Shadow Of An Airplane Climbs The Empire:

The Shadow of an Airplane Climbs the Empire State Building Parker Tyler, 1972 Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Film Dialogue Jeff Jaeckle, 2013-06-25 Film Dialogue is the first anthology in film studies devoted to the topic of language in cinema bringing together leading and emerging scholars to discuss the aesthetic narrative and ideological dimensions of film speech that have largely gone unappreciated and unheard Consisting of thirteen essays divided into three sections genre auteur theory and cultural representation Film Dialogue revisits and reconfigures several of the most established topics in film studies in an effort to persuade readers that spectators are more accurately described as audiences that the gaze has its equal in eavesdropping and that images are best understood and appreciated through their interactions with words Including an introduction that outlines a methodology of film dialogue study and adopting an accessible prose style throughout Film Dialogue is a welcome addition to ongoing debates about the place value and purpose of language in cinema Screening Space Vivian Carol Sobchack, 1997 This text attempts to shape definitions of the American science fiction film studying the connection between the films and social preconceptions It covers many classic films and discusses their import seeking to rescue the genre from the neglect of film theorists The book should appeal to both film buff and fans of science fiction Filmosophy Daniel Frampton, 2006-12-12 Filmosophy is a provocative new manifesto for a radically philosophical way of understanding cinema It coalesces twentieth century ideas of film as thought from Hugo Münsterberg to Gilles Deleuze into a practical theory of film thinking arguing that film style conveys poetic ideas through a constant dramatic intent about the characters spaces and events of film Discussing contemporary filmmakers such as Béla Tarr and the Dardenne brothers this timely contribution to the study of film and philosophy will provoke debate among audiences and filmmakers alike FILMOSOPHY is a registered U S trademark owned by Valentin Stoilov www.filmosophy.com for educational services in the field of motion picture history theory and production Mr Stoilov is not the source or origin of this book and has not sponsored or endorsed it or its author *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
