Shade Ireland Only:

Lights and Shades of Ireland Asenath Nicholson, 1850 Shades of Green Ryan W. Keating, 2017-08-08 Drawing on records of about 5 500 soldiers and veterans Shades of Green traces the organization of Irish regiments from the perspective of local communities in Connecticut Illinois and Wisconsin and the relationships between soldiers and the home front Research on the impact of the Civil War on Irish Americans has traditionally fallen into one of two tracks arguing that the Civil War either further alienated Irish immigrants from American society or that military service in defense of the Union offered these men a means of assimilation In this study of Irish American service Ryan W Keating argues that neither paradigm really holds because many Irish Americans during this time already considered themselves to be assimilated members of American society This comprehensive study argues that the local community was often more important to ethnic soldiers than the imagined ethnic community especially in terms of political social and economic relationships An analysis of the Civil War era from this perspective provides a much clearer understanding of immigrant place and identity during the nineteenth century With a focus on three regiments not traditionally studied the author provides a fine grained analysis revealing that ethnic communities like other types of communities are not monolithic on a national scale Examining lesser studied communities rather than the usual those of New York City and Boston Keating brings the local back into the story of Irish American participation in the Civil War thus adding something new and valuable to the study of the immigrant experience in America s bloodiest conflict Throughout this rich and groundbreaking study Keating supports his argument through advanced quantitative analysis of military service records and an exhaustive review of a massive wealth of raw data his use of quantitative methods on a large dataset is an unusual and exciting development in Civil War studies Shades of Green is sure to shake up several fields of study that rely on ethnicity as a useful category for analysis its impressive research provides a significant contribution to scholarship Shades of Blue Félix Krawatzek, Friedemann Pestel, Rieke Trimcev, Gregor Feindt, 2025-02-15 In Shades of Blue Félix Krawatzek Friedemann Pestel Rieke Trimcev and Gregor Feindt investigate the political project of Europe as it oscillates between the extremes of expectations of an ever wider integration and fear of disintegration The authors interrogate and chart the space between these polarities by tracking the many competing conceptions of Europe in European public discourse and relate these meanings to national regional and ideological divisions Based on qualitative discourse analyses of newspaper articles from six European Union member states between 2004 and 2023 Shades of Blue shifts how we think about Europe s integration and disintegration and offers a new perspective on Europeanization With twelve debates chronicling Europe s past and discussing the implications for Europe s future these authors uncover how politicians intellectuals and journalists negotiate European senses of belonging Shades of Blue moves beyond the binaries of hope and despair to uncover a more nuanced picture of Europe Shades of Difference Sujata Iyengar, 2013-04-12 Was there such a thing as a modern notion of race in the English Renaissance and if so was skin color its necessary marker In fact early modern texts described human beings of various national origins including English as turning white brown tawny black green or red for any number of reasons from the effects of the sun s rays or imbalance of the bodily humors to sexual desire or the application of makeup It is in this cultural environment that the seventeenth century London Gazette used the term black to describe both dark skinned African runaways and dark haired Britons such as Scots who are now unquestioningly conceived of as white In Shades of Difference Sujata Iyengar explores the cultural mythologies of skin color in a period during which colonial expansion and the slave trade introduced Britons to more dark skinned persons than at any other time in their history Looking to texts as divergent as sixteenth century Elizabethan erotic verse seventeenth century lyrics and Restoration prose romances Iyengar considers the construction of race during the early modern period without oversimplifying the emergence of race as a color coded classification or a black white opposition Rather race embodiment and skin color are examined in their multiple contexts historical geographical and literary Iyengar engages works that have not previously been incorporated into discussions of the formation of race such as Marlowe s Hero and Leander and Shakespeare s Venus and Adonis By rethinking the emerging early modern connections between the notions of race skin color and gender Shades of Difference furthers an ongoing discussion with originality and impeccable scholarship

Woven Shades of Green Tim Wenzell, 2019-08-09 Early Irish nature poetry Nature writing and the changing Irish landscape Nature and the Irish literary revival Modern Irish nature poetry The literature of Irish naturalists

Weathering the Storm Javier Villar Burke, 2016-12-29 Weathering the Storm explores the factors leading up to the recent global financial and economic crisis how the crisis unfolded and the response of European and national authorities The book describes the rationale behind the measures undertaken to mitigate the consequences of the recession and to ensure that a similar situation does not happen again in the future In the wake of the crisis various major changes continue to significantly affect the life and social organization of Europeans For instance a new ESM with a size financially comparable to that of the IMF was created similarly the reforms in economic governance imply much more intrusive participation of European countries in each other s macroeconomic policies Moreover the organization regulation and supervision of the financial sector have been drastically revamped The decisions taken by European and national authorities affect the daily lives of hundreds of millions of European citizens and countless more around the globe An insightful read for anyone interested in understanding the topic and its effect on their lives the book primarily addresses undergraduate students in their final year and graduate students in fields such as economics finance and political science The main messages are explained through examples and charts

Fifty Shades of Jamie Dornan - A Biography Louise Ford, 2015-01-08 A no holds barred biography of the Northern Irish actor who is Hollywood s new leading hottie Fifty Shades of Grey was an unstoppable 100 million selling juggernaut Starring in the big screen version as sexually deviant billionaire Christian Grey Jamie Dornan is poised to become the most talked about actor in the world A former Calvin Klein model who famously dated Keira Knightley

Dornan was known as The Golden Torso with good reason While having his dazzling good looks showcased in Hollywood s hottest role is guaranteed to turn him into a global star his turn as a serial killer in the critically acclaimed crime drama The Fall confirms his acting pedigree Covering everything from personal tragedies to life as a husband and father this biography will surely satisfy Dornan s most insatiable fans Fifty Shades of Domination - My True Story Mistress

Miranda, 2014-02-03 One girl s journey from a poor but conventional family background to life as Britain s foremost dominatrix Here is the intelligent funny story of how one Mistress made her way to the top a warm and moving true story of triumph over family intrigue and tragedy At the age of eight Miranda discovered that her beloved mummy and daddy were in fact her grandparents and her real mother was the woman she had always known as her elder sister Miranda writes honestly about her struggle to accept the trauma of these new family relationships She details how she became a teenage wild child experimenting with sexual tastes that from the start involved dominating her boyfriend Unable to cope with this bright but willful teenager her elderly grandparents were forced to tell her to leave and at just 16 Miranda was homeless and penniless To fund her studies she first became a teenage receptionist for working girls but soon realized that her own sexual tastes were well suited to satisfy a vast demand from submissive men Here Miranda relays the tales of the men women and couples who have visited her extensive dungeon chambers over the past two decades for fetish fun This is not a book about sex for money but about work that is a mixture of fetish fashion complex psychological role play bondage and domination

Shades of Green Ruth Tittensor, 2016-10-31 This book takes a fresh look at the most disliked tree in Britain and Ireland explaining the reasons it was introduced and why it became ubiquitous in the archipelagos of northwest Europe Sitka spruce has contributed to the Pacific Coast landscapes of North America for over ten millennia For the Tlingit First Nation it is the most important tree in terms of spiritual relationships art and products in daily use such as canoes containers fish traps and sweet cakes Since the late nineteenth century it has also been the most important tree to the timber industry of west coast North America The historical background to the modern use of Sitka spruce is explored The lack of cultural reference may explain negative public response when treeless uplands in the UK and Ireland were afforested with introduced conifer species particularly Sitka spruce following two World Wars The multipurpose forestry of today recognizes that Sitka spruce is the most important tree to the timber industry and to a public which uses its many products but fails to recognize the link between growing trees and bought goods The apparently featureless and wildlife less Sitka spruce plantations in UK uplands are gradually developing recognizable ecological features Sitka spruce has the potential to form temperate rain forests this century as well as to produce much needed goods for society The major contribution of Sitka spruce to landscapes and livelihoods in western North America is by contrast widely accepted But conserving natural old growth forests sustaining the needs of First Nations and producing materials for the modern timber industry will be an intricate task Shades of Whiteness Ewan Kirkland, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 This collection examines the varying constructions of racial whiteness across different historical periods cultures and nation states Discussions are included of whiteness as depicted in cinema literature comic books the internet photography and popular television drawing on perspectives and disciplines such as history sociology the law feminism discourse analysis and cultural studies The formation of whiteness is considered across many national contexts including the United States the United Kingdom Austria Italy Sweden South Africa and Ireland The intention of the collection is to illustrate the variability of whiteness as a racial construct the ways in which whiteness is complicated and fragmented by other qualities such as country of origin religion language age and appearance the extent to which whiteness comes to be located in non physical qualities such as education ethnicity class lifestyle and behaviour and the extent to which whiteness establishes and maintains its own internal hierarchies
