproduction romance family relations gender identity generational differences female sexuality sexual violence sex work labor migration career options minority experiences media access feminist activism and political rights within the rapidly changing Chinese cultural orbit

Rethinking Sexuality David H.J. Larmour, Paul Allen Miller, Charles Platter, 2021-01-12 In this collection of provocative essays historians and literary theorists assess the influence of Michel Foucault particularly his History of Sexuality on the study of classics Foucault's famous work presents a bold theory of sexuality for both ancient and modern times and yet until now it has remained under explored and insufficiently analyzed By bringing together the historical knowledge philological skills and theoretical perspectives of a wide range of scholars this collection enables the reader to explore Foucault's model of Greek culture and see how well his interpretation accounts for the full range of evidence from Greece and Rome. Not only do the essays bring to light the assumptions, ideas, and practices that constituted the intimate lives of men and women in the ancient Mediterranean world, but they also demonstrate the importance of the History of Sexuality for fields as diverse as Greco-Roman antiquity, women's history, cultural studies, philosophy, and modern sexuality. The essays include: Situating The History of Sexuality, the editors; Taking the Sex Out of Sexuality: Foucault's Failed History, Joel Black; Incipit Philosophia, Alain Vizzier; The Subject in Antiquity after Foucault, Page duBois; This Myth Which Is Not One: Construction of Discourse in Plato's Symposium, Jeffrey S. Carnes; Foucault's History of Sexuality: A Useful Theory for Women, Amy Richlin; Catullan Consciousness: the Care of the Self and the Force of the Negative in History, Paul Allen Miller; Reversals of Platonic Love in Petronius' Satyricon, Daniel B. McGlathery; and an essay from Dislocating Masculinity, Lin Foxhall.
