The Publishers Weekly, 1924 In the Shadow of Girls in Blossom Marcel Proust, 2024-11-19 I was at one of those periods in youth vacant without any particular love object when like a lover seeing his beloved in all things we desire we seek we see Beauty everywhere. In The Shadow of Girls in Blossom, the second volume of Proust's In Search of Lost Time 1913-27 is a novel of exploration and self-discovery continuing the story of the narrator's youth and adolescence. From the enclosed spaces of the fin de siècle social world that revolves around Madame Swann we move to the fictional town of Balbec on the Normandy coast, a place where the social classes intermingle with mutual fascination. Against the ever-changing backdrop of the sea, a constant reminder of beauty's mutability and the vastness of the world beyond individual human affairs, the narrator encounters individuals who will shape his experience and indelibly colour his outlook on that world. He finds a friend in the aristocratic Robert de Saint-Loup and is perplexed by his enigmatic uncle, the Baron de Charlus; he finds a tutelary figure in Elstir, the gifted idiosyncratic painter, and in Albertine he comes to recognise the blossoming girl who will become the love and the bane of his life. The novel provides a breath-taking illumination of what it is to encounter beauty and to seek to understand our relation to it in people, in experiences, in art, or in the landscape around us. An exploration of the thrills of infatuation, the fallibility of perception, and how desire builds and ebbs, the narrative prepares readers for the love affair that will define the narrator's future existence and shape the volumes of In Search of Lost Time to come. ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe. Much more than just a typical price guide, the book is a directory with scores of actual buyers listed by the subject matter they are searching for, as well as dealers offering the books at listed prices. It will put you in touch with a person interested in buying or selling the books you have piled on your bookshelves. In the Shadow of Young Girls in Flower: In Search of Lost Time II Marcel Proust, 2024-05-09 Marcel Proust's L'ombre des jeunes filles en fleurs appeared in Paris in 1919 winning the Prix Goncourt that December and turning its reclusive author into a household name overnight Often rendered in English as In the Shadow of Young Girls in Flower or in older versions Within a Budding Grove this second volume of In Search of Lost Time follows the unnamed narrator out of childhood and into the quicksand of first love The book opens among the mirrored salons of Madame Swann's Paris apartment where the boy who once begged for a bedtime kiss now studies the codes of adult society while still nursing a tender fascination for Gilberte Proust then shifts the scene to Balbec a sun drenched Normandy resort modeled on Cabourg there seaside walks hotel dinners and changing room gossip bring him into the orbit of a lively band of girls chief among them the elusive Albertine Simonet so that every blush and sidelong glance becomes fresh evidence of how memory and desire start to build a personal history Set in the last summers before the First World War the novel captures both an age of lazy holiday rituals and the tremor of change that will soon wash it away all in sentences that linger over the smell of beach tar or the curve of a girl's smile until time itself seems to breathe This critical reader's edition presents a modern translation of the original manuscript crafted for the contemporary reader with lucid language and streamlined sentences that illuminate Proust's intricate French syntax and period specific allusions Supplementary material enriches the text with autobiographical historical and linguistic context including an afterword by the translator on Proust's personal history cultural impact and intellectual legacy an index of the philosophical concepts he weaves highlighting his explorations of memory time and the influence of Henri Bergson a comprehensive chronological list of his published writings and a detailed timeline of his life emphasizing the friendships and social circles that shaped his artistic vision

Musical America, 1919 Minutes of Glory Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, 2019-03-05 A dazzling short story collection from the person Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie calls one of the greatest writers of our time. Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, although renowned for his novels, memoirs and plays, honed his craft as a short story writer. From The Fig Tree written in 1960, his first year as an undergraduate at Makerere University College in Uganda, to the playful The Ghost of Michael Jackson written as a professor at the University of California, Irvine, these collected stories reveal a master of the short form. Covering the period of British colonial rule and resistance in Kenya to the bittersweet experience of independence and including two stories that have never before been published in the United States, Ngũgĩ's collection features women fighting for their space in a patriarchal society, big men in their Bentleys who have inherited power from the British, and rebels who still embody the fighting spirit of the downtrodden. One of Ngũgĩ's most beloved stories, Minutes of Glory, tells of Beatrice, a sad but ambitious waitress who fantasizes about being feted and lauded over by the middle class clientele in the city's beer halls. Her dream leads her on a witty and heartbreaking adventure. Published for the first time in America, Minutes of Glory and Other Stories is a major literary event that celebrates the storytelling might of one of Africa's best loved writers.
